Dick Stuart Smacks Ball Over Wall Twice; Drives In Seven Runs for Bosox

By United Press International

Some guys back up to the pay window, but Dick Stuart had to be different – he went clear over the wall.

Twice!

That's the friendly leftfield wall at Fenway park and what better time to his a couple of balls over it than on pay day?

They passed out the pay checks all over the majors Wednesday and Stuart picked the occasion to pace the second place Boston Red Sox to a 9-3 and 7-6 twi-night sweep over the Los Angeles Angels with a grand slam homer in the opener and a three - run homer in the nightcap.

It was kind of a mixed-up night for the ex-Pittsburgh first baseman.

The Fenway park crowd of 12,789 booed him for committing his first two errors of the season but also cheered him for hitting his sixth homer with the bases full in the third inning of the first game and his seventh homer with two on in the third inning of the finale.

Drives In Seven Runs

Stuart drove in a total of seven runs during the twin bill, and although his first homer assured Bill Monbouquette his third victory, Russ Nixon had to break a 6-all tie with an eighth-inning double in the nightcap to bring reliever Dick Radatz his third triumph.

The league leading Chicago White Sox came from behind to down the Detroit Tigers 7-4, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Kansas City A's 1-0, the Baltimore Orioles walloped the Washington Senators 7-1, and the New York Yankees ran their winning streak to four games with a 4-3 win over the Minnesota Twins.

Nicholson Hits Homer

Dave Nicholson's eighth home run with one on highlighted a 12-hit attack on four Tiger pitchers that carried the White Sox to their 11th victory in their last 14 games.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant set down the A's on two hits to even his record at 3-3 with the Indians. Tito Francona singled home the only run of the game in the first inning off Orlando Pena, who suffered his third loss in seven decisions.

Home runs by Jim Gentile, Jackie Brandt and Jerry Adair powered the Orioles to their victory over the Senators. Milt Pappas yielded only three hits, including a homer by Ken Retzer, in winning his third straight without a defeat.

The slumping Twins built a 3-0 lead against the Yankees but Mickey Mantle hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning and Elston Howard singled home the winning run to cap a two-run rally in the eighth.

Six Will Defend In District Track

Six of 1962's individual champions will defend and one half of last year's winning relay team will contend in that event when the District 6 A-1 track and field is staged on Saturday at Medford High school.

Saturday's field event and race preliminaries are scheduled to get underway at 10 a.m. The high jump is set for 2:30 p.m. and track finals are billed for a 3 p.m. start.

Individual champions returning from the 1962 meet are Paul Bransom, Crater; Steve Toews, Medford, and Larry Lindquist, Marty Bauer, Cliff Lyons and Gary Van Koten, all of Grants Pass High school.

Bransom won the broad jump and Toews established a 2:00.3 district record in the half-mile. Other record-bettering efforts at Klamath Falls last year were not allowed because of wind. Bauer won the 1962 shot put title, Lindquist was victor in the 440-yard run, Lyons won the mile and Van Koten took the pole vault.

Not In Relay

Bob Shepard, Rich Ireland and Dennis O'Leary are back from last year's champion Grants Pass relay crew. But, unless Coach Russ Werner changes his mind, O'Leary will not be participating in that event. He'll vie in the broad jump and low hurdles in which he was second last year and in the high hurdles.

Other second placers in district last year, who'll contend in Saturday's meet are Ireland, Shepard and Bauer and Medford's Scott Hampson. Ireland was second in both the 100 and 220-yard events. This time he'll be in the 100 but not the 220 and will enter the broad jump. Shepard tied for second in the highs and will be in that event plus the 100 and low hurdles. Bauer's second was in the discus. He'll vie in this contest again along with the shot and javelin.

Hampson, the runnerup in the quarter-mile, is an uncertain entrant in the 1963 meet because of a pulled muscle. He, however, is listed for the 440, the 100 and the relay.

Bransom is listed for the low hurdles and relay along with the broad jump. Lyons is slated to "double," running the half as well as the mile. Lindquist, Toews and Van Koten are to take part only in single events, according to the entry lists.

Pole Vault At SOC

Preliminaries and finals are slated in the morning in all field events but the high jump. The pole vault will be conducted at 10 a.m. at Southern Oregon college to take advantage of the rubber-asphalt runway. Because the jayvee baseball game between Medford and Klamath Falls does not begin until 1 p.m., it will be possible to use the baseball area for field events in the morning.

Medford hopes in the meet suffered a blow when sprinter Jim Hill pulled up lame on Tuesday. The pulled muscle makes his entry in the dashes, broad jump and relay a question mark.

Last year in district Hill ran 9.7 and 21.9 century and furlong preliminaries then a pulled muscle kept him from qualifying for state.

First and second places in the district qualify for the state track encounter. Also, subject to limitation athletes who achieve certain standards will qualify. Limitations have been amended so that it is possible three entrants from any one school in any one event to make state.

Candy No. 1 Choice in Preakness

Baltimore –(UPI)– Entries for Saturday's 87th running of the $150,000 added Preakness Stakes were to close today with Darby Dan Farm's Chateagay, the Kentucky Derby winner, named ahead of time just as he was at Churchill Downs two weeks ago.

Trainer Jimmy Conway, who had to leave for New York Wednesday, filed the entry before he left "just so there will be no slip-up."

And when the box closes, the names of Candy Spots, Never Bend, Sky Wonder, On My Honor, Lemon Twist and Country Squire were expected to join that of Chateaugay, completing the field of seven.

Although he won the Kentucky Derby by a length and one-half, Chateaugay once again finds himself cast in the role of underdog. For Candy Spots, third in the Kentucky Derby, is pre-race favorite at 7-5 with Never Bend, second at Churchill Downs, second choice at 2-1. Chateaugay ranks third at 5-2.

Candy Spots, winner of the Santa Anita derby and the Florida Derby this year, suffered his only defeat in the Kentucky Derby, many observers blaming jockey Willie Shoemaker for his third place finish.

Shoemaker again rides the son of Nigromante, who now boasts six wins in seven races.

Never Bend, winner of the Flamingo Stakes and the champion juvenile of 1962, will be ridden by Manny Yeaza. The colt is ranked better than Chateaugay because several of his races prior to the Kentucky Derby were easy victories and he is expected to improve with a tough race now behind him.

TENNIS PRO HERE MONDAY – Andres Gimeno, above, from Barcelona, Spain is one of four players who will appear in Medford on Monday, May 20, in the World Series of Professional Tennis. The series is now in the playoff stage and Gimeno is contending with Earl Buchholz for third place. Winner between the two in the playoff will get $20,000 and the loser $15,000. Gimeno was the Spanish national singles champion in 1957 and 1959 after being runnerup in 1955 and 1956. He won several international titles in 1960, including a share of the U.S. Indoor Doubles. In Davis Cup play for Spain, he won most of his matches. He signed as a pro in July 1960 and was an immediate sensation. Gimeno finished second to Pancho Gonzales in the 1961 World Series. Rod Laver and Ken Rosewall will be opponents in the feature match on Monday and the action is slated to open at 7:30 p.m. in the Hedrick Junior high gymnasium. They are playing for the $35,000 first place purse. Tickets may be bought at Lamport's Sporting Goods store, Barker's Men's store, Purucker's Piano house and Central Point pharmacy.

Koufax Records Fifth Win; Beats Phils Without Walks

United Press International

Sandy Koufax exposed one of baseball's oldest myths today by proving a pitcher doesn't necessarily have to take his lumps the next time out after a no-hitter.

Down through the years relatively few major league pitchers have managed to go the distance in their next game following a no-hit performance.

Koufax, who hurled a no-hitter against the San Francisco Giants last Saturday night, not only went nine innings Wednesday night but did better than that, going 12 while leading the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 3-2 extra-inning triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

The southpaw fastballer gave up 11 hits but struck out 12 and did not walk a man. It was only the second time in his major league career that he did not give up a walk during an entire game.

Ron Fairly provided Koufax with his fifth victory by singling home Jim Gilliam from second base in the bottom of the 12th. Reliever Johnny Klippstein had retired 14 straight batters before Gilliam singled in the 12th and moved up to second base on Bob Oldis' passed ball.

Braves Down Cardinals

Elsewhere in the National league, the Milwaukee Braves defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 9-3, the league-leading San Francisco Giants shaded the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3, the Cincinnati Reds crushed the Chicago Cubs 10-2, and the New York Mets snapped the Houston Colts' six-game winning streak 7-4.

Bob Hendley of the Braves held the Cardinals hitless for 8 1/3 innings before Curt Flood tripled. The Milwaukee southpaw gave up two more hits in the ninth and settled for a three-hitter and his fourth victory. Denis Menke connected for his fourth homer of the year off Curt Simmons, who lost his first game after five straight victories.

Held To Four Hits

The Giants were limited to four hits by loser Don Cardwell and two Pirate relievers but rallied for four runs in the fifth to win. Cardwell, now 1-5, walked winning pitcher Juan Marchial (5-3) with the bases full in the fifth and hit Felipe Alou with a pitch to force in another run. An error by third baseman Bob Bailey on Willie Mays' hard smash produced two more runs.

Frank Robinson and rookie Pete Rose each collected three hits to pace the Reds to their victory over the Cubs as Jim Maloney won his first game of the season with help from Al Worthington.

Loop Size Question Still Up in Air

Seattle–(UPI)–Delegates from six Western Hockey league clubs continued their annual meeting here today with the question of whether the loop would be reduced to six teams still up in the air.

Delegates from Calgary and Edmonton Wednesday held a quick caucus and then pulled out of the sessions. They departed after getting permission to postpone a final decision until May 31 whether they will operate next season.

The return of Spokane next season seemed virtually assured when, after nearly seven hours of debate, the directors approved a financial equalization plan.

No details were revealed but the plan replaces the controversial 20 per cent pool that was voted out earlier in the day. The new plan also is aimed at helping those clubs which experienced financial troubles last season.

Robert Breitbard, San Diego sportsman, attended the morning session and made formal application for a league franchise.

UO Ducks Defend in FW Track

University of Oregon, Eugene—Coach Bill Bowerman's powerful track team defends its Far West championship Saturday at Pullman with traditional rival Oregon State looming as the Ducks most serious roadblock.

The Webfoots will be after their 10th straight Far West team title, having captured the championship every year since 1954, when they ended a three-year Washington State domination of the event.

Oregon figures to regain the services of one standout performer for the Far West meet, but will have to do without mile star Keith Forman, who just missed in his attempt to run under four minutes last week.

Back in action after a three-week layoff because of a severe hamstring pull, will be javelin ace John Burns, with a best effort of 250 feet 1 inch this spring.

Forman suffered a slight muscle pull in his heel while speeding to a 4:00.3 mile clocking last week.

With Forman in the lineup, the Webfoots rate a solid favorite in the championship meet, but without the steady distance standout in uniform, a close struggle is expeced between the Ducks and Oregon State.

Several event changes will be included on the championship program. The three-mile will be substituted for the two-mile and the 440-yard intermediate hurdles replaces the shorter 330-yard intermediate event.

Oregon heads into the meet riding a five-meet winning streak and with dual triumphs over Oregon State, Washington State and Washington on the record books this spring.

CIVITAN STARTS

Muskogee, Okla. –(UPI)– The $9000 Muskogee Civitan Open got under way today with most of the leading women pro golfers except defending champ Patty Berg in the field of 33. The private little battle between top money-winner Mickey Wright and up-and-coming Marilyn Smith was expected to continue through the 72-hole tourney.
