REFUSED SERVICE—Liberia's assistant secretary of state and ambassador to the United Nations, Angie Brooks, and her nephew, Joseph Outland, sit in the lobby of a downtown Raleigh, N.C., cafeteria after they were refused service by the manager. Though the event took place during normal serving hours, a "closed" sign was placed at the entrance to the serving line. (UPI)

JOB ACCIDENTS

Chicago —UPI— The National Safety council said on-the-job accidents showed a one per cent increase in fatalities last year, while disabling injuries rose by three per cent. As a result, the costs to both workers and employers rose by nine per cent to a record high of $4.8 billion, the council said.

The song "Meet Me in St. Lous" was introduced in St. Louis' Universal exposition of 1904, marking the one-hundredth anniversary of America's purchase of the Louisiana territory from France.
