

Herbert Qualifies as Yankee Killer; Pitches 4th Shutout

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It took Ray Herbert a long time to learn how to beat the New York Yankees, but once acquired the technique is habit-forming.

A 20-game winner in 1962, the Chicago White Sox right-hander from Detroit is the newest American league pitcher to qualify as a "Yankee killer." And, in the bargain, his flashing curveball is making him one of the AL's top pitchers and a "shutout artist" reminiscent of the dead ball era.

Herbert, who had a 6-14 record against the Yankees until he beat them twice in the last week of the 1962 season, topped 'em for the third straight time Thursday night when he hurled a two-hitter that gave the White Sox a 2-0 victory. It was Herbert's fourth win of the season - and his fourth shutout.

Chisox Stretch Lead

The White Sox' fourth consecutive triumph and sixth in their last eight games enabled them to take a one-game lead over the idle Kansas City A's and the Baltimore Orioles, who suffered a 4-1 loss to the Boston Red Sox.

Dave Stenhouse pitched a seven-hitter to give the Washington Senators a 6-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the only other AL activity of day or night.

Herbert, a refuge from the Kansas City Athletics, from whom he was acquired June 10, 1961, has now shut out the A's, Orioles and Senators in that order. In those 27 shutout innings, he has allowed a total of only nine hits. His victory Thursday night also dumped the lordly Yankees into fifth place in the AL and tagged them with their first shutout of the 1963 season.

Vachon Has Short Reign as Champion; Columbo Keeps Belt

Maurice "Mad Dog" Vachon enjoyed perhaps the shortest reign in history as Pacific coast junior heavyweight wrestling champion - about five minutes - at Medford armory last night. Then he returned to the ring and promptly lost the championship belt to Rocky Columbo, from whom he had taken it.

It all happened when, with falls standing at one apiece, Vachon pinned Columbo. After the referee counted Columbo out, the arbiter found that Vachon had illegally used leverage from the ring ropes and ruled that Vachon would have to return to the ring and continue the match.

After much persuasion and a threat to forego a stop at the pay window, Vachon returned to the ring and was arguing violently with the referee when Columbo landed a well-placed drop kick and Vachon was counted out.

Vachon, who usually wears a beard, came into the ring with a white mask, which Columbo removed during the match. Removal of the mask revealed a bald, beardless Vachon. It was announced that Vachon had a match in Portland earlier in the week with Tony Borne, also a beard wearer. The loser was to be shaved in the ring. Vachon lost.

Pretty Pat Patterson, who entered the ring attired in a gaudy jacket, flashy beret and using a three-foot-long cigar rette holder, thumped Ricky Hunter two out of three falls in a gruelling scrap.

Soldat Gorky showed that he had lost none of his former style when he took the lone fall from Gil "Hilo" Ane in the opener.

Giants Play LA Dodgers

Los Angeles -UPI- The San Francisco Giants brought a phenomenal record of 13 wins in 15 contests to the Los Angeles Dodgers Stadium tonight where Jack Sanford (5-1) of the National league champs faced blazing Don Drysdale (2-3) in the opener of a three-game set.

It marked the first meeting of the season between the teams, who ended the 1962 campaign here with the Giants rallying to defeat Los Angeles, 6-4, in the deciding playoff game for the pennant.

Grayson Takes Seattle Post

Portland -UPI- Bobby Grayson, three-time all-America fullback at Stanford, has resigned from the Portland Exposition-Recreation Commission to become sales manager of a Seattle meat packing firm. Grayson, a Portland native, plans to move to Seattle June 1.

Lipscomb Death Said Mysterious

Baltimore, Md. -UPI- Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, 31, giant tackle for the Pittsburgh Steelers professional football team, died mysteriously early today after collapsing at a party.

Police said the huge former all-pro lineman was pronounced dead on arrival at Lutheran hospital here after attempts at "external heart massage" failed to revive him.

Lipscomb lived in Baltimore, where he formerly starred with the Baltimore Colts, and had been at a party in a private home, police said. He suddenly fell unconscious, witnesses said, and an ambulance was called. By the time he arrived at the hospital, Lipscomb was dead, a hospital spokesman said.

The body was then taken to the city morgue for an autopsy. Police said they had no idea what was the cause of death and declined to speculate.

The 6-foot-6 Lipscomb, whose playing weight was 283 pounds, achieved all-pro distinction in the National Football league without ever having played college football.

A native of Detroit, the huge tackle learned to play the high-powered kind of game favored by the pros while serving in the Marines.

He signed with the Los Angeles Rams for the 1953 season and for three years was known as little more than a routine lineman in the NFL.

But in 1956 he was traded to Baltimore and it was with the Colts that he blossomed into one of the most feared linemen in the league.

Ducks Favored Over Huskies

Eugene -UPI- Oregon is the heavy favorite, but a couple of Washington trackmen may draw much of the attention Saturday when the two teams collide in a dual meet at Hayward Field.

The Huskies boast two of the best collegiate pole vaulters in the nation in Brian Sternberg and John Cramer. Sternberg shot into prominence earlier this year when he set a world record of 16-5. That mark lasted only about a week, but Sternberg has been over 16 feet consistently.

Cramer was a consistent 13-foot with a metal pole last year but has been bothered by injuries.

The meet may see an outstanding duel in the sprints between Oregon's Dave Blunt and Washington's Jerry Plowman.

Otherwise, the powerful Ducks are expected to have things their own way. They will be out after their fifth consecutive dual meet triumph.

Softball Loop Tiff Postponed

The Jackson County Softball association's league kickoff game, which was to have seen Tru Mix Concrete travel to Butte Falls for a clash with Medco Sunday, has been postponed until June 16, at Butte Falls.

Medco requested the postponement because several of their players are playing baseball for Butte Falls High school, which is in the district championship playoffs and must complete their season before engaging in softball.

League games next week will see Colvin Associates play Central Point at Jefferson school and Communication Workers of America mix with Wheeler Logging at Hedrick Junior High school on May 13. Games on May 14 will pit Jay Allen against United Grocers at Jackson school and Keith Schulz against Tru Mix at Hawthorne Park. All games are at 6:30 p.m.

BEATTY VS. HALBERG

Los Angeles -UPI- Jim Beatty, American record holder in 5,000 meters, meets New Zealand's Murray Halberg in that event May 17 in the 23rd annual Coliseum Relays. Jim Grelle, who scored an upset over Beatty in the 1,500-meter event at the Pan American games will face Peter Snell in the mile event. They were among 12 stars of the Los Angeles Track club entered yesterday in the track and field competition by coach Mihaly Igloi.

Frank Robinson's Booming Bat Carries Redlegs To 13-3 Win

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

There's fresh proof today that the Cincinnati Reds go as Frank Robinson goes.

National leaguers actually put it another way.

"When Robinson's not hitting," they say, "it's like playing a team that's blind-folded when it bats."

The 1961 NL champions seemed blind-folded, at that, for the first three weeks of the season. They were shut out four times and held to one run three other times as they stumbled around in a hit famine that was enough to make Manager Fred (The Bear) Hutchinson tear up the clubhouse furniture.

Then, Robinson, the NL's Most Valuable Player in 1961 and a .342 hitter with 39 homers and 136 runs batted in last season whose average this year had dwindled to a sickly .261, suddenly burst out of his slump. And what a coming out party it was!

Blasts Two Homers

All Robinson did Thursday night was go 5-for-5, with two homers, a double and two singles, score three runs and drive in seven to pace the Reds to a 13-3 rout of the Houston Colts. Teammate Vada Pinson weighed in with 3-for-5, three runs scored and four RBIs to make it a breeze for Jim Maloney to chalk up his fourth victory against one loss.

Robinson's spurge raised his 1963 average 40 points to .301 and gave him six homers and 22 runs batted in.

The San Francisco Giants downed the Milwaukee Braves 6-2, the St. Louis Cardinals turned on the Los Angeles Dodgers 10-7, the Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1, and the New York Mets defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2, in other NL action.

Robinson hammered a two-run double to cap a four-run third inning rally, hit a two-run homer in the sixth and added a three-run round-tripper in the eighth to round out his one-man attack on Houston pitchers.

Ed Bailey and Felipe Alou each drove in three runs for the Giants, who have won nine of their last 10 games.

The Giants routed Warren Spahn with a 10-hit, seven-run outburst in 5 1/2 innings to hand the great lefty his second loss of the season against four wins. Billy O'Dell pitched a seven-hitter to win his fourth in a row for the Cardinals.

White Grand Slams

Bill White hit a grand slam home, Charlie James connected for a three-run round-tripper and Gene Oliver connected for a two-run blast as the Cardinals collected 17 hits against five Dodger pitchers.

Kart Racing On Sunday

Trophy races are scheduled for Sunday, May 12, at Medford kartways if weather permits.

A pylon race will follow regular class competition.

A special pylon driving event for juniors of 10 years and younger is also planned. The rental karts will be used for these youngsters. A trophy will be awarded to this group.

Regionals to be held here June 8 and 9.

He will meet the quarterfinal round winner between Art Ashe of UCLA and Tom Edlefer of USC.

Rossetto Keeps Lead

Portland - Southern Oregon's Damien Rossetto dropped 51 points last week end but still managed to hold his Oregon Collegiate Conference batting leadership as Del Sheldon of Oregon College of Education jumped from fourth to second.

Rossetto has collected 17 hits in 32 times at bat for a healthy .531 average while Sheldon, idle last week end, moved up with his .455 average. Bob Jones of Portland State moved up to third from ninth a week ago and is now tied with Mike McKibben of Southern Oregon. Both have .438 averages.

Eastern Oregon's Dennis Bagnall is the leading pitcher with a 3-0 record, and a Eastern Oregon's Dennis Bagnall is the leading pitcher with a 3-0 record, and a 0.77 earned run average. Three other pitchers are 2-0 - Gordon Riess and Al Raschio of Portland State and Don Johnson of Southern Oregon. John Thomas of PSC and Dale King of SOC have 1-0 marks.

Rossetto tops the run scoring department with 13 and his 17 hits also is tops. Tied for the RBI leadership are Graf and Bill Bailey of SOC.
