On the Air By ELEANOR WIESE

If sonic booms leave your windows and knees rattling, perhaps it will be some comfort to at least understand the reasons for the increase in booms lately. An officers from Kingsley Air Force Base at Klamath Falls will be guest on KMED-TV's "Focal Point" Friday at 9:30 a.m. to explain the why of sonic booms and to show a film illustrating how they occur.

Polio Diagnosis In Lane County

Eugene — A case of paralytic polio has been diagnosed tentatively in a 10-year-old cottage boy, the Lane County Health Department announced Wednesday. The U.S. Public Health Service is conducting laboratory tests, which will take two to three weeks to confirm or refute the diagnosis.
