

RED SOX TAKE OVER 1ST IN AL

United Press International Some kids hope to grow up and become president, but one former shoeshine boy would much rather be named the American league's manager of the year.

And at the rate he's going, freshman manager Johnny Pesky of the first-place Boston Red Sox might make it. Pesky delights in telling about his teen-age days in the early '30s when he worked as a clubhouse boy for the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league.

"I used to polish the shoes and sharpen the spikes for the guys like Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Mike Higgins and Frank Crosetti," the dark-eyed, 43-year-old Red Sox skipper laughs. "That's all behind him now and so is the rest of the American league."

Pesky's red-hot Sox won their fifth straight game and took over the league lead Thursday by blanking the Los Angeles Angels 3-0 on Earl Wilson's two-hitter.

Wilson even contributed a 379-foot triple and a single in Boston's 10-hit attack against Dan Osnicki who usually relieves for the Angels but made his first major league start. The Red Sox got to Osnicki for all their runs in the first inning.

The Cleveland Indians knocked the Chicago White Sox out of first place with a 5-4 victory and the Baltimore Orioles battered the Washington Senators 9-1 in the only other AL games scheduled.

Alvin Bais Bjornan Max Alvis' homer off Jim Brosnan in the ninth inning gave the Indians their victory over the White Sox. John Buzhardt started for Chicago and had a 2-1 lead until Joe Adcock's three-run double put the Tribe ahead 4-2, in the eighth. Dave Nicholson's two-run double in the top of the ninth tied the score and set the stage for Alvis' fourth homer. Pedro Ramos, Cleveland's third pitcher, was credited with his first victory.

Brooks Robinson drove in four runs for the Orioles and Jackie Brandt three more to tag Washington's Dick Rudolph with his fourth defeat. Baltimore starter Chuck Estrada, who limited the losers to two hits before departing in the sixth with a stiff elbow, won his second game.

LA Dodgers Move Into Second Spot In National Loop

United Press International What ever happened to all that dissension among the Los Angeles Dodgers? Manager Walt Alston says everytime he picks up a newspaper he reads about disension on his ball club.

He probably isn't doing much reading, lately or he would have noticed a conspicuous absence of such stories. Eight victories in 11 games will do it all the time and that's been the Dodgers' pace since May 5 when they began climbing from seventh place. They're second now and have apparent designs of moving even higher.

Southpaw Johnny Podres scored his first victory in more than three weeks Thursday night when he went the distance for the first time since April 24 in beating the Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0.

Podres scattered seven hits, struck out five and walked only one as he took only an hour and 50 minutes to record his second victory of the season.

Loser Don Schwall also gave up seven hits, including two in the ninth inning that did him in. Gilliam Scores Winner Jim Gilliam opened the ninth with a single, moved up on a sacrifice and went to third on an infield out. Wally Moon was purposely passed and John Roseboro followed with a single to center that scored the only run of the game.

The league-leading San Francisco Giants kept pace by edging the New York Mets 6-5, the Chicago Cubs clipped the Cincinnati Reds 2-0, the Milwaukee Braves completed a three-game sweep against the St. Louis Cardinals 5-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies continued their mastery over the Houston Colts 5-2.

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey each connected for his sixth homer of the season with one on in the Giants' victory over the Mets. Southpaw Bill O'Dell ran his record to 5-0 although Gaylor Perry had to rescue him when the Mets rallied for four runs in the sixth.

Larry Jackson whitewashed the Reds on six hits to register his fifth victory in nine decisions for the Cubs. Loser Jim O'Toole, now 6-3, allowed only four hits in the seven innings he worked, with Ernie Banks singling home the run that was enough to beat him in the seventh.

Dick Breeden doubled for Medford in the opener. Dave Dunson got the lone hit for Ashland. Dane Smith of Ashland fanned three and walked three in a first game five hiter. In the second mix Richard Price whiffed eight and walked two.

Snow Hurls No-Hitter For MH JV

Henry Snow hurled a no-hit, no-run victory and Ed Howell threw a one-hitter yesterday when the Medford high junior varsity baseball team beat Ashland 8 to 0 and 4 to 1 at Ashland.

Snow, in his five-inning second game triumph, issued 10 walks and struck out batters four times. Howell, in the first fray, also five innings, walked four and fanned four.

In the first game Medford got two second inning runs on two walks, two groundouts, an error, a passed ball and a Jerry Godley single. A base on balls, two fielder's options, an error and a Jack Mullen single gained two runs in the fourth. A walk, stolen base and two errors brought the Ashland tally.

A Dennis Boshears double, singles by Herb Pierson and Dick Anderson, a passed ball and an error allowed Medford three runs, enough to win, in the first inning of the second game.

Dick Breeden doubled for Medford in the opener. Dave Dunson got the lone hit for Ashland. Dane Smith of Ashland fanned three and walked three in a first game five hiter. In the second mix Richard Price whiffed eight and walked two.

Tornado Out-Swats Ashland 14-5; Vies At KF Tomorrow

Ashland's third inning runs knotted the scrap. But Medford got three hits and three runs in the bottom of the third for an 8 to 5 spread, Edmonds walked and swiped second base. Forde doubled him home and went to third on a balk.

Deffley's single brought Forde home. Deffley stole second and romped home on Young's hit.

There were three runs on one hit in the fourth inning. Two walks, two errors and a couple of stolen bases were put with Miles' two-bagger.

In the fifth inning Gary Miller walked and Mike Neatham singled. They scored on Anderson's triple and Edmonds singled Anderson across.

Grants Pass plays two games at Ashland on Saturday and the two clubs tussle again on Tuesday.

LINE SCORE: Ashland 145 230 -14 13 2 Rhodes, Barger (3), Tilford (5) and DeBoer, Kindell (6); Gates, Forde (2), Zwart (6), Young (7) and Barnes, Phipps (5).

Woods, Water, Wildlife By HANK DeVOS. Salmon fishing hasn't picked up too much in the Galice area as yet, but the Gold Beach stretch is producing fish like it isn't going to stop.

The periods of mud are making it difficult to estimate the extent of the run, but the fish are taking so much better than last year that fishermen are in a forgiving mood and still are trying.

Fish Lake—Has been improving with the weather. Some limits of rainbow and brook trout that are not too large. Those that have been caught weren't too particular what they were taken on.

Howard Prairie—Trotling and bank fishing are getting about as good as the weather. Bigger fish are becoming available as the spawning cycle ends and this week end ought to see the beginning of some of the best fly fishing in the country.

Wyan Lake—Things are improving and so is the fishing. The road in from Howard Prairie is fairly rough in spots but that shouldn't last much longer. Trailers using woolly worms are fish-happy—as are the stillfishermen using eggs and cheese.

THE OPTIMIST'S CORNER Reports from the legislature indicates that those hills instigated by the various "Save Our Bambi" groups still are in the committee's stew with them. It's lucky there are some cool heads between the "experts" and the experts.

GOOD LUCK! For its three runs in the first inning yesterday, Ashland got hits by Tim Thompson, Clyde Nelson, Dean Samulson and John Rhodes and sacrifice by Rick Pierce. A tornado miscue also helped. Consecutive sacrifices by Rhodes, Jan Suesee and Dennis Kindell, a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly by Bob DeBoer produced the other Ashland runs in the third inning.

Medford picked up just a single run in the first inning. Miles hit a Texas leaguer to left center field and stole second base. He scored on Young's bounding blast between first and second bases.

In the second inning Ron Edmonds walked but was forced for the second out by Forde's grounder. Barnes whammed a fly ball into left field and it bounded to the tennis courts for his round-tripper. Miles walked and Deffley singled, Young brought them around with his three-baser and Medford led 5 to 3.

Yugoslavia Tops U.S.

Rio de Janeiro—The United States, slightly mortified by its upset loss to Yugoslavia, will attempt to bounce back against twice-beaten France tonight in the world amateur basketball tournament.

The Yugoslavs surprised the previously unbeaten U.S. team by knocking out the Yanks 75-73 Thursday night when the final round-robin series got under way at Maracana Stadium.

The Soviet Union, which had matched the Yanks' 3-0 record in the preliminary round, remained unbeaten by overpowering France 58-45 and Brazil opened its defense of the world crown with a 61-55 triumph over Puerto Rico. The Brazilians had drawn a bye into the finals.

SPORTS FANS! I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW by Paul Lea

Did you know the great race horse Man O' War ran in 21 races in his career, and finished first 20 times? The only time he failed to win was in the Sanford Stakes at Saratoga in 1919.

He finished second in that race. And the only horse to ever beat him was named, appropriately, "Upset!"

It seems as though Little League baseball has been around for only a short time. Actually, however, did you know that the Little League movement was founded 24 years ago?

Preakness Trainer Express Optimism

By RAY AYRES. Baltimore—Optimism ran high at Pimlico today, with the trainers of Candy Spots, Never Bend and Chateaugay each confident that his horse was ready for the race of his life Saturday in the 87th running of the $180,000 Preakness Stakes.

Eight 3-year-olds are scheduled to start in the second of the Triple Crown classics. Candy Spots once again is the favorite, just as he was in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago.

But Candy Spots failed at Churchill Downs, suffering the only defeat of his career when he finished third behind Darby Dan Farm's Chateaugay and Cain Hoy Stable's Never Bend.

"He looks a little harder than he did for the Derby," said Mesh Tenney, who trains Candy Spots for Rex C. Ellsworth, indicating he believed the son of Nigromante was sharper now than he was at Juviseville.

Satisfied With Chateaugay Jim Conway, who trains Derby winner Chateaugay, was undaunted. Earlier in the week he was worried after Chateaugay turned in a faster mile workout than the trainer desired. But the colt has shown no ill effects and appears to be in high fettle and Conway promises Chateaugay "will run as good or better than he did in Louisville."

Wool Stephens, who trains Never Bend, second in the Derby, said he was completely satisfied with the way that colt has come up to the race after a workout Thursday. He said, "I thought it was as smooth and easy a workout as I've ever seen Never Bend put in."

The same jockeys who rode in the Derby again handle the "big three," with Willie Shoemaker on Candy Spots, Manny Yonza on Never Bend and Braulio Cera on Chateaugay.

The Preakness is a crossroads for Chateaugay, who can move a little closer to a clean sweep of the Triple Crown classics by adding the Preakness to his Derby triumph. The Belmont Stakes on June 8 completes the golden series.

Eight Win Triple Throughout racing history only eight horses have won all three races—Sir Barton, Gallant Fox, Omaha, War Admiral, Whirlaway, Count Fleet, Assault and Citation.

Three other horses had the chance Chateaugay seeks in Saturday's mile and three-sixteenth Preakness. But Carry Back, Tim Tam and Fervid blew the opportunity by falling in the Belmont Stakes after winning the first two.

Candy Spots is favored at 8-5 with Chateaugay and Never Bend each listed at 5-2. But there is growing support for Never Bend because the Preakness is one-tenth of a mile shorter than the Derby and Never Bend still was in front at Churchill Downs with a sixteenth of a mile to go.

The other starters include Rural Retreat, County Squire, Lemon Twist and On My Honor.

Match Format Told For Appearance of Net Stars Monday

An eight-game pro set, regular six-game sets on a two of three basis and a doubles match. That is the indicated program for the World Series of Professional Tennis when four of the world's top netmen contend here on Monday night, May 20.

The four are Australians Ken Rosewall and Rod Laver, Spaniard Andres Gimeno and U.S. player Earl Bucholz. Rosewall and Laver are contending in regular set matches for $35,000 top prize money and Gimeno and Bucholz in the pro-type set for third place. Pairings for the doubles match here have not been indicated.

Trabert Here The series action here will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Hedrick Junior high gymnasium. Tony Trabert, tennis star in his own right and executive director of the International Professional Tennis Players association was to be here today to check the local arrangements. A huge green padded canvas with a court lined on it will be spread on the Hedrick floor.

Jose Corona, Gold Hill, tennis pro at Rogue Valley Country club, arranged for the Medford appearance of the stars. The series moves from New York to action at Corvallis this evening. Saturday night matches will be at Portland.

Rosewall is regarded as the most popular of all touring pros. He is also considered the current king of pro tennis and the best tennis player in the world. He won seven out of eight tournaments in which he played in 1962. By the end of 1956, Rosewall was considered the kinglypin of all amateur tennis with the Wimbledon singles the only title to evade him. He was playing pro tennis the following year.

Laver made amateur tennis his private plaything last year. He took everything in sight including the Italian, Netherlands, Norwegian and Swiss championships and the "grand slam" of tennis—the Australian, French, Wimbledon and U.S. crowns.

Gimeno turned pro in 1960 after an outstanding Davis Cup record in which he won most of his matches for his country. He was an immediate pro sensation, beating many of the more experienced players in early matches. He has gained respect of the other pros because of his fine attitude and desire to win.

Tennis authorities have called Buchholz the most promising player in the world and "the best young player since Kramer."

McLoughlin Victor In Tennis Tussle McLoughlin ninth grade boys defeated Crater sophomores 5 to 2 Wednesday in singles tennis competition.

Mails Play In Portland

Rogue Valley Dairy Mails open their Northern Women's Major Softball league season on Saturday and Sunday nights in Portland against the strong Erv Lind Florists.

The Mails will have a minimum crew of nine on the trip.

They have Pat Barron and Ellen Callaghan as pitchers and outfielders; Yvonne Melvor, catcher; Doris Hickson, first base; Sharon Isaacs, second base; Beekie Glines, shortstop; Janet Pfaff, third base, and Sue Conway and Carol Huber, outfielders.

Art Pollard Will Race

Portland—The Indianapolis sprint cars hold their second auto racing event of the 1963 auto racing season, Sunday afternoon at the Portland Speedway with a top field of over 20 of the "sprint" and "roadster" type racers in "open cockpit" competition.

Time trials get underway at 1:30 p.m. with the first of the seven racing events starting at 2:30 o'clock. The events will include the trophy dash, four heat races, the consolation feature and the main event.

The cars will be from Oregon, Washington and Idaho as well as Western Canada, with a number of new cars turning their first spins on the speedway's paved one half mile oval.

Drivers who will be competing include Art Pollard, winner of the sprint car inaugural feature in March, Bob Gregg, Ray Wearne, Cliff Spaulding, Bill Crow, Bob McGrotty, Ed Kane, Mike Morrissey, Jim Roberts, Dean Willock, Mac McGartag and the former Sports Car ace Ed Brown of Portland.
