

IN STATE TOURNNEY - These five girls will represent Medford High Friday and Saturday in the state tennis tournament at Corvallis. From left are Sharon Young, Diane Paulsen, Kathy Smith, Paula Lowery and Sandra Irving. Misses Young and Paulsen are district doubles champions and Miss Smith won the singles. Misses Lowery and Irving were district runners up in doubles.

Last Series In Baseball For Raiders

Ashland - Baseball season will come to a close this week end for Southern Oregon college when it meets Oregon College of Education in a three game series at Monmouth. Friday the Raiders will face OCE in a single game and Saturday they have a doubleheader starting at 10 a.m. With a 4-5 record the Raiders are currently in third place in the Oregon Collegiate conference race. Southern Oregon has a 302 team batting average for 21 games. Bill Bailey, shortstop, is holding the number one average with a .426. Also, Bailey leads with 12 runs batted in. In pitching the Raiders are doing well. Dave Hughes the Raiders top hurler has an earned run average of 1.73 in 52 innings. He has given up only 26 hits. Don Johnson SOC's second pitcher holds the top spot in strikeouts with 44.

GOES TO STATE - Sue Naumes, above, St. Mary's high, will be among participants in the state girls tennis tournament on Friday and Saturday at Corvallis. She was runnerup in district singles last Monday.

SO Netters Make Trip

Ashland - Among those winding up their regular season in spring sports at Southern Oregon college will be the tennis players. SOC opposed Oregon State in Corvallis today. On Friday the Raiders will move to Portland for a match with Portland State. Saturday Southern Oregon states two matches. At 9 a.m. it meets Oregon College of Education in Monmouth and at 2 p.m. it faces Willamette university in Salem. Southern Oregon has a 7-5 mark. The Raiders have had 60 single matches this year and won 33. Ken Stevenson and John Popplewell are tied in the win-loss column, each with 8-4. In the doubles SOC has won 13 of 22. Dick Blacksmith and Ken Stevenson have a 6-2 record and so do John Popplewell and Jim Blacksmith. On May 17 and 18 SOC will host the OCC championships in tennis.

OSU Delegation Going to Fresno

Oregon State University, Corvallis - Oregon State probably will send a 19-man delegation to the 37th annual West Coast relays at Fresno, Coach Sam Bell indicated. The Beavers will be facing top national competition from all directions. The Beaver delegation includes Rusty Brown, Frank Marsh, Larry Jones, Roger Herbert, Tom Boswell, Lynn Eves, Jan Underwood, Norm Hoffman, Morgan Groth, Iain Colpitts, Al Schwider, Tom Wyatt, Steve Pauly, Gary Stenlund, Jim Roehm, Jerry Belz, Terry Cox, Lou Fasano, Rich Cuddihy and Jerry Brady. Entered at Fresno are 1,919 athletes, with competition in high school, junior college, college and open divisions. Oregon State will be one of 27 universities participating.

MATCHES RECORD

Portland - 8-4 - Freshman Ron DeVall matched a school record by striking out 14 batters as he pitched the University of Portland to a 2-0 baseball victory over Pacific Wednesday.

Tornadoes, Cavemen Friday Track Foes

Oregon prep track attention will be focused on Medford high's stadium on Friday evening. For southern Oregon's top ranking cinder and field powers will contend. The dual event will match Medford's Black Tornado against the Grants Pass Cavemen. This will be a twilight event. Field event activity will begin at 6 p.m. First race will be at 6:30 p.m. Both varsity and novice events will be run. Last year the GP varsity whipped Medford 101 to 20 1/2. "It's not going to be that way this year," declared Medford Coach Dean Benson. "If they beat us, they're going to have to earn it." So far this season the Whirlwinds have had the edge in meetings against the Cavemen. Medford outscored the Climate city team in the Orel and Rogue relays and the GP Rotary meet. Grants Pass was victor and Medford tied for fourth in the Hayward relays.

Tornado JV 16-5 Victor

Medford Junior varsity baseballers won 16 to 5 yesterday from the Prospect varsity. The Tornado got six of its runs in the first inning on four walks, Jim Brennan's double, Ed Coss's and Rick Newland's singles, an error and a fielder's option. In the sixth five were scored on three walks, singles by Brennan and Herb Pierson, a double by Dennis Boanears and two miscues. Three walks, a hit by Jerry Wilson and an error gave Prospect three runs in the seventh. Pierson and Brennan had two hits for Medford and Andy Maurer and Wilson two each for Prospect. LINESCORE: Prospect 200 000 3-5 3 3 Medford JV 603 025 3-16 8 2 Anderson, Maurer (1), Hemphill (6) and Karijala, D. Bean (4); Newland, Howell (5) and Com, Boanears (5).

LA Dodgers Turn on Power; Blast SL Cards With 26-Hit Explosion

By FRED DOWN UPI Sports Writer That bomb Walter Alston was supposed to be sitting on has exploded-and all but tore apart the St. Louis Cardinal pitching staff. It only goes to show what the Los Angeles Dodgers can do when they stop fighting among themselves and concentrate on the enemy. Forty-eight hours ago the Dodgers looked like they were coming apart at the seams. Today they look - at least to shell-shocked Cardinal pitchers - like the team that is favored to win the National league pennant. The Dodgers accomplished the turnaround with a two-game display of power that accounted for 22 runs on 26 hits. The fireworks included six doubles, two triples and four homers powering the way to successive 11-1 and 11-5 victories over the Cardinals. The latter, accomplished with six runs in the last two innings Wednesday night, enabled the Dodgers to celebrate despite a home run by Stan Musial which enabled the 42-year-old Cardinal star to pass Babe Ruth and set a new major league career record of 1,357 extra base hits. Musial's history-making homer came in the fourth inning off Bob Miller and was his second round tripper of the season. The San Francisco Giants walloped the Milwaukee Braves, 12-5, the Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-5, the Cincinnati Reds topped the Houston Colts, 3-2, and the New York Mets edged the Philadelphia Phils, 3-2, in other NL action. Willie Davis drove in three runs with two homers and a triple. Wally Moon had a double and two singles, Maury Wilky, Jim Gilliam and Ron Fairly had two hits each and Dodger baserunners stole four bases in the carnival at St. Louis. Ron Perranoski, who pitched 2 2/3 innings of middle - inning relief, received credit for his fifth win against one defeat.

The Giants scored seven runs in the fourth inning - their single-inning high for the season - and went on to tag Bob Hendley with his second loss. Willie McCovey had a homer and a single and Jim Davenport, Felipe Alou and Jose Pagan also had two hits each to lead the 11-hit San Francisco attack. Cubs Keep Winning The Cubs run their winning streak to five games - their longest since 1961 - with a four-run eighth-inning rally touched off by Nelson Mathews' homer and given further impetus by doubles by Jim Schaefer, Lou Brock and Ron Santo. The bulk of the attack was against Elroy Face, Pirate relief ace, who suffered his second loss of the year. Joe Nuxhall pitched a seven-hitter to win his second game of the season for the Reds with Johnny Edwards' two-run fourth-inning single providing the winning margin. Bob Bruce struck out eight Reds in six innings but was tagged with his third defeat. Jay Hook pitched a four-hitter and doubled to start the winning rally for the Mets, who

State Open Golf Won By Spivey

Lake Oswego - OPG - Glen Spivey, Portland, held off a late rush of three other golfers to win his first Oregon Open Golf Tournament at Lake Oswego Country Club Wednesday. Spivey toured the 36 holes on the final day in 73-73 for a total of 285, one over par. Two strokes behind at 287 were Tom Shaw and defending champion Bob Duden, both of Portland. Shaw shot a 72-71 Wednesday and Duden finished with a one-under-par 70, the best round of the day, after scoring to a 73 on the first 18 holes. Schroeder Fourth Amateur Stew Schroeder of Corvallis also led off Wednesday with a 75, but came back with a 71 to take fourth place at 290. A pair of Washington professionals, Chuck Congdon of Tacoma and Al Feldman of Olympia, tied for 5th at 292. Each had rounds of 74-74. Spivey, pro at Portland's Glen doveer course, walked off with $500 first prize money. The tournament began in a downpour Monday and ended in bright sunshine. Dr. Ralph Odell, Medford, finished in the Oregon Open golf tournament with a 78-75-84-83-320. Oregon Ducks Ranked Second Tucson, Ariz. - OPG - Oregon has advanced from ninth to second place among the nation's college baseball teams in the current poll conducted by the newspaper Collegiate Baseball. Missouri is first. Others in order are Western Michigan, St. John's, Wake Forest, Mississippi, West Virginia, Southern California, Arizona and Texas. BERRY UNCERTAIN Eugene - OPG - Oregon quarterback Bob Berry has been listed as an uncertain participant in the varsity - alumni football game May 18 because of three ribs fractured in practice.

Giants Like To Travel

Milwaukee - OPG - The San Francisco Giants are just four games away from their return to Candlestick park - but the way things are going now, they'd just as soon spend the rest of the season on the road. The Giants edged the Los Angeles Dodgers for the National league championship last season on the strength of winning about three-quarters of their games at home. But this year is different. Manager Alvin Dark's shock troops bombed Milwaukee, 12-6, Wednesday night for their 12th road victory in 14 games. They've lost eight out of 14 in the windy confines of Candlestick. Rocky Columbo's reign as Pacific coast junior heavyweight wrestling champion will be in jeopardy tonight when he puts the belt on the block against Maurice "Mad Dog" Vachon in the main event at Medford armory. If Columbo is dethroned, it will be his own fault because he asked Promoter Elton Owen to find the toughest opponent possible so that Columbo could prove he is "worthy of being called champion." Vachon, a big bearded French-Algerian, frequently loses matches but not because he gets pinned. Vachon occasionally ends up by being disqualified because he goes too far beyond the book of rules in his effort to win. If he tries that against Columbo, which he is certain to do, he might be in for a busy evening because the champ is tough in his own right when he has to be. Two other matches round out what Owen calls the best card he has ever brought to Medford. In the semi-windup Soldat Gorky, the Siberian Wolf Killer, locks grips with Gil "Hilo" Ane, huge Hawaiian ace. The opener, which goes to the mat at 8:30 p.m., will see classy
