Protests Heard on Motel, Hotel Tax

Salem—(UPI)—Warnings that a proposed 10 per cent tax on rental of hotel and motel rooms could threaten Oregon's tourist business was voiced Tuesday night at a House Tax committee hearing.

Eugene Kelly of the Oregon Hotel and Motel association said there has been "extreme overbuilding" in the business.

Kelth Cobo, Klamath Falls, chairman of the association's legislative committee, said "we should be good hosts and not tax collectors."

House Tax Committee Chairman Richard Eymann (D-Marcola) said the hotel-motel tax was proposed because many people felt tourists were getting a "free ride" on taxes. The committee took no action on the bill.
