

High School Teacher Wins Medford Jayceettes Award

Mrs. James Butler is the 1963 winner of the Merit Award of the Year presented annually by the Medford Jayceettes.

Mrs. Butler's selection was announced at a luncheon given Saturday at North's Chuck

Officers Installed

Mrs. Edward A. McGinty was elected president of the auxiliary to Post 15 of the American Legion at elections held last week in the Medford American Legion hall.

Elected secretary was Mrs. Earl Bigalow and other officers are Mrs. Ross Mincee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Whitey, treasurer; Mrs. Clark Walker, sergeant at arms; Miss Margaret Kerr, historian; Mrs. Leo Williams, chaplain; Mrs. H. C. Alford, Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith and Mrs. Herb Gifford, executive board members.

Mrs. Fred Sweeney and Mrs. Edward Feldman were presented with membership insignias for 30 and 35 years of continuous membership in the auxiliary.

Delegates elected to attend the department convention in August at Pendleton are Mrs. Bigalow, Mrs. McGinty, Mrs. Mincee, and Mrs. Collins. Alternates are Mrs. Sutter and Mrs. Goldsmith.

Plans were made for a coffee hour which will be served May 22 for those becoming United States citizens in Medford that day. The auxiliary also will entertain the local delegates to Girls State on May 20. Other guests will be the representatives from Medford who were members of the 1962 Girls State group.

Wagon. Mrs. Everett Payton, Jayceettes president, presented the winner a silver engraved plate.

Mrs. Butler was chosen from six candidates proposed by women's groups of the valley. She was sponsored by Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Mrs. Butler, who teaches at Medford High school, is the mother of two children and in addition the family keeps two foster children.

She is a member of the YMCA board of directors, of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, served as a block captain for the recent drive of the American Cancer society, and works in Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association.

During the luncheon the candidates for the annual Miss Rogue Valley contest of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce were presented in a style show given by Burelson's store. The Miss Rogue Valley pageant will be held May 18 at 8 p.m. in the Medford High school auditorium.

Consumer Protection To Be Topic for Illinois Valley Unit

Illinois Valley-Illinois Valley Home Extension unit will hear a lesson on "Consumer Protection" at a meeting to be held Tuesday, May 14, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Douglas Hanby.

Lesson leaders will be Mrs. Henry Gammel and Mrs. Walter Farmer. Luncheon will be served at noon by a committee and a business meeting will follow.

Mrs. John Alstrom, who attended the recent convention of the Oregon Home Economics Extension council in Corvallis, will give a report.

Mrs. Homer Snider of the Josephine County Extension committee will conduct installation of officers.

Three members of the Medford High school choir will be featured soloists in "The Requiem Mass" to be sung as part of the annual vocal music concert to be presented by vocal groups Tuesday, May 14, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. They are (left to right) Jarl Dyrud, Roland Gangstee and Jean Allen. This will be the first time that a work of this type and length has been attempted by the choir. The Sophomore choir will also present numbers.

Piano Pupils Give Recital

A piano recital was held recently by students of Mrs. Earle Fichtner at the home of Mrs. Robert Dickey, 201 Windsor avenue. The students presented popular and classical selections.

Those who participated were: Jeffrey Casterline, Brenda Nelson, Bob Dickey, Julie Casterline, Kirk Simmons, Joyce Casterline, Kathy

Dickey, Robin Cossette, John Casterline, Teresa Allen, Annette Spaur, Jim Casterline.

To add to the enjoyment of the program an original number composed by Julie and Jeffrey Casterline was also played.

Following the recital refreshments were served by Mrs. Dickey and Mrs. Fichtner.

Society Honors Yreka Seniors At Luncheon

Yreka - Miss Linda Tonkin of Weed, a scholarship winner, and senior girls planning to be teachers were honored guests at a meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, teacher's honorary society, held recently in the home-making room of Yreka High school. Approximately 36 members of the society were present in addition to the honored guests.

Hostesses were Mrs. Cecil Elliott, Mrs. Warren Behnke, Mrs. E. B. Prothero, Mrs. Thomas Mardahl and Mrs. Elaine McClellan.

Members of the Future Homemakers of America, under direction of Mrs. Warren Greene, served luncheon at tables decorated with spring bouquets.

Mrs. Behnke, chairman of the scholarship committee, announced that the first annual grant-in-aid of the local Gamma Nu chapter of DKG, had been conferred on Miss Tonkin, who is an honor student at College of the Siskiyous.

The chief speaker was Mrs. Amy Vandevere, formerly a Siskiyou county teacher, now of Central Valley High school in Redding.

Head Cheese - Head cheese is not really cheese at all but a delicious addition to your cold cut tray; available in delicatessen section of super market. morsels of pork are smoked, cooked and jelled into loaves or large round sausages. Sauce is similar to head cheese except for a tangy, sweet-sour flavor that curing with a vinegar "pickle" adds.

The "Miss Caroline" has been added to the outstanding line of Ridgeway wall, mantel and floor clocks. This ladylike floor clock measures 13 1/2 inches wide, 8 inches deep and 56 inches in height.
