

Angels' Chance Outshining Belinsky So Far This Year

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It's Bo Belinsky who gets the headlines but it's Dean Chance, the junior partner in the Los Angeles Angels' traveling night club, who gets the wins.

And, at the rate they're going, it won't be long before the handsome, 21-year-old Chance becomes the big league celebrity and audacious, fun-loving Bo is just a guy engaged to Mamie Van Doren.

Belinsky is finding things mighty tough in his second year in the big leagues with a 1-5 record to show for 1963 while Chance continues to demonstrate that he's always ready to answer Manager Bill Rigney's call for pitching help as he is to paint the town-any town-red.

Chance was routed in a mere 1 1/3 innings by the Chicago White Sox Sunday but bounced right back Monday night with a powerful middle-inning relief job that earned him his third victory of the season and enabled the Angels to beat the White Sox, 7-3. The win squared Chance's 1963 record at 3-3 and cut the White Sox lead to one game.

Boston Beals Senators

The Boston Red Sox fired a salvo of seven extra base hits to down the Washington Senators, 8-5, while the Houston Colts got excellent pitching again to beat the New York Mets, 4-2, in the only other major league games played on Monday.

Chance, 14-10, in his rookie season, allowed only one hit and one run in three innings before Julio Navarro inherited a 6-3 lead and closed out the victory for the Angels.

Leon Wagner had a homer and two singles, Jim Fregoso hit a triple and a double and Ed Sadowski had a homer and a single to lead the Angels' 10-hit attack against Eddie Fisher and three Chicago relief pitchers. Jim Landis, Pete

Ward and Charlie Maxwell had two hits each for the White Sox, who lost their second straight game after their seven-game winning streak was broken.

Conley Shaping Up

Frank Malzone, Dick Stuart and Bob Tillman homered for the Red Sox, who have won 10 of 13 games at Boston's Fenway park. Gene Conley, rounding into form after a slow start following his season's work in the National Basketball Association, went 6 2/3 innings to pick up his second victory with the powerful aid of Smokey (the Bear) Radatz.

Radatz, 6-6, 245-pound fireballer rapidly becoming recognized as the No. 1 relief pitcher in the majors, allowed the Senators one hit and no runs over the last 2 1/3 innings.

The Colts rolled to their fifth straight victory when Don McMahon bailed out Bob Bruce in the ninth inning by striking out Cliff Cook with the tying runs on base. Bruce ran out of gas in the ninth after striking out 11 Mets and allowing only three hits in 8 2/3 innings. Johnny Temple had two hits and Rusty Staub a triple for the Colts who tied the idle Milwaukee Braves for ninth place in the NL as a result of the victory.

SF Giants Lose Exhibition To Santa Clara University

San Francisco — From the sublime to the ridiculous aptly describes the current plight of the San Francisco Giants who return tonight to Candlestick Park for a 12-game stand.

The home park of the defending National League champions has not been kind to its tenants of late. Before leaving on their latest successful eastern swing, the Giants suffered their first losing (6-8) home stand since moving into Candlestick in 1961.

Jack Sanford (5-2) was Giant manager Alvin Dark's choice to face Bob Friend (3-2) of Pittsburgh in the opener of a two-game series. After that the Giants play the New York Mets, Philadelphia Phillies and Los Angeles Dodgers.

During its recent eastern tour San Francisco won 9 of 10 games before dropping three in a row to the Dodgers last week end at Los Angeles.

Santa Clara university heaped more humiliation upon the founding Giants Monday by beating them 6-4 in a nine-inning exhibition game.

Reliever Nelson Briles of Santa Clara allowed the Giants only one hit over the final five innings. He walked three men to load the bases in the fifth inning. Then Tom Haller looped a soft bloop over the mound and a late throw by Briles to first base allowed two men to score.

Santa Clara struck back with four tallies in the bottom of the fifth on an error, a sacrifice fly and two walks by Giant rookie Al Stanek.

Mrs. Jane Holmes leading a team of Charles Rauls, Steve Mastowski and Jay Bergavik netted 237. Pemberton was low man.

Pemberton and Hal Gould tied for low net scores of 51, after handicap subtraction.

Spokane's Willhite Shuts Out Tacoma, 1-0, On Four Hits

Spokane — Spokane's Willhite, signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers for an estimated $50,000 bonus, went the route in notching his team's second shutout of the season.

George Bamberger (2-3) and Jim Rantz combined to pitch Dallas-Fort Worth to its win over the Denver Bears who absorbed their 20th defeat to become the losingest team in the PCL. Bamberger allowed only four hits over the first five innings but was relieved by Rantz in the sixth after being touched for three singles and a run. Rantz allowed only one hit the rest of the way.

In another solid pitching performance, Oklahoma City's Brunet won his first PCL game when the 89ers scored three runs in the sixth on three singles, a double and a walk. 89er shortstop Jim Mahoney drove in three runs with a homer and two singles. Salt Lake's Gordon Seyfried (1-3) was the loser.

At Honolulu, the Islanders went to work on starter and loser Paul Seltz of Portland, but then hung on for dear life as Portland kept nibbling away at Islander hurler Dick Sovde. Reliever Bob Duliba finally shut the door on the Beavers.

Charlie Dees led the Islanders with three hits.

Laver, Rosewall Battle Here in Pro Net Series Monday Night, May 20

The World Series of Professional Tennis, which will make its Medford appearance on Monday night, May 20, has already reached the playoff stage, latest information on the tour shows.

Two Australian stars, Ron Laver and Ken Rosewall, are contending for the championship and Andres Gimeno and Earl Buchholz are vying for third and fourth positions.

The matches presented by the International Professional Tennis Players association and brought here by Jose Corona, Rogue Valley Country club net pro, will be played in the Hedrick Junior High school gymnasium. Action will be on a heavy padded canvas court laid out on the gym floor.

Trabert Coming

Corona reported that Tony Trabert, a tennis great in his own right, will be here sometime this week to make arrangements for the matches. Tickets for the presentation may be purchased at Barker's Men's store and at Lampert's Sporting Goods store.

The tour offers $112,500 in prize money. Winner of the Rosewall-Laver series will get $35,000 and the loser $25,000. Buchholz and Gimeno are contending for $20,000 and $15,000 sums.

This tour offered $10,000 for fifth place and $7,500 for sixth. Barry MacKay and Luis Ayala were originally with the tour.

Rosewall won the regular round robin of the current campaign. Laver beat out Earl Buchholz for the right to oppose Laver by winning nine of his last 11 round robin matches.

Many tennis followers feel that Laver has a dubious honor in meeting Rosewall, the major demo of pro tennis, in the 25-match head and head playoff series.

Accelerated Pace

Playing Rosewall is not considered, in many quarters, to be the most pleasant way to spend an evening. In fact, such an occurrence has become synonymous with the most strenuous type of physical ac-

Spitball Throwing Charged

Chicago — Chicago White Sox Manager Al Lopez today charged that Los Angeles Angels' relief pitcher Dean Chance throws a spit ball.

Lopez charged Chance with throwing the illegal pitch in the Angels' 7-3 victory over the White Sox Monday night.

The veteran Lopez who both batted against and caught the spit ball, said he has seen more spitballs thrown this season than he has detected in "many years."

"That Chance threw a couple of dandies last night," Lopez said. "He threw one that Nellie Fox didn't hit and one that Floyd Robinson did. It reminded me of Burliegh Grimes in the good old days."

Chance received several warnings from plate umpire Bill Kinnaman to wipe his hands off after White Sox batters complained. But Lopez contended it should be the responsibility of the other umpires to watch for the pitch.

Bill Rigney, manager of the Angels, admitted Chance gave the impression he might be throwing a spit ball.

"I don't know if Chance threw spitballs or not. He does have a habit of spitting on the ball but he dries it off," Rigney said.

Chance refused to comment on the charges.

Forman May Miss Pullman

Eugene — Oregon star miler Keith Forman may not be able to compete in the Far West Track championships at Pullman, Wash., Saturday, according to coach Bill Bowerman.

Bowerman said that Forman suffered a sore foot last week end in the Ducks' dual meet victory over Washington here. He recorded a 4:00.3 clocking in winning the mile.

Bowerman said an examination Wednesday would determine if Forman can run in the Pullman meet.
