May Fellowship Event To Aid County Program

The Jackson county Christian Education program will benefit from the May Fellowship Day luncheon scheduled for Friday, May 3 at 12 noon in the First Presbyterian church. All interested persons are invited to the luncheon and ministers and their wives are asked to be special guests. The event is sponsored by the Medford Council of United Church Women.

During the annual observance Mrs. A. L. Clay will sing solo selections and a panel discussion will consider the day's theme, "One Family Under God." Panelists will be Miss Ethel Shumway, Jackson county social worker; Lawrence L. Tweedy of the Jackson County Juvenile department; and the Rev. Robert Tull, minister of First Congregational church Mrs. C. W. Kline will be moderator.

Mrs. Arnold Bohnerl is in charge of the program.

The Medford council is one of 2300 local and state councils in this country which will observe the day when women of many denominations meet to consider problems related to Christian concerns, council officers state.

Mrs. Eugene Ray, who is in charge of luncheon arrangements, has announced that mothers with small children may leave them in the nursery provided and should take sack lunches for the children.

SOC Festival Open to Public

Ashland - The Southern Oregon college festival of the Fine Arts will open Sunday, May 5 at 5 p.m., with a recital presented by the southern Oregon college music department. Taking part in the program will be the brass ensemble directed by Dr. Herbert Cecil, the college choir directed by Oscar Barille; the string ensemble directed by Audrey Brist, and vocal soloists from the studio of Richard Schall.

There will be no admission charge for this program and the public is invited.

Townsend Club Delegation To Attend Meet

A group of Ashland and Medford Townsend club members plan to attend the fourth district council meeting of the organization to be held Sunday, May 5 in the Community building in North Bend, Ore.

John Doyle Elliott, economist from national headquarters, Washington, D. C., is scheduled as speaker. Finis L. Snodgrass, Portland, is state director.

Mr. Pitt chapter members plan a picnic and meeting Sunday, May 12 at Alba park in Jackson county fairgrounds, unless the weather is inclement.

Fifty Plus

Cards, games and dancing are on the program for Medford Fifty Plus club members Friday, May 3 when the group will meet at 12 noon in St. Mark's Episcopal Guild hall, Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue. A potluck luncheon will be served and members are to take covered dish contributions for the event. All interested persons are invited.

Week End Announced

Oregon State University - Mothers of Oregon State university students will be honored on campus May 3 and 4 with "Time Out for Mom" as the theme.

More than 2,000 mothers are expected to come to the campus to spend the weekend with their sons and daughters.

The program will include campus tours, flower and photo shows, dance review, style show, fraternity-sorority sing competition, water show, athletic events, ROTC drill team competition, a play, and open house in the various living groups.

Mrs. Joseph K. Roe of Corvallis, president of the OSU Mothers club this year, will conduct the annual business meeting that will be climaxed by announcement of Mothers club scholarship winners for 1963-64. Sixteen full-tuition scholarships, worth $4800, were awarded by the Mothers club a year ago.

Mrs. Kennedy Attends Ballet

New York - Mrs. John F. Kennedy showed up as a surprise spectator Wednesday night at the Metropolitan Opera House where the Royal Ballet of England gave its American premiere of "Marguerite and Armand."

The First Lady flew to New York late Wednesday and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bliss at the performance starring Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev.

The first nighters applauded the First Lady when she was seen in the audience.

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. Willis Slavens and children, Kathy and Mike, spent from Thursday to Saturday in Portland.

This hand-carved copy of a ladies rocker, with rocking foot stool, is called Betsy Lee. It is from the Hungerford line.

Mother, Baby Care Class Still Is Open

Registration is still possible in the new Mother and Baby Care class to be offered by the Jackson County chapter of the Red Cross, chapter officials have announced. The class will be conducted each Monday and Wednesday, for a three-week period, beginning on Monday, May 6, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Richard L. McGuire, qualified Red Cross volunteer instructor, will teach the class and urges both parents to attend where possible. The course includes, among other things, training in prenatal and postnatal care of the mother and complete instruction in the care of the newborn infant. She stated that this course is designed specifically for new parents and is recommended by physicians throughout the United States.

It will be necessary to limit the registration, so persons wishing to enroll in this session should make their reservations by calling the Red Cross office, 772-4405.

Mrs. Ted Hill Club Hostess

Central Point - Mrs. Ted Hill, Central Point, was hostess for the last meeting of Crater chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, entertaining at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Van Sickle, Myers court, Medford.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. August Sukow and Mrs. M. J. Stark.

On April 23 members of the club served tea at the Central Point library in celebration of National Library week.

Next meeting of the group will be May 20 at the home of Mrs. W. A. McDowell, 321 North Third street, Central Point.

Dinner

Hornbrook - Mrs. Allie Tyler and Mrs. Harry Chapman, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wedin and son, Mike, of Yreka, drove to Dunsmuir, recently, where they were joined by Mrs. Erma Cooper and Mrs. Margaret Olsen. The group had dinner at the Piedmont hotel in Mt. Shasta in observance of the birthday of Mrs. Cooper.

Service Guild Officers Listed

Mrs. Bobbie L. Bills was installed president of the Susannah Wesley Service Guild during recent ceremonies held in the home of Mrs. Carol A. Adams, in Central Point. Mrs. George Roseberry conducted the installations.

Mrs. Leonard A. Warren was installed president-elect; Mrs. Oliver Taylor, vice president; Mrs. Alden Moyer, treasurer; Mrs. Everett Manley, chairman of spiritual life; Mrs. John Haven, missionary education and service; Mrs. Carl Burk and Mrs. John Haven, membership; Mrs. Jerrie Dick, publicity; Mrs. Omar Bacon, Christian Social relations; Mrs. Herbert B. Strang, supply work; Miss Sharon Smith, local church activities, and Mrs. Adams, courtesy chairman.

Mrs. Taylor presented a program on United Nations.

Guest Caller Is Scheduled

Jack Livingston, known as Indiana's traveling square dance caller, will call for the dancing during the Twirlers Square Dance club birthday party Saturday, May 4 in Wilson school at Johnson street and Corona avenue in Medford. Dancing will be conducted from 8 to 11:30 p.m. In the past, dances for which Mr. Livingston has called, have been well received in this area because of their pace and variety, those in charge point out.

From 11:30 p.m. to midnight, coffee and cake will be served and prizes will be awarded. The prizes have been donated by local businessmen. Cake will be taken by club women.

During the Saturday session of the Star Promenaders, Byron (Buz) Dibble announced for Floyd Squares that the Country Squares have postponed an open hoedown to May 18 because of the traveling callers visit in this area. The Promenaders are expected to retrieve a traveling banner which will be a part of the decorations used in Wilson school gymnasium for the Twirlers party.

Final Concert Set For May 16

The Tipton Chamber orchestra will present the final concert of the 1963-64 season of Jackson County Civic Music association Thursday, May 16, at the Medford High school auditorium.

The orchestra, directed by Albert Tipton, is made up of 11 strings, an oboe and English horn. Director Tipton is a flutist. Mary Norris, Mrs. Tipton in private life, is piano soloist with the ensemble.

The repertoire of music for such groups, less than a symphony and more than a string quartet, is an extensive one. The program will include Baroque, classic and romantic compositions.

Travel Study Club Hears Program on Fine Arts

Miss Catherine Fonken, art instructor at Medford High school, presented a program on fine arts for Travel Study club, of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Tuesday, in the fireplace room at the Girls Community club.

She was accompanied by four students whom the Travel Study club had sponsored for Penny Art and Hallmark scholarships.

Miss Marilyn Smith was first district winner with her painting "Insecurity Among the Mulattoes". She also exhibited "Fall Fantasy". Both are oil paintings.

Miss Linda Nelson showed a painting "The Hunting Season," which was done in tempera and Gregory Elliot displayed his oil painting "The Reservoir." Miss Marcia Studebaker exhibited a water color "Sad Face," for which she used her little brother as a model.

Each student explained the technique used in doing their pictures.

Music Contestant Miss Darlene Chitwood, who was the club's contestant for the Virginia Brown Music scholarship, played a French horn solo.

Miss Fonken, in speaking about teaching art, said she tries to promote creativity. A finished painting should be a product of imagination and in a formal sense, art applies to creative works considered worthy of preserving, Miss Fonken declared.

When possible she takes many of her classes outdoors to study the color of trees and surrounding countryside.

Importance of Art She discouraged painting with numbers, as it does away with all creativity. She spoke of art taking a big step forward, feeling it is very important to everyone.

A discussion period followed the talk. Miss Fonken teaches 130 students in her art classes. Miss Fonken and each visiting student was presented a gift from the club.

Paintings by Mrs. Beryl Lyon and Mrs. Edna Evans, club members, were on display.

Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, president, conducted a business meeting. Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Lyon elected president; Mrs. John L. Mansfield, first vice president; Mrs. Cora Chandler, secretary; and Mrs. Jack D. Brummond, treasurer.

Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Lyon will be delegates to the state convention to be held in Eugene, May 7, 8, and 9, at the Eugene hotel. Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. Chandler, and Mrs. Jason C. Ottinger, were elected alternates.

Western Conference Report Mrs. Clay M. Lee, junior past first district president and state division chairman of projects, gave a report of the Western States conference of the General Federation of Women's clubs, held in Phoenix, Ariz., March 7, 8, 9.

Mrs. Lee told of panel discussions, workshops, and the solutions found for different problems. Women's clubs were credited for the good juvenile court philosophy we have today, and Federated Clubwomen were urged to be thoughtful and serious citizens.

She reminded members that to keep our freedom, we must serve it. She said that eight per cent of the women in the United States belong to General Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Lee was one of three delegates representing Oregon, with Mrs. Fred C. Gast, junior past state president and first vice president of Western States conference and Mrs. Walter B. Rich, second vice president of the Oregon federation.

Refreshments were served from a tea table centered with an arrangement of lilacs and red tulips, with matching tapers in gold candelabras. Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Lyon poured. Hostesses were Mrs. Roy Nye, Ashland; Mrs. Carrie Walter, and Mrs. Elizabeth Settle, Medford.

Mrs. Peterson gave the responsibility of membership to two new members, Mrs. Thomas Lowe, and Mrs. Esther Coleman.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Mae Russell, Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett, Ashland, and Mrs. Fred Bever.

The next meeting will be installation of officers, May 28, at 1 p.m. in the fireplace room at the Girls Community club.

State Auxiliary Has Installation

Mrs. Elliott Harlow, Hillcrest road, Medford, is one of the new regional vice presidents of the Oregon State Medical Society auxiliary.

New officers were installed during the annual spring session of the auxiliary held April 26 in Portland.

Mrs. J. Clifton Massar, Portland, was installed president, succeeding Mrs. Ian D. Macdonald, Salem. Mrs. Guy R. McCutchan, Portland, was named president-elect.

Among the guests at the day-long session were Mrs. D. C. England, Eugene, who has been named Oregon Mother of the Year and who is the mother of Dr. Don England.
