

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Three of the St. Mary's High school students appearing in a school musical program this week are (left to right) Sarah Robinson, Mike Sinson and Mary Hochstatter. They are featured in the second half of the program in which excerpts from Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller" will

Club Party Date Set

Deadline for reservations for the annual Rogue Valley Country club hard times party set for Saturday, May 11, is 5 p.m., Friday, May 10, those in charge have announced. However, a limited number still are available, they point out. Members should call the club for their reservations.

Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Austin King, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spiegelberg and Mr. and Mrs. William Tycer.

The event will open with a Bum's buffet at 8:30 p.m., featuring Chef Don Stewart's mulligan stew, wieners and beans. Dancing will continue from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., with music furnished by Bob Anderson's combo. Members plan to attend in attire in keeping with the theme.

Decorations will be in the hobo jungle theme under direction of Mrs. Tycer, assisted by other members of the committee.

William Clark, club board member in charge of social activities, and Mrs. Clark are general chairmen.

The party is open to club members and their out-of-town guests.

Hoover PTA Program Set; To Install

A presentation of accomplishments will be given at the Hoover Parent Teachers association meeting on Friday, May 10. The program, "Self Expression Through the Arts" will include selections by the Hoover band under the direction of Ronald Bartlett, the chorus, led by Mrs. Frank Blaar, and an art work exhibit by the students. The program will open at 2:30 p.m. and the business meeting will follow in the cafeteria.

Officers for the 1963-1964 school year will be installed at this meeting. They are, president, Mrs. Robert Sletcer; vice president, Mrs. Robert Dickey; secretary, Mrs. Roger Black; treasurer, Mrs. John Watkins.

Parents are especially invited to attend the program and meeting, the last of the school year. Child care will be provided.

Calendar

Calendar notices and news for the society section of The Mail Tribune must be submitted in writing and deadline for the Sunday edition is 1 p.m. Friday. Deadline for the weekly calendar is 9 a.m. of the day of publication and for week day news is 5 p.m. the day before publication.

Thursday:

7 p.m. - Pythian Sunshine Girls, Pythian building.

7:30 p.m. - Jacksonville PTA, at school.

7:30 p.m. - Roosevelt PTA, at school.

7:30 p.m. - Medford High school Homemaking classes, fashion review. Lecture center at school.

8 p.m. - Past Noble Grands club, Girls Community club.

Friday:

12 noon - St. Elizabeth's guild, St. Mark's Episcopal church at church.

1:30 p.m. - Past Presidents' club, FOE auxiliary, home of Mrs. Gerald T. Dyng, Fir and Pinehurst, Central Point.

2:30 p.m. - Washington PTA, school gymnasium.

Lone Mountain Group Changes Meeting Day

O'Brien - Lone Mountain Home Extension unit will meet, Friday May 10 instead of Thursday, officers have announced. Mrs. Tomas Adams and Mrs. James Cooke will be in charge of project lesson, "Consumer Protection". The session will begin at 10:30 a.m., with potluck luncheon at noon. Installation of officers will be held at this meeting.

Mrs. Jack Barnes, Lone Mountain representative to State Home Economics council will make a report.

Evans Valley Garden Club Changes By-laws

Evans Valley - During a recent meeting of the Evans Valley Garden club, in the Enterprise Grange hall, members voted to change their by-laws concerning election of officers. Mrs. Fritz Carlson read and explained problems which resulted from the previous by-laws. Mrs. Vern Orr presented a three-part amendment which was accepted.

Under the new regulation the new officers will take office during the closing of the June meeting. Mrs. Carlson appointed Mrs. Walter L. Russ, Mrs. George K. Barrie and Mrs. Charles F. Jackson to serve on the nominating committee.

Mrs. Ralph L. Weide, hospitality chairman, introduced Mrs. Aaron K. Capp, who recently returned after spending the winter in Colorado. Mrs. Capp spoke regarding a home and garden show which she had attended in Denver. She also showed slides of floral gardens in Old Mexico and Washington state, and of cacti blooming on the desert in Arizona and Texas. Mrs. Ward McCulley was narrator.

Horticulture reports were made by Mrs. Robert K. Wales on house plants and ferns. Mrs. Russ explained the procedure for keeping lilacs from wilting after picking. She explained that the stems of the branches should be pounded or split and dipped in denatured alcohol for three to five minutes. She also stated that this treatment is equally effective for all flowering branches with woody stems.

Mrs. McCulley, wild flower enthusiast, showed two species of white trilliums. She explained that while many varieties are found in the world, only three are known to grow in southern Oregon. Hostesses were Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Carlson. Mrs. Morris L. Raber and Mrs. Walter L. Russ were presented gifts in honor of their birthdays.

Jacette Merit Award Candidates Are Listed

The final selections of candidates for the Medford Jacette's annual merit award of the year have been completed, according to officers. The winner is to be announced at the award luncheon set for Saturday, May 11 at 12:30 p.m., in North's Chuck Wagon restaurant.

Reservations for the luncheon, to which all interested women are invited, may be made with Mrs. James Rouhler, telephone 773-3844. Tickets may be obtained from any Jacette member.

Mrs. Margery Green of Burdison's Ready - To - Wear shop is arranging the style show to follow the award and luncheon. For an added interest, all the candidates for Miss Rogue Valley will model the fashions. The Miss Rogue Valley contest is sponsored by the Medford Jaycees. Winnie's Beauty salon will furnish wigs for the models.

Musical selections will be furnished by the Checkmates, a quartet from Medford High school.

Last year's merit award winner was Mrs. Theodore Barss, sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

Six women have been selected by the judges to compete in this year's award.

Women Listed

They include Mrs. Robert Brown, 2732 Ruth drive; Mrs. James Butler, 1004 East Main street; Mrs. John R. Dellenback, 257 Windsor avenue; Mrs. Calvin Smith, 1209 Lealand avenue, Mrs. Delbert Cantrall, 1208 Loal street, and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, 190 White Oak drive.

Mrs. Brown, sponsored by Delta Omega chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, was selected as outstanding girl in the chapter. She has also helped on the Heart Fund drive and the annual campaign of the Oregon Society of Crippled Children and Adults. She is the mother of three children.

Mrs. James Butler, sponsored by Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, is the mother of two children and also has two foster children. She is a member of the YMCA board of directors, is active in American Association of University Women, was block captain for the Cancer drive, is a member of Roosevelt Parent Teacher association and is interested in other civic projects.

Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, who was entered in the contest by Medford Junior Service league, has four children and the family has been accepted by the American Field service to have an exchange student in their home next fall. Mrs. Hibbs has participated in Civic music, Cancer, Heart and United Medford Crusade drives. She also is active in her church, Parent Teacher work, and Girl Scouting. She is also chairman for the coming campaign for the Broadway Theater league.

Fifty Plus

A program of community singing, cards, games and dancing is planned for the Medford Fifty-Plus club meeting Friday, May 10 in the St. Mark's Episcopal Guild hall, Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue. The meeting will convene at 12 noon. Those who attend should take sack lunches. All interested persons are invited.

TO MOTHERS-TO-BE WITH LOVE.
A GIFT FROM THE
Stork Nook®
La Pointe's Maternity Fashions

Townsend Club Plans Picnic

A potluck picnic luncheon is planned by Mt. Pitt chapter, Townsend club, for Sunday May 12 in Alba park in the Jackson County fairgrounds. The group will convene at 12 noon and the luncheon is to be served at 1 p.m. Those who attend are to take table service.

In event of inclement weather the event will be held at the home of Mrs. Florence Boussum, 720 Welch street. Representatives of the chap## ter attended a district council meeting May 5 in North Bend.

Members of four clubs attended. Bert Shaver, Lebanon, is president and Mrs. Myrtle Mitchell, Coos Bay, secretary. John Doyle Elliott from National headquarters, Washington, D. C., reviewed the purpose of the organization from its inception thirty years ago to the present time. The speaker has been affiliated with the organization since 1934.

Visit

Prospect - Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Neville and infant daughter, Jo Anna, from Logan, Utah, are visiting Mr. Neville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Neville. The son recently was graduated from a Logan college with a degree in forestry. He is a former Prospect resident.

O'Brien - Mr. and Mrs. George Cardinal have returned after being in Portland as guests of Col. and Mrs. Martin Moshberger.

Pocahontas Lodge To Sponsor Party

A public card party will be sponsored by Weatonka council, Degree of Pocahontas lodge Friday, May 10 at 8:15 p.m., in Redman hall on Apple street. Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be in play. No reservations are required, officers have announced.

A council meeting is set for 7:30 p.m., preceding the party. Mrs. Gladys Rammin, Pocahontas, will preside.

JCMA Meet

Major Gen. J. H. Hicks, director of Civil Defense, will speak on the subject for Jackson County Medical assistants when they meet Thursday, May 9 at 8 p.m., in Girls Community club.

In Eugene

Prospect - Mrs. Lawrence Ray and Mrs. Lew Rogers represented the Prospect Parent Teacher association at the recent state convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers held in Eugene.

ARE YOU CAUGHT IN THE SQUEEZE OF HIGH FROZEN JUICE PRICES?

Buy economical

made from

CALIFORNIA ORANGES

• Concentrated

• Non-Frozen

• Vitamin C Enriched

Real Gold Orange Base is today's best breakfast juice buy... costs less than 5¢ per serving!