

DISPLAY SCHEDULED—John T. Ross, who has one of the "most outstanding collections of iris, or rainbow, agates in the world," according to other members of the Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club, will display them and many other stones at the Saturday and Sunday show of the society at the Medford Armory. Here, Ross poses with the lamps he has made by inlaying stones in hand carved wood.

He also designs and makes the motors which enable him to give his displays advantageous showings all hours of the day. His interest in stones began many years ago when he was a boy in Kansas. He was a cabinet maker by trade for 32 years. If he needs a show table, he makes it. If he needs a wheel he makes that, too and he cuts stones to fit whatever design beauty or practicality demand.

Ashland Girl on Third Place Team

Tempe, Ariz.—Miss Betty Duffy, Ashland, Ore., and her teammate Bedford Douglass Jr., of Mesa, Ariz., won third place debate honors for Arizona State university at the Pacific-Southwest Speech Tournament at Pasadena a State college, California, recently.

Miss Duffy, a junior at the university, is enrolled in the college of liberal arts. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Duffy, 1350 Oregon st., Ashland. She is a 1960 graduate of Ashland High school, where she was an active participant in speech activities for three years under Herbert Lewis.

The Duffy-Douglass team participated in six rounds of oral competition debating the national topic: resolved, that the non-communist nations of the world should establish an economic community.

Full Crop Production In State Said Hurt

Corvallis — (AP) — Rains have soaked western Oregon farm and orchard lands beyond the point where full production can be expected this year, according to Oregon State university agricultural specialists.

Heavy May rains, following a cold, wet April, are forcing drastic shifts in crop production plans for the season in the Willamette valley.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A DISTINGUISHED young man-about-town was driving his sports car at a cool eighty miles an hour when an uncooperative motorcycle cop flagged him down and demanded to see his license. He looked it over carefully, then barked, "Besides everything else, you're supposed to be wearing eyeglasses." "Think nothing of it, officer," said the M.A.T. airily. "I've got contacts." "I don't give a darn who you know," declared the cop righteously. "You're getting a ticket anyhow."

Only yesterday, it seems, schoolboys were learning that "the sun never sets on the British Empire." History is made so rapidly today, the day-to-day changes are so radical, that it's almost impossible to keep abreast of events. A member of the U.S. foreign service was saying the other evening that it was in what now seems like another era—shortly before the outbreak of World War II—that an English delegation visited then President Franklin D. Roosevelt to discuss a tiny uninhabited island which Britain, among other nations, was claiming as its own. "What is the basis for your claim?" asked F.D.R. The head of the English delegation thought for a moment, then explained frankly, "It's always been colored red in the Encyclopedia Britannica!"

School News

Prospect Schools

New student body president at Prospect High school is John Scott. His election climaxed a week of campaigning. Other officers elected were Art Andresen, vice president; Barbara Beck, secretary; and Kris Schaffran, assistant treasurer. Fran Artmire, assistant treasurer during the past year, will automatically become treasurer next year.

Open house was held at Prospect schools recently. Parents went from room to room of the grade school and shop and through some of the high school. At the Prospect PTA meeting, grade school students who received honor awards for scholarship, music and sports were introduced.

Cleve Shafer and Dwayne Chapman represented Prospect High school at Student Government Day. Shafer served as circuit judge and Chapman as deputy sheriff.

High went to Salem recently to be a page in the state legislature. She stayed with Rep. and Mrs. John Dellenback at Salem and traveled with a girl from Medford High school.

Some visible progress is being made on turfing of the field at Prospect High. A construction crew has dug a ditch for the water line to the field. Previously, plowing and leveling work was done at the field.

The Mississippians, Negro singing group, visited Prospect High school recently and sang for the student body.

Crater High School

By Mike Broomfield
Corvallis was the scene of excitement recently as the Oregon High School Language Tournament got underway. Hour long exams were held in the morning and winners were announced. A banquet followed the exams with the winners in each language being honored.

Contestants traveling to the Tournament from Crater were Robert Bruce, Cynthia Pleasant, and Frank Roberts for Latin. Joyce Dye and Suzy Flynn in French. Gary Vincent and Linda Monia were entered in Spanish. Winners included Frank Roberts who took first place in Latin.

Carol Straus has been selected as Girl's State Representative from Crater High school. Her trip will include a tour through the Capital and will begin June 10 and will conclude June 16.

New Brunswick Man Held for Car Theft

Grants Pass—Robert Hazen Belyea 31, of St. Johns, New Brunswick, was being held for federal authorities here Wednesday charged with theft of a used car he obtained from a Vancouver, Wash., dealer "for a tryout." Belyea "tried out" the car by driving it the length of Oregon. He was picked up by Grants Pass city police, who found the car abandoned here and checked with the Clark county sheriff's office that Belyea fitted the description of the man who had left with it.

He was subsequently identified by Edgar Duman, salesman for Vancouver Imports, as the man who had taken the car for "a tryout," police said.
