

Los Angeles Dodgers Sweep Series With San Francisco

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers' loud and clear message to the San Francisco Giants and the National League today is that the scars of 1962 are having no effect upon the stars of 1963.

In short, the Dodgers have met their first "crucial" test of the new season—and passed it with flying colors.

The scars of the pennant-costing 1962 collapse were uppermost in the minds of NL observers 72 hours ago when the Dodgers, reeling and groggy and with Manager Walt Alton's future still a big question mark, squared off in a three-game series with the Giants—their first meeting with the team that beat them out for the flag in last year's post-season play-off.

Three-Game Sweep

The obvious question was how the Dodgers would react to their first meeting with the defending champions—and the Dodgers answered it with a dramatic three-game sweep in which (1) Don Drysdale finished his 25-game winning form of 1962, (2) Sandy Koufax made the Giants the victims of the second no-hitter of his career and (3) they rallied for three eighth-inning runs and a 6-5 Sunday triumph.

A Sunday crowd of 43,964 saw the Dodgers complete the sweep Sunday with MVP shortstop Maury Wills, playing his first game at third base, contributing a key double to the decisive rally. The Dodgers went into the eighth inning trailing, 5-2, and with out a hit since the second inning when they started their flash rally. Single by Jim Gilliam, Ron Fairly and Wally Moon preceded the decisive sacrifice fly by Johnny Roseboro.

The Philadelphia Phillies downed the Milwaukee Braves, 4-3 and 6-5, the New York Mets edged out the Cincinnati Reds, 13-12, after losing the opener, 3-0, the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, after a 2-1 defeat, and the Houston Colts ripped the Chicago Cubs, 2-1, in other NL games.

Frank Torre's 11th-inning single drove home the winning run for the Phillies in the first game and successive errors by Roy McMillan and pitcher Lew Burdette enabled Philadelphia to score the winning run of the nightcap in the 12th inning. Burdette's loss was his fourth against three wins.

Chico Cardenas' three-run homer and seven-hit pitching by Bob Purkey and Bill Henry gave the Reds their first game victory. The Mets gained a split in the wild second game — which the umpires threatened to forfeit to Cincinnati because Polo Grounds fans littered the field with debris — when Choo Choo Codeman singled home the odd run in the eighth.

Homer Tops Cards

Ted Savage's eighth-inning homer gave the Pirates a split after Ken Boyer singled home Curt Flood with the winning run for the Cardinals in the 12-inning first game. Savage's hit gave Al McBean his third win against one loss and tagged Ray Sadecki with his fourth straight defeat.

Bob Aprononte of the Colts led off the bottom of the 10th inning with a homer that brought relief pitcher Jim Umbricht, whose career was threatened last winter by cancer, his first win and handed Bob Buhl his third defeat.

The Colts swept their four-game series with the Cubs and dumped them into fifth place.

TELLS THE STORY—Los Angeles Dodger pitcher Sandy Koufax holds the ball that tells the story—his second no-hit, no-run game. Koufax hurled the no-hitter at Los Angeles on Saturday night as the Dodgers beat the league leading San Francisco Giants 8-0 in a National loop baseball game at Los Angeles. (UPI)

Sandy Koufax Hurls Second No-Hit Game

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles — Left-hander Sandy Koufax pitched the second no-hitter of his career Saturday night in a lopsided 8-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The handsome left-hander retired the first 22 men he faced before giving up a walk to Giants catcher Ed Bailey. He still faced the minimum number of batters, however, because Bailey was erased on a double play.

But in the ninth inning, Koufax walked Willie McCovey with two outs before Harvey Kuenn grounded out to bring him his no-hitter.

Koufax thus faced 28 batters in the first no-hitter of the 1963 season.

FANS FOUR

Last year, Koufax hurled his first no-hitter June 30 against the New York Mets. In that game, he walked five men and struck out 13.

In Saturday's contest, Koufax relied less on his fast ball and struck out four.

The pitching performance came before the largest baseball crowd of the 1963 season as 55,530 fans jammed Dodger stadium. The paid attendance was 49,807 fans, who from the sixth inning on became aware the Koufax appeared headed toward a possible no-hitter and applauded every man he retired.

Koufax was given an ovation in the eighth inning when he came to bat, drew a walk and scored a run.

WSU Bops Ducks Again

Pullman — (UPI) — Craig Heimbigner slammed a three-run homer in the seventh inning as the Washington State Cougars defeated Oregon 8-5 Saturday for their second straight Northern Division baseball win over the Ducks.

The loss was the second in seven starts in the division for the Ducks and dropped them a full game back from league leading Oregon State, which has a 3-0 record.

Boros Wins Colonial

Fort Worth, Tex. — (UPI) — Julius Boros climbed into fifth place among the touring golf pro money winners today with a $12,000 Colonial National Invitation title — won with the first sub-par total, 279, in eight years.

Par is 280 for four rounds. Boros finished four strokes ahead of the select field to pad his season earnings to $27,525.

Boros started the final round three strokes ahead of the field and played safe golf all day, posting one 15-foot birdie and a pair of bogeys for a 36-35-71 to wind up four strokes to the good over Gary Player, whose final round 32-35-87 put him at 283, worth $6,000.

RECEPTIVE!

Readers Welcome
Newspaper Advertising
... It's Not an Intrusion!

People really want newspaper advertising and have said so. Surveys usually show well over 80% in favor of newspaper advertising; less than 70% for magazines; and under 40% in favor of advertising on radio and TV.

Your advertising's first job is to win a friendly feeling for your product. It stands to reason you will win more friends by running your advertising where most people want it.

If you want to sell more people you have to reach them when they are receptive. Newspapers reach more of the most receptive people.
