

EVANGELIST LES MARTIN Conducts Services

Evangelist Lists Sermons Titles

Evangelist Les Martin will speak Sunday at Bothel Assembly of God, 1225 East McAndrews rd. The title of his sermon at 11 a.m. will be, "God of the Valleys."

Sydney Nelson Is Adventist Speaker

Sydney Nelson will speak on the subject, "Peace With God" at the 11 a.m. worship hour in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday. Using as his text, Romans 5:1 and 2, Mr. Nelson will point out that peace comes to the Christian through faith.

Saturday at 8 p.m. the Rogue Valley Choral and the Rogue River Academy choir will meet in the Medford church for a joint practice session under the direction of Marvin Wilson.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the Medford church Duane M. Corwin will discuss "The Seven Seals of Revelation" following the showing of a George Vandeman color film.

Friday, May 10, at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Corwin will speak in the Shady Point church on the subject, "Baptized Paganism." This lecture will also be accompanied by a Vandeman film.

Quarterly Meeting Scheduled Sunday

"Prayer in a Humble Attitude" is the sermon topic of the Rev. William Wash, pastor of the Medford Church of the Brethren, at 345 North Mary st. June Borch and Lepha Evernden will sing, "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

Sunday, beginning with a snack supper at 5 p.m., will be the church's quarterly business meeting. The Rev. Carl Simmons, pastor of the Klamath Falls Church of the Brethren, will moderate the meeting.

The youth group will meet for a short period immediately following the supper to begin their four week study on the theme, "The Bible—God's Eternal Word." Dolores Pool will be the discussion leader.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock will be a meeting of the Men's Fellowship.

Monday Herbert Ruthrauff, representative from the LaVerne college, LaVerne, Calif., will be at the church at 7:30 p.m. to meet with the youth and any interested adults to discuss the college.

Witnesses List Coming Activities

H. S. Nixon, presiding minister of the Jehovah's Witnesses, will speak at the Kingdom hall, Sunday at 4 p.m. on "Resisting the Wicked Spirit Forces."

Following the lecture, beginning at 5 p.m., the weekly study in the Watchtower magazine will be held. Both are open to the public as well as the weekly bible study held each Tuesday at 8 p.m. The theocratic and ministry school and service meeting begins Fridays at 7:30 p.m.

Ashland Methodists Announce Services

Ashland — Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts., Ashland, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on "The New Jerusalem in the Book of Revelation." A coffee hour will follow.

Annual Family Week Activities Planned

First Christian church begins its annual Christian Family Week Sunday, as the Rev. Fredrick Evans preaches on the theme, "Is the Church Relevant?"

Presbyterians Note Services, Sunday Music

"Spend Family Week With Your Family" is being observed at the First Presbyterian church next week. All youth meetings have been cancelled for the week and families are encouraged to stay at home together.

The week is being started with Dr. D. Kirkland West's sermon at both morning services. "What Is Christian Marriage?" The junior high choir, directed by Mrs. Victor Birdseye, will sing, "Still, Still With Thee" for the 9:30 a.m. service and at 11 a.m., the chancel choir under the direction of Lynn Sjolund will present, "Only Follow Him." Judith McFarlan, soprano, will sing, "Just For Today" at both morning services.

A seminar on family worship will be held Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Fellowship hall. Friday night a family night dinner and discussion will be held in the Fellowship hall. The purpose of this meeting is for all families to come together and evaluate family week as it will have been celebrated. Families are asked to plan a hike or outing of some kind on Saturday.

The week will be concluded with Dr. West's sermon on Mother's day, "Christian Homes Then and Now."

Westminster The regular worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday. Ronald Bartlett will serve as lay assistant and the church choir will sing an anthem.

The Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "What About the Ascension?" Children's church will be held for boys and girls from 5 to 10 years of age and nursery care is provided for pre-school age children.

The church school meets at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages of children, youth and adults.

The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, 18 North Modoc ave. The Senior High Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, 867 Murphy rd., for worship and games before attending an In-church Youth Sing at the Zion Lutheran church at 8:45 p.m.

The midweek study fellowship will meet at the church Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the pastor's office to continue the study of the minor prophets.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr., between Bernburg and Grove-land aves.

National Family Week Scheduled

The Free Methodist church will observe National Family Week in Sunday school and during the family hour starting at 6 p.m. Sunday.

During the evening hour the service training course, "What Makes Our Home Christian" will be given for the adults and taught by Kenneth Harger.

The Youth service, under the direction of Ron Calkins, will feature an interview with Mariette Lee and Murray Woolford.

In the morning worship service a vocal duet will be presented by Mary Jones and Ethel Harger. The pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart will give a message on the subject "Stand Fast in the Faith."

Tuesday the monthly Sunday School Workers conference will be held in the home of the Adult Department Superintendent Loyal Smith. Plans for the observance of Children's day, Father's day and Vacation Bible school will be discussed.

WILLIAM FISHER DYNAMIC EVANGELIST MUSICIAN-AUTHOR In Service Tonight - 7:30 SUNDAY - 11 a.m. & 7 p.m. FIRST CHURCH of the NAZARINE 520 N. HOLLY ST. Harold M. Sanner, Pastor

A girls' trio consisting of Patricia Evans, and Jeanette and Jocelyn Greer will sing at the 8:30 a.m. worship service. A women's sextette will sing "My Jesus, As Thou Wilt" by Carl von Weber at the 11 a.m. worship service. Hostesses at the coffee hour following this service will be Mrs. C. V. Movia and her daughter, Carol.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. to study "Know Your Bible — Old Testament" led by Billy Brooks. Nancy Bogener will lead the worship service.

Douglas Mann will lead the study on "God and Man" at the Midler Fellowship meeting at 8 p.m. The worship service is under the direction of Sarah Matthews. Discussion leader for the Christian Youth Fellowship, which will meet at 8:30 p.m., is Cheryl Rice. Marjorie North is in charge of the devotions.

Following their meetings all youth fellowships will go to the city-wide youth inspiration sponsored by the Medford Ministerial association held at Zion Lutheran church.

Tuesday, May 7, the Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Wagner will attend an all day training session for high school summer camp counselors to be held at Roseburg. Ministers and workers from Christian churches in Southern Oregon will be in attendance.

At 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, captains for the Every Member Canvass stewardship emphasis will meet for a training session at the church parlor of the new church building on Crater Lake ave.

Members of the Christian Youth Fellowship and Midler Fellowship are preparing to host high school young people from throughout southern Oregon, who will come to a District Pre-Conference rally and party, to be held here next Friday and Saturday, May 10 and 11.

Featured in the conference will be the feature-length movie, "Martin Luther," and presentations by the Crusader Men's quartet from Northwest Christian college, Eugene.

Hymn Sing Set Sunday at Trinity

There will be a hymn sing at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Trinity Baptist church. Included on the program will be musical numbers and a home missionary challenge brought by Mrs. Lynn Bernston. Song leader will be Hal Jenks.

"Walking With the Risen Christ" is the title of Pastor Bruce O. Rogers' message to be given at the 11 a.m. worship service. This is the sixth of a series of messages on "Christ Supreme" from the book of Colossians.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. A nursery is provided during the Sunday school and morning worship hours.

Wednesday, May 8, the girls of the Alpha Chi and Delta Chi youth groups are holding a social for all the women of the church. All the mothers will be honored. It will be held at the Ralph Wilson home, 2865 Hanley rd., at 7:30 p.m.

Zion Lutheran to Host Area Youth

Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will host the inter-church Youth Sing Sunday at 8:45 p.m. sponsored by the Medford Ministerial association.

Refreshments will be served in the Fellowship hall following the sing. The Senior Luther League of the church will convene at 8:30 p.m. for their regular meeting.

At the 11 a.m. Sunday service the Rev. Harvey C. Coover, pastor, will speak on "The Front Line of Christianity." The senior choir anthem will be "Lamb of God" and the junior choir will sing "Christ Has a Garden Here Below." Infant baptism will be held during the worship service.

FELLOWSHIP BREAKFAST Wilderville — A potluck fellowship breakfast will be held Sunday at the Wilderville Community church. Persons from the Wilderville and Wonder communities are invited.

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Ventriloquist to Speak Sunday at Two Churches

Central Point — Bob Bradford, ventriloquist and youth speaker, will be at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder streets, Central Point, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

During the first part of the service, with his little friend, "Jiggers Johnson", Bradford will perform.

Bradford has worked for the National Schools assemblies and has spoken in almost 1,500 high schools and colleges across the nation. In 1953 he went into full time Christian work.

He has spoken in many of the leading Bible conferences, Youth for Christ rallies and many of the leading churches of the nation.

RLDS Schedules Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Tenth and Ivy sts., under the direction of Elder James Davidson, at the 11 a.m. service.

The world wide church theme for the month of May is, "Ministers of the Outward Ordinances."

The church follows the practice of close communion, but, while this is true, visitors are welcome to attend the services.

A Priesthood meeting has been called by Pastor Harley Davidson for Sunday in the church at 2:30 p.m.

Medford branch Zion league members have been invited to attend a Youth Missionary Series in Sacramento, Calif., this week end. This is a second of three rallies planned for this year's Youth Venture for Christ program.

Apostle Duane E. Couey, a member of the Council of Twelve since 1960, will address the youth of the church during the series. Mr. Couey's present assignment is California and Hawaii.

St. Peter's List Coming Activities

"Life With Christ Is A Little While of Sorrow That Is Turned Into Everlasting Joy" is the sermon topic for Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., according to the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon.

The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m. Church school begins at 9:30 a.m.

The Southern Oregon zone of the Waltham League, the youth organization of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod, meets for its spring rally at St. Peter's church Sunday, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Lyle Hinrichs of Ashland is zone chairman. Bill Buetner is chairman of the local society, which is in charge of all the arrangements.

Time Change Noted For Evening Service

Gold Hill — The Rev. Elvina Colburn, pastor of Concord Spiritualist chapel in Gold Hill announced that beginning Sunday, services will be held at 8 instead of 7:30 p.m.

The address will be given by the pastor, Assisting Mrs. Colburn with the service will be Mrs. Pansy Jones, healer, Sidney Jones and Robert Routh.

Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet and Mrs. Bianca Corona and Mrs. Colburn will play a piano solovox duet.

Second Graders to Take Communion

Second grade students of the Fraternity of Christian Doctrine catechism classes will receive their First Holy Communion on Sunday, May 12, it has been announced.

The event will take place in Sacred Heart Catholic church at the 8:30 a.m. mass with the Very Rev. Carl Mai officiating. Mrs. Randall Leoi has been preparing the children for the reception of the sacrament at classes held every Saturday morning during the school year.

Later in May another First Communion ceremonies will be scheduled for other members of the Saturday classes.

According to Mrs. Leroy Stuart, chairman of teachers, the dates of the annual vacation school of religion have been set from June 10 to 21. Classes will be held from 9 a.m. to noon each day from Monday through Friday for the two-week period.

Volunteer drivers will be needed for transporting children to and from vacation school classes. Anyone who can furnish a car for one trip during that time is asked to contact Mrs. Charles Moore, 773-4389, before June 1.

Campaign Started For Second Bus

A campaign for a second school bus for Rogue River academy, purchased by trading stamps, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday with an Amateur Hour at Lincoln gymnasium, 808 Bartlett st.

Those attending the evening program are to take stamp books for the project, and a prize will be awarded the person donating the largest number of books.

Paul Beddoe will be master of ceremonies for the evening's entertainment. A variety of selections will be presented in both novelty and serious classifications, and those participating will be divided into junior and adult divisions.

One new 54-passenger bus has already been purchased by the school through the trading stamp project. Approximately two years was needed to complete the acquisition of the 4,000 necessary books of stamps by members of four area Seventh-day Adventist churches, according to Mrs. Lewis Corwin, committee chairman.

The bus, which went into operation Jan. 10, serves the denomination's ten - grade school located on South Stage rd.

Conference Set Sunday in Gold Hill

Gold Hill — The annual church conference and fourth quarterly conference will meet jointly at Gold Hill Community Methodist church on Sunday at 8 p.m. The Rev. E. J. Achenbrenner, superintendent of the Eugene district, will be present.

Trustees will be elected during the conference. The three-year term of C. Norman Gall is expiring.

The annual loyalty dinner was given last Sunday. The 1963-64 budget was explained and a colored film strip entitled "One Sunday Afternoon" was shown.

Tacoma Minister Is Sunday Speaker

"The Church and Me" is the title of the sermon the Rev. John C. Soltman, Tacoma, will preach for both services of the First Methodist church Sunday.

Mr. Soltman, the minister of Mason Methodist church in Tacoma, will arrive in Medford Saturday. A member of the Pacific Northwest conference of the Methodist church, he is chairman of the commission on world service and finance. He has contributed articles to The Christian Advocate and Methodist Story magazines.

Michael Johnson, soloist, will sing O'Hara's "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" at both services. "I Gave My Life for Thee" by Odell will be sung at the 9:30 a.m. service by the youth choir under the direction of Gary Louvre.

The same anthem, directed by Mrs. Charles Adamson, will be sung by the chancel choir at 11 a.m.

This is the final Sunday of the church's stewardship program "Loyal Laymen in Action." Lay prayer leaders will be Orrar Bacon and Ray Neptune.

There will be a coffee hour in the church dining hall following the 11 a.m. service honoring Mr. and Mrs. Soltman.

Family of Year To Be Selected

To mark the beginning of National Family Week, St. Luke's Methodist church, 2320 Siskiyou Blvd., will name its Methodist Family of the Year during the 11 a.m. worship service on May 5.

Several weeks ago members of the congregation had an opportunity to make nominations for this honor. Since that time a committee has been at work to make the final selection. Its choice will be made known on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Dixon, former recipients of the award, will make the presentation.

During the service the altar choir, composed of junior and junior high age boys and girls, will sing. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Claude Griffin. Mrs. Charles R. McDonald will assist at the organ.

George Reed will serve as a lay speaker during the service when he shares with the congregation what the practice of stewardship has meant to him. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, will also preach on the stewardship theme.

At the conclusion of the service there will be a coffee hour honoring the new family of the year. Mrs. Clarence Byrd and Mrs. Charles Henry are in charge.

Friday, May 10, members of the St. Luke's congregation will gather at the church at 6:30 p.m. for the church's annual stewardship dinner. Mrs. Blaine Beardsley is in charge. Jack Adams, chairman of the commission on finance, is in charge of the evening's program.

Farewell Party Held for Pastor

A farewell party honoring Pastor and Mrs. C. C. Weis was held by Seventh-day Adventist church members Saturday night, April 27, in the Central Point Grange hall.

Pastor Weis, who has been with the Medford and Shady Point churches for the past eight months, left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where he will assume the position of home missionary and Sabbath school leader for the Atlantic Union conference.

Following a potluck supper of sandwiches, cookies, and hot chocolate, the evening's entertainment consisted of a variety musical program by church members, and a "Tri or Consequences" game.

Paul Beddoe was master of ceremonies for the event, and presented the Weisses with two pieces of silver holloware.

BIBLE STUDY CLASS

Brownboro — The Bible study class Saturday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. sponsored by the Brownboro Union Sunday school, will meet at the Darrell Stanley home on Alta Vista rd. The Rev. Allen Hill is the teacher.

THE REV. J. C. SOLTMAN Methodist Guest

Mother-Daughter Banquet Planned

The Women's Mission society of Eastwood Baptist church will hold a Mother-Daughter banquet in the social hall of the church on Friday, May 10, at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Robert Balk, Mrs. Carl Jones, Mrs. M. J. Rennie and Mrs. W. L. White are an arrangements committee.

Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on "The Ever Repeating Miracle," using Mark 14:22-24 as his text. Holy communion will be served. The chancel choir will sing, "If With All Your Hearts."

The Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship will entertain the Junior BYF from the First Baptist church, Yreka, at a skating party and spaghetti feed Saturday, May 4, beginning at 1 p.m.

The Senior High BYF is planning an outing in the near future.

At the 7:30 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on "Reception at Nazareth," basing his remarks on Mark 6:1-12.

At the midweek service of May 8 the pastor will continue his study of II Corinthians.

Tuesday, May 7, Dr. Eugene Gerlitz will conduct the final two class sessions of the course, "Our Cor'agious Faith," starting at 7 p.m.

Central Church Schedules Events

Activities Sunday at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave., begin with the Bible school hour at 9:45 a.m.

Following opening assemblies classes for all ages from pre-school through adult meet for study of the Bible. Worship begins at 11 a.m. Minister John V. Heberling will speak on the theme "The Way."

A junior worship service is held at this same hour under the leadership of Carl Bennett, an elder of the church. A nursery is provided for babies and pre-school children.

Youth of Central Church meet for discussion groups at 6:30 p.m. The worship service follows at 7:30 p.m. with gospel singing and a message entitled "Conscience" brought by the minister.

Youth Quiz Team Sets Event Tonight

The Foursquare youth quiz team will compete in a practice quiz with the Ashland church team tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Team members participating from the Medford church are the Misses Carol Jarvis, Gloria Rasmussen and Donna Trout.

A mother-daughter banquet and style show will be held in the church annex, 2200 Roberts rd. May 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Vernon Drung, United Foursquare Women's president will be guest speaker. Other members will model clothing they have made. Mrs. K. L. Mathewson, program chairmen, Mrs. Frank Wallace, Mrs. Lonnie Varner, and Mrs. Bernice Clark will assist.

City-Wide Youth Sing Set Sunday

A city-wide youth sing will be held Sunday, May 5, at 8:45 p.m. at the Zion Lutheran church, North Oakdale ave. and Fourth st. The event, open to all young people, is sponsored by the Interchurch Youth Activities committee of the Medford Ministerial association.

Congregational Sermon Subject Listed for Sunday

"Living With Your Worst Self" is the subject of the sermon which the Rev. Robert W. Tuill, minister of the Congregational church, Medford, will preach at the service of the church at 11 a.m. on Sunday.

The service will be held in the auditorium on Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou Blvd., which is the temporary meeting place until a new sanctuary and educational unit can be built later this year at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

During the 11 a.m. worship hour the church school will meet with classes for all children from three years of age through ninth grade. Child care will be provided in the school health room for those younger than three.

Sunday at 6 p.m. the Pilgrim Fellowship will meet. The place of meeting will be announced at the Sunday service.

The regular monthly business meetings of the church will be held Tuesday in suite 5, The Mall, 1105 East Main st. The board of trustees and the board of deacons will meet at 7:30 p.m. At 8:30 p.m. the moderator, T. R. McLean, will convene the church council.

The choir will meet for rehearsal at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West 14th st.

Thursday at 8 p.m. the new members class will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kirtley, 2413 East McAndrews rd.

First Baptists Announce Events

"When the Natural Man Meets His Doom" is the message to be brought Sunday at the First Baptist church by the pastor, the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews. The service is held at 11 a.m. at the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves. The chapel choir will sing for the service and Maynard Hadley will be soloist.

The message for the 7 p.m. service will be "The Day a Deacon Died." Miss Kathy Hill will sing and there will be an instrumental duet by Miss Donalyn Minear and Miss Elizabeth Paeth.

Sunday school is conducted at 9:40 a.m. and the Bible is the text book for every class. The school is completely graded and departmentalized for each age with more than 50 teachers and officers employed each Sunday.

A nursery is provided for babies and pre-school children. Youth of the church conduct their own meetings at 6 p.m. under adult supervision. There is also a teacher training class for adults studying a survey of the New Testament.

Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. the church is making a study of the entire New Testament this year and is at present involved in a study of the Book of Acts. The service is held at Wilson school and is open to the public.

Christian Home Week Observance

Beginning May 5 and continuing through May 12, Christian Home Week will be observed at First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane.

The pastor, the Rev. Gilbert O. Skaar, will begin a series of sermons on the subject of "courtship and marriage" Sunday. Topic for his morning message will be "Foundations for a Christian Home."

At the service beginning at 7 p.m. Mr. Skaar will speak on "Finding a Life Companion."

The church choir directed by Dennis Sampsel, will sing at both services.

Unity Sermon To Be First in Series of Four

"The Treasure Chest" is the subject of the lesson scheduled Sunday by the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, at the 11:15 a.m. church service at the Unity church, Holly and Haven sts. The text is taken from Matthew 6:19. This is the first of a series of four lessons on "Prosperity Secrets of the Beautitudes."

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. H. H. Breesee will sing "The Beautitudes" by Albert Hay Malotte.

The board of directors will meet Monday, May 6, at 7 p.m. at the Unity center.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, May 8, at 11 a.m. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet.

The Wednesday night study class will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Unity center, 995 South Oakdale ave.

This is the third of a series of lessons on "Science of Living." The lesson topic for the week will be "How to Develop Spiritual Understanding for Helping Yourself and Others."

The Grants Pass and Ashland classes will meet as usual.

Unity church is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

Crusade to Close At 1st Nazarene

Tonight's service at 7:30 o'clock and the Sunday services, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., will conclude the evangelistic campaign that has been going on at First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st.

The Rev. C. William Fisher, Kansas City, Mo., has been guest preacher for these meetings. He is also a musician and presents a varied program of vocal and instrumental music in each service.

Minister of education and music for the local church, Perry Christiansen, has stated that tonight has been designated as Sunday School night and all the children's departments with their leaders will be recognized. The primary and junior choirs will sing under the direction of Mrs. Christiansen.

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the local church, who recently returned from a journey to two mission stations of the denomination at Trinidad, West Indies, and the Republic of Panama will tell of a typical Sunday school in those areas to the adult department of the Sunday school Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

During the 6 p.m. youth hour, he will describe the Youth camp in Trinidad where he served as chaplain. Wayne Larson, president of the church's young people's society has announced that the Junior High, Senior High, and Young Adult Fellowships will combine for this service.

Mental Health To Be Tuesday Topic

Mrs. Phyllis Presenti, who is active in the Jackson County Mental Health association, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Medford Ministerial association Tuesday at the Medford Friends church.

The meeting will start at 9:30 a.m. with a fellowship period to be followed by the speaker then a business program.

The meeting is open to all ministers and pastors of all churches and faiths.

ST. LUKE'S METHODIST CHURCH Rev. Charles McDonald Pastor CHURCH SCHOOL 9:45 a.m. CHURCH 11:00 a.m. 2320 SISKIYOU Blvd.

UNITY Corner Holly and Haven Streets Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo. REV. KATHARINE BOS