Take all those reports that Curt Simmons is washed up, wring thoroughly and then hang them out to dry.

Someone apparently made out the wrong laundry ticket on the 33-year-old St. Louis Cardinals' southpaw.

Simmons underwent the first crisis of his career when he mangled two toes on his left foot while mowing his front lawn in 1953.

Some felt he was through when he was sent back to the minors in 1959 and most experts were sure of it when he drew his unconditional release in 1960 after 13 seasons with the Phillies.

But along comes this same Simmons with his fourth straight victory Tuesday night and pitches the Cardinals into first place in the National league by beating the Milwaukee Braves, 2-1.

The veteran left-hander no longer owns the blazing fast ball that brought him a $85,000 bonus from the Phils 16 months ago but he still has enough stuff to make the Cards happy they signed him as a free agent three seasons back.

Allows Four Hits

Simmons limited the Braves to four hits and fanned eight in going the distance for the fourth time. His current 4-0 start is in keeping with his break from the barrier last year when he won his first five straight games.

Bothered by arm trouble down through the years, Simmons was hardly bothered at all by the Braves as he turned in the 14th victory of his major league career.

Frank Bolling tagged him for a first-inning homer, after which Simmons held the Braves hitless until the seventh. The Cards had no easy time either with 24-year-old Denny Lemaster, who also struck out eight and allowed four hits during the seven innings he pitched.

They scored their first run off him in the fourth and Julian Javier's homer in the fifth proved to be the clincher.

Rain threw a damper on the major league schedule for the second straight night, washing out four other scheduled National games and two American league contests.

Angels Beat Yankees

In the AL games that were played, the Los Angeles Angels beat the New York Yankees, 6-3, and the Minnesota Twins defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 8-1.

Ken McBride of the Angels had a no-hitter going against the Yankees for six innings but still needed help when the losers rallied for two runs in the ninth.

Second baseman Billy Moran, back in the lineup after a four-day layoff due to an ankle injury, drove in two of the Angels' runs with a home run and a double while Leon Wagner accounted for two more with a pair of singles.

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris playing together for the first time this season, each collected one hit and that was during the ninth inning rally. McBride yielded five of the Yanks' seven hits in winning his second game. Ex-Dodger Stan Williams was charged with his first defeat after being routed in the fifth.

Bob Allison and Zoilo Versalles each collected a pair of doubles in the Twins' 14-hit attack against the Orioles. Minnesota built a 3-1 lead off loser Steve Harber (4-2), then rallied for five runs at the expense of reliever Dick Hall in the eighth.

Camilo Pascual, who lost his first three games of the season, posted his second victory. He gave up 11 hits and aided his own cause by driving in two runs with a pair of singles.

SPORTS

Red Raiders Nick Oregon Tech 15-14

Ashland - Back to back solo home runs by Bill Bailey and Maynard Frank in the top of the 13th inning were enough to offset a single OTI run in the bottom of the frame yesterday and Southern Oregon college nosed Oregon Tech 15 to 14 in an Oregon Collegiate conference baseball free-for-all at Klamath Falls.

Victory moved SOC into a first place tie with Eastern Oregon. Each is 4-2.

The Raiders of Ashland broke a 13-all tie with the circuit smashes, Bob Edwards roundtripped for the Owls in the bottom of the canto.

SOC had a five run first inning in the hassle and Jack Nicklaus, the big three of professional golf, has entered the 100-man field that will tee off in the $10,000 Thunderbird invitation classic at the Westchester Country club June 12-16.

The Raiders had a 12 to 1 lead going into the last of the sixth canto. Four hits helped the Owls cut the spread to 12 to 7. Tech collected three more markers in the seventh

Fred Thomas Spurs Raider Scantclads

Ashland-Fred Thomas, the one-man gang of the Southern Oregon college track team, had a hand in five first places yesterday as the Red Raiders of the Rogue overwhelmed Humboldt State 105 1/2 to 39 1/2 in a meet here.

Thomas headed the individual point tabulations with lone firsts in the 100-yard dash, the broad jump and the hop, step and jump, a tie for first in the high jump and a leg on the winning 440-yard relay team.

The Raiders collected firsts in 13 of the 17 events. Double winners for SOC were Bill White in the hurdle events and Denny Ellis in the discus and javelin. Ellis' 209-foot javelin heave was a school record and the 42.7 time of Thomas, White, Doyle Branson and Dave Graham in the 440 relay also is a new Raider mark.

Other Raider firsts were Branson in the 220, Graham in the 440, Jeff LeRoy in the 880, Norm Oyer in the three-mile and Spike Gordon and Mike Hanby (tied) in the pole vault. Dwight James tied with Thomas in the high jump.

SOC will entertain Central Oregon, Southwestern Oregon and University of Pacific at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Cox, Price Times Fast

Hillsboro -UPI- Hillsboro's Wendell Cox and South Salem's Jim Price traded victories in the mile and 880-yard runs and recorded the best times of the Oregon high school track season in the two events Tuesday.

Cox defeated Price in the mile in 4:19.6 and Price beat Cox in the 880 in 1:54.8. Cox was clocked in 1:55.5. South Salem edged Hillsboro 65-57 in the dual meet.

A total of 12,254,800 new homes were built in the United States between 1952 and 1962, according to Allied Chemical's Barrett division.

John Pannel Goes 16-6 3/4

Monroe, La.—UPI—John Pannel, who says 17-foot pole vaults are just a matter of time, Tuesday night bettered Brian Sternber's three-day old unofficial world record with a leap of 16 feet 3 3/4 inches.

The Northeast Louisiana State College vaulter also barely missed on three tries at 16-9 in a meet with Northwestern Louisiana.

Paul Jones at the garden club? Not likely!
