Sport Parade

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

New York — (UPI) — The U.S. Lawn Tennis association laid aside its racket and began swinging with brass knuckles today in an attempt to get Uncle Sam's derelict Davis Cup express back on the tracks.

The United States for 17 consecutive years was in the challenge round, meaning the Davis Cup finals, and eight times carried off the big chunk of silver. But the past three years we haven't made it and last year we barely got off the pad, winning only one match.

Clutch Hit Wins Tilt For Bees

By CHARLIE H. WILSON JR.
United Press International

In the Pacific Coast league batting averages published today, Jim Stewart of Salt Lake City seems all but anonymous with his .219 average.

But Stewart was anything but anonymous Tuesday night when he delivered a clutch two-out single in the bottom of the ninth to give the Bees a 4-3 victory over the Spokane Indians.

That victory, combined with Oklahoma City's 11-inning, 3-2 loss to Seattle, boosted Salt Lake City to a half-game lead in the Southern Division of the PCL.

In other games, Tacoma remained on top of the Northern division with an easy 3-1 win over Hawaii and Mel Queen blasted a three-run homer in the eighth to power the San Diego Padres to a 7-4 victory over the Denver Bears.

Rain forced postponement of the Dallas-Fort Worth-Portland doubleheader at Portland.

Salt Lake City and Spokane battled on even terms for eight innings and entered the ninth inning deadlocked 1-1. The Indians put together three singles and a sacrifice bunt for two runs and apparent victory in the top half of the final frame.

But the Bees made the most of two walks and an error by Spokane shortstop Don Williams for one run, and Stewart then came through with his single to decide the issue.

Yet with plenty of talent on hand this time around, Davis Cup captain Bob Kelleher has hauled off and and blamed the selfishness of UCLA and the University of Southern California for damaging our prospects.

They, respectively, "own" Charles Pasarell and Dennis Ralston, two of our hotshots. In payment for tennis scholarships, they insist that their lads pay off on the investment by shooting for the intercollegiate crown at Princeton June 15-22.

Kelleher, a California attorney, wants them released to uncle so they can hook up with Chuck McKinley of Trinity and right from the start in our first match against Iran June 14-16 form a triumvirate which might go all the way to the challenge round.

The tall, handsome Kelleher didn't pull any punches as he surveyed the situation.

Thinks Universities Wrong

"The universities don't see eye to eye with me," he said bluntly. "I think they're wrong and I wish they could be persuaded to see it our way. There's no question but what the boys would prefer to play in the Davis Cup and the schools should recognize their obligation to the country."

Kelleher lists Uncle Sam as "having a lot of talent" in the college ranks but makes no secret of his desire to corral the "big three" and keep them together for the full shot at Australia.

"As it is," he explained, "they'll be on their own through Wimbledon, through the clay court championships at Chicago and we won't be able to form our team until two weeks prior to our match with Mexico."

The team, it might be added, which knocked us off in the second match we played last year.

Need Quality

Kelleher, running through our hopefuls, named a dozen lads but in this fashion: "Frank Froehling has a long way to go to make our team," and "Allen Fox doesn't look like a world class player," etc.

"We can't win on quantity," he pointed out. "We have to do it with quality. You do it with one or two players. They're not doing it the organized way but making it difficult for the players and the team. Anyone who does well under these conditions would be plain lucky."

The universities can be expected to counter volubly. It is unlikely that silence will be the reward for what they probably consider to be an out and out case of hijacking. But it is rather interesting to watch the love set throwing the dinnerware.

Saccharine and "quiet please" ain't ever going to beat those Aussies.

St. Louis — (UPI) — Southpaw pitcher Larry Jaster has been optioned by the St. Louis Cardinals to Tulsa of the Texas league but will continue to count on the Cardinals' 25-man player limit this season. Jaster thus replaces outfielder Jan Fierek as St. Louis' "designated player." Fierek was claimed Tuesday by Cincinnati.

The first successful test of cable cars in San Francisco was made on Clay st. in August, 1873.

St. Mary's Nudges Ashland in Track

St. Mary's led 59½ to 53½ going into the final event, the discus and Pete Naumes' second place in the platter throw preserved the win for the Crusaders. Ashland took first and third in the event. First and second would have given the Grizzlies the meet.

CHATEAUGAY BRUISED
Louisville, Ky. — (UPI) — Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay suffered nothing worse than a "minor bruise" when he was struck by a falling guard rail while being loaded on a van Tuesday for a trip to Pimlico, where he will run in the Preakness May 18.

Ashe May Be Davis Cup Player

New York — (UPI) — Arthur Ashe, a 19-year-old student at UCLA, may soon become the first Negro ever to represent the United States on a Davis Cup team.

The Richmond, Va., youth was one of 11 players designated as candidates for the squad Tuesday. The others include Chuck McKinley, Dennis Ralston, Frank Froehling, Allen Fox, Charles Pasarell, Martin Riessen, Cliff Buchholz, Tod Edlfsen, Gene Scott and Don Dell.

"This is not to be construed as our definite squad," said team captain Bob Kelleher.

"But these are the players who, on their records, must figure in our 1963 plans."

Kelleher had this to say about Ashe: "This boy has talent running out of his ears. He is the finest Negro tennis prospect we have ever had."

"He is thin as a rail, but extremely strong. He has the God-given talent of being able to make every shot in the book."
