

FFA Officers Duly Installed

Central Point-Crater FFA chapter's officers for the new year were installed recently at the Round Table Cafe in Central Point.

The 1963-64 officers were to buy the 1962-63 officers their dinner. After the dinner the installation ceremonies took place. Jim Caldwell was sworn in as next year's president; Ron Smith as vice president; Ross Conger, as secretary; Clint Gibson, as treasurer; Bob Bray as reporter and Don Kirkham, as sentinel.

4-H NEWS

Central Point Trail Blazers
The Central Point Trail Blazers 4-H club held their May meeting in the home of Pam Peterson, the president, who called the meeting to order. The flag salute was led by Laura King and the 4-H pledge was led by Melinda Fluck. Janet Olufsen, secretary, called roll and read the minutes, which were approved.

We talked about play days and went over parts in our 4-H books. Emily Corey reported on the training of a horse.

We had two visitors, Mrs. Kellogg and her daughter, Cindy Kellogg. Nan Burgoyne will give a demonstration at the next meeting.

Refreshments were served by Janet Olufsen and Tana LeRoy.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Pam Peterson.

Rogue Saddle-Lites

The recent meeting of the Rogue Saddle-Lites 4-H Horse club was held at the home of Gary Christenson. The meeting was called to order by our president, Kathi Kula.

We had committee reports on our pre-arr, which is June 2.

The club discussed our training session held May 11 in the Medford Fairgrounds. We are happy to have Marge Tucker come and help us with our riding and horses.

Antelope Cooking, Sewing

A short meeting of the Antelope Cooking and Sewing 4-H club was held in the home of Cheryl Hefley before going to Mon Desir for a luncheon of meat balls with sour cream and mushroom sauce, rice, corn and peas and dessert. Mrs. Julie Tummers showed the kitchen and talked about cooking with spices and herbs.

At the meeting the girls discussed summer camp and overnight trips. We talked about the judging contest which will be held Saturday, May 18, from 9 a.m. to noon in the extension auditorium. The discussion on practice pre-fair will continue at the next meeting.

AUTO SPEED RECORD

Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah -477- The world land speed record of 394.2 m.p.h. was established on this famed salt-covered speedway in 1947 by John R. Cobb of England. The mark still stands despite several attempts to break it in recent years by American speed king Mickey Thompson, England's Donald Campbell and others.
