Medford Student Is Winner in Contest

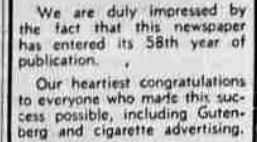

Eugene - Kenneth J. Wilson, sophomore in pre-law from Medford, was a winner in the recent 27th annual Library Contest held over Junior Week End at the University of Oregon.

Wilson won honorable mention in the awarding of the Weyerhaeuser company award. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Wilson, 2865 Hanley rd.

About 150 personal student libraries were submitted in the contest.

HAS MISCARRIAGE

Washington - (UPI) - Mrs. Joan Kennedy, wife of Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy (D-Mass.) has suffered a miscarriage.

We are duly impressed by the fact that this newspaper has entered its 58th year of publication.

Our heartfelt congratulations to everyone who made this success possible, including Gutenberg and cigarette advertising.

Dupree Poe May Receive Parole

Salem - (UPI) - Dupree Poe, a convicted slayer whose legal gymnastics have carried him into repeated court appearances in an effort to gain freedom, may be paroled soon, it has been reported.

The Salem Capital Journal said the Board of Parole and Probation was preparing a parole plan for the 61-year-old lifer.

Poe was convicted in 1932 of the slaying of Hans James Iverson, Silverton city marshal.

After 20 stormy years behind bars, much of it in the prison's isolation cellblock, Poe began in the early 1950s a legal campaign to gain his freedom.

He has taken countless motions and appeals to both the state and federal courts in an effort to upset his conviction and four years ago appealed to the federal courts, claiming himself to be a citizen of Communist China and demanding repatriation to his homeland.
