

Moore Out Of Top 10 In Boxing

New York—(UPI)—Former light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, 47 going on 50, was dropped completely out of the Ring Magazine's top 10 rankings today for the first time in memory of modern man.

Mustachioed and sometimes-goateed Archie, who had come up through the light heavyweight rankings to the light heavy title and then had shifted into the heavy division, did not have far to drop this time.

In the last previous monthly list of ring rankings, the ancient San Diego, Calif., swimmer had been hanging by his fingernails on the 10th notch. Now, because of inactivity, he was dropped completely out.

Knocked Out By Clay
His last bout of any importance, at least, was on Nov. 15, when he was knocked out by Cassius Clay at Los Angeles in the fourth round, just as "Gaseous Cassius" had predicted. That was Moore's 25th defeat in 225 bouts.

Ex-heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson of Sweden was unexpectedly boosted a notch from fifth to fourth because of his decision victory over Brian London of England at Stockholm, Sweden, on April 21, although Ingemar apparently was saved from a knockout by the final bell.

Philadelphia Ernest Terrell's unexpected victory over Cleveland Williams of Houston, Tex., boosted Terrell into the top 10 heavies at Moore's old station, No. 10. Williams dropped from fourth to sixth.

Ralph Dupas of New Orleans was named "Fighter of the Month" for winning the junior middleweight crown from Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., although the Ring Magazine does not recognize the "synthetic" junior middleweight (154-pound) division.

Alphonse Hallmi of France, former world bantamweight champion, rose to top contender today to replace Ismael Laguna of Panama, who no longer can make the 118-pound limit and will fight in the featherweight (126-pound) division, where he is now rated fifth.

NEW JET COACHES

New York—(UPI)—Weeb Ewbank, head coach and general manager of the New York Jets, today announced the addition of three new coaching aides to the American Football league club. Signed for the 1963 season were offensive line coach Charles Knox, defensive line coach Walter E. Michaels and defensive coach Jack E. Donaldson.

Glen Spivey Keeps Oregon Open Lead

Lake Oswego—(UPI)—Portland's Glen Spivey shot a one-under-par 70 for a 139 for 36 holes to keep the lead at the half-way point of the Oregon Open golf tournament here Tuesday.

The three-day, 72-hole tournament was scheduled to end with two 18-hole rounds today.

KF Jayvees Win Over Medford

A dropped outfield fly, a base on balls and a single by Schiff provided the winning run in the seventh inning yesterday when Klamath Falls tripped Medford high 3 to 2 in a junior varsity baseball game at Klamath Falls.

Klamath had tied the game 2-all in the bottom of the sixth inning on singles by Schiff and Jendrzewski and an error on a throw home on a squeeze bunt.

The top half of the seventh was halted 15 minutes and the bottom half 10 minutes by rain.

KF picked up its first run in the opening inning on a hit by McKibben, a walk and an error.

For a Medford marker in the fifth panel Gary Frohreich tripled and an error followed. Jerry Goldley's single, a fielder's option and twin miscues enabled a sixth inning tally for Medford. Jack Mullen scored on a catcher's error on a throw-in.

Frohreich chucked five hit ball for Medford, whiffing six and walking four. Cunningham gave up six hits to Medford. He struck out nine and free passed three.

LINESCORE:
Medford 000 011 0-2 4 3
Klamath Falls 100 001 1-3 5 4
Frohreich and Wooten; Cunningham and Williams.

INCREASE PLAYER LIMIT

New York—(UPI)—The player limit for International league teams will be increased from 20 to 21 starting midnight May 15. It was announced Tuesday by League President Tommy Richardson. The increased limit, to be in effect until Aug. 13, was brought about because of the large number of doubleheaders and postponed games this season.

Defending champion Bob Duden of Portland also carded a 70 to move into second place with a 142.

Tied for third place with 144 were Chuck Congdon of Tacoma, Gordon Marlatt of Salem, amateur Stew Schroeder (ex-Medford) of Corvallis, Al Feldman of Olympia, Wash., and Jerry Mowlds and Tom Shaw of Portland.

Congdon fired a 69 for Tuesday's best round.

Scores of Rogue Valley Country club entries for two rounds in the Oregon Open golf tournament were:
Dr. Ralph Odell 78-75-153, Harry Millette 79-79-158; Marion Helton 90-76-166 and Ron Caperna 81-82-163.

NAIA Banquet, Sports Day Set At Willamette

Salem—The fourth annual District 2 Awards Banquet will add a festive finish to NAIA activities in Oregon for the 1962-63 school year on May 23 at 7 p.m. at Willamette university.

The date and site, Matthews hall, was announced by Dr. Robert Livingston, District 2 chairman from Oregon College of Education.

Athletes from the eight member schools will be honored. They include OCE, Willamette, Linfield, Lewis and Clark, Southern Oregon, Portland State, Pacific and Eastern Oregon.

Scholar-athletes from each school will be named, along with members to the District 2 hall of fame, former athletes who graduated at least 10 years ago. Also to be announced is the district's 1962-63 "coach of the year."

The banquet will climax an all-sports day in which district champions in baseball, golf, tennis and track will be crowned.

Baseball is scheduled at 10 a.m. when the Northwest and Oregon Collegiate conference champions meet at McCulloch Stadium in a best-of-three series. Track gets under way at 2:30 p.m. and tennis early Saturday morning, both at Willamette.

Golf competition is scheduled one day earlier, May 24, at Illaho Country Club.

Paul Pender Retiring From Ring

Boston—(UPI)—Paul Pender faded into boxing's shadows today and the Massachusetts Boxing commission prepared to join the rest of the world in recognizing Nigeria's Dick Tiger as middleweight champion.

The former Brookline, Mass. fireman announced in New York Tuesday that he was calling it quits as a boxer for the second time in his career—only this time it was for keeps.

Pender, a slender, dark-haired man whose craggy nose gives the only hint of his profession, first retired from boxing some 12 years ago when brittle hands seemingly cut short his career almost before it had begun. But surgery corrected his hands and he went on to win 40 of 48 professional bouts, which included two draws.

Good Physical Shape
The 32-year-old Pender said that the inability of promoters to secure television for the proposed June 1 Boston Garden bout with Joey Giardello and the apparent impossibility of luring Tiger into a match for the undisputed world title led him to quit.

His trainers, Al Lacy, said Pender was in "wonderful physical condition and able to beat Joey Giardello or Dick Tiger unquestionably."

But Pender said that this time his retirement was "definite."

Pender, married and the father of three, will have no financial worries, according to his friends, for he had handled his money wisely. After a vacation trip to Vermont he will consider "several good positions" that have been offered to him.

OSU Drubs Washington

Corvallis—(UPI)—Oregon State climbed into a tie with Oregon for the lead in the Northwest division baseball race Tuesday by scoring 6-0 and 9-1 victories over Washington. Both leaders are 5-0.

Cecil Ira pitched a six-hitter and Danny Straub hurled a three-hitter for Oregon State in the seven-inning games against the Huskies.

Al Lohrer drove in four runs with three hits and Doug Stahl and Ira also contributed three hits for the Beavers in the opener.

In the nightcap, Frank Peters batted in four runs with four hits including a two-run homer in the first inning. Vedeer South and Morrill Cray also homered for the Beavers.

LINESCORES:
Washington—000 000 0-0 4 2
OSU—002 303 3-2 11 1
Gray, Johnson (3) and Thompson; Ira and Hayward.

Washington—000 010 0-1 3 3
OSU—000 012 3-0 9 0
St. Anderson, Gray (6), H. Anderson (6) and Thompson; Straub and Cray.

HAWAII HIRES ROCHA

Honolulu—(UPI)—Ephraim (Red) Rocha, former Oregon State and pro basketball star, confirmed today he will accept a $4,000 a year contract to coach at University of Hawaii next year. The university's Board of Athletic Control voted to hire Rocha on a non-faculty basis. However, the board said that in the event a faculty position should become available, the board will adjust his salary as coach and pay him the difference up to $10,000.

Soldat Gorky Returns To Local Wrestling Mat To Face Hawaiian Foe

Soldat Gorky, an accomplished musician on five different instruments, will not be making pretty music when he steps into the ring against Gil "Hilo" Ane in the semi-windup of tomorrow night's wrestling card at Medford armory.

SOLDAT GORKY Not a Stranger

The 230-pound Siberian Wolf Killer, as Gorky likes to be known, will be outweighed about 40 pounds by the former University of Southern California football star who is a native of Hilo, Hawaii.

Gorky, about as rough as they come, specializes in a "wolf killer" maneuver, which is nothing more than a glorified stomp on an opponent's Adam's apple, to win his matches. He drew large crowds at the old Bartlett st. armory a few years ago, most of the fans anxious to see somebody beat the hulking Russian.

The main event will see Rocky Columbo risk his Pacific Coast junior heavyweight championship against Mad Dog Vachon while Pretly Pat Patterson faces Ricky Hunter in the 8:30 p.m. opener.

Ringside reserved seat tickets are on sale at Lamport's sporting goods store.

Softball Slate Opens On May 12

The Jackson County Softball association kicks off a 105-game schedule on Sunday, May 12, when Tru Mix Concrete travels to Butte Falls for a 1:30 p.m. clash with Medco in the league opener.

Except for a few games at Butte Falls, league encounters will be played at three city school diamonds and at Hawthorne park until June 3 when the new Jackson park diamond will be ready for use.

All 10 teams will see action in the first week, some of them more than once. The first week's schedule will see Colvin Associates against Central Point at Jefferson School and Communication Workers of America against Wheeler Logging at Washington School on May 13; Jay Allen meeting United Grocers at Jackson School and Keith Schulz taking on Tru Mix at Hawthorne Park on May 14.

May 15 games will pit Medco against Southern Oregon Dry Kiln at Jefferson School and Colvin Associates playing CWA at Washington School. Central Point meets the Dry Kiln team at Jackson School on May 16, the same night that United Grocers and Keith Schulz tangle at Hawthorne Park.

May 17 games match Jay Allen with Colvin Associates at Jefferson School and CWA with Central Point at Washington School. All games are at 6:30 p.m.

On May 19 CWA travels to Butte Falls for a 1:30 p.m. mix with Medco.

Dick Scott Records 0.77 ERA at Spokane

San Mateo, Calif.—(UPI)—Spokane's hard-throwing Dick Scott climbed into the front seat of the Pacific Coast league pitching wagon last week with a miserly earned run average of 0.77, according to latest statistics.

But Scott won't have time to defend his lead, since the parent Dodgers called him up yesterday.

Denver's Chi Chi Olivo led the strikeout department with 35.

Sensational Jimmy Hart of Tacoma leads the batting statistics with a hefty .392 mark. The slugging third baseman is also in a three-way tie with Deron Johnson of San Diego and Jay Ward of Dalls-Ft. Worth in homers. All have 7, but Ward has been recalled by the majors.

Hart's 20 runs batted in also lead the loop.

Champions Tourney at Milwaukie

Milwaukie—Oregon's end-of-the-season kegling event, Milwaukie bowl's Tournament of Champions, is heading toward a record entry list of over 1800 bowlers if the first avalanche of entry blanks from state bowling teams is any indication.

The fourth annual tournament begins on Friday, May 10, and all first and second-place league bowling teams in the state are eligible to compete for the $5,000 plus prize fund.

Tournament co-promoters, Bud and Champ Husted report that this year's sign-up is considerably ahead of 1962 response, probably because of the approximate 10 per cent increase in league bowlers in Oregon during the 1962-63 season.

Entries in the men and women's team events, mixed teams, and men and women's singles contests close on Thursday, May 9.

Thomas Relieved At Hardin-Simmons

Abilene, Tex.—(UPI)—Jack Thomas, who coached Hardin-Simmons to its only football victory in the last three seasons, was fired Tuesday for "failure to follow administrative directives in the conduct of the athletic program."

Thomas, who coached at Hardin-Simmons only one year, compiled a 1-9 record in 1962. The victory came after 27 straight defeats.

George L. Graham, executive vice president of the school, announced the dismissal. His statement was short and he would not elaborate.

However, observers believe the action was related to an NCAA directive which placed the school on probation for illegal recruiting.
