

Rural Life Sunday Scheduled at First Christian

Sunday will be observed as Rural Life Sunday at the First Christian church. The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will exchange pulpits with the Rev. Jack Naff.

Mr. Naff has been the minister of the First Christian church in Madras since 1957. During that time he has served in many civic organizations. He is presently the vice president of Kiwanis club and served one term as mayor of Madras. Mr. Naff will speak on the subject "The Church Without Walls" at the 10:55 a.m. service. The scripture text is Matthew 16:18. "There is a Balm in Gilead" will be the anthem sung by the choir and the chancel choir will sing Robertson's "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Harold Ottosen and Mrs. Price Shafter will host the coffee hour following the second service.

At the 8:30 a.m. service Ralph A. Warren, representative of the Oregon Council on Alcohol Problems will speak. Mr. Warren is state president of the Christian Men's Fellowship. The youth choir will sing "At Worship" at this service.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. with Robert Mann conducting the study and Michael Tusow the worship program.

The Middlers Fellowship will meet at the church at 3:15 p.m. to go play miniature golf. Each one is to take a sack lunch. They will return to the church at 6 p.m. for their study and worship. John Evans will be study leader on "The Word of God" and Robert Ottosen will give the worship. Reports will be given by Dianne Pickens and Douglas Mann.

The Christian Youth Fellowship is having a car wash at Jerry's Union station, Jackson st. and Central ave., tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The proceeds will go to their missionary giving goal.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. with Robert Mann conducting the study and Michael Tusow the worship program.

Alcohol Problems Director to Speak

Sunday at the morning worship service at Eastwood Baptist church, the guest speaker will be the Rev. Edgar F. Woody, public relations director of the Oregon Council on Alcohol Problems.

The chancel choir will sing "Come, Ye Disconsolate" by the Rev. Thomas Moore. Missionary Moments will present "Out of the Fog at Salem."

The Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. will discuss the effects of alcohol as a beverage. The Senior High BYF at 6:30 p.m. will make plans for its summer program. At the 7:30 p.m. service William Robertson will be the guest speaker.

Pre-school Vacation Church school begins Monday, May 20, and will be held Monday through Friday from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Evangelist, Party To Appear in Area

The Rev. Kenneth Gaub and evangelistic party will appear at the Foursquare church, 2200 Roberts rd., at the Sunday morning worship hour and the 7:30 p.m. service.

They will be accompanied here by Ray Hutchison and family. Both families will participate in musical and instrumental numbers. While in this area the party will make recordings.

May 21 through 26, the Foursquare evangelistic team, Sacramento, Calif., will begin services at the church. Mrs. Lee Hofmo is a pianist and contralto singer, and the Rev. Mr. Hofmo preaches and is a baritone singer. They have spent considerable time in the Scandinavian count... They will sing Scandinavian songs, wear cost-umes of that country and show color films.

Talent Methodists Honor Graduates

Talent-Sunday the Talent Methodist church services will honor the graduates. There will also be a ceremony to install the new officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

In the evening, the Junior Methodist Youth Fellowship of the church will have a party to welcome the new members coming in from the sixth grade and a farewell to those graduating and being promoted to the High School Methodist Youth fellowship.

Communion To Be Celebrated

Holy communion will be celebrated in the 8:15 a.m. service at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., Sunday, according to the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon.

Organist will be Mrs. Ivis Clay. Mrs. Richard Smith will play for the 11 a.m. service. In this service the choir under the direction of A. Huntemann will sing the Gradual and the anthem, "All Praise to God Who Reigns Above."

The present adult membership class will meet for its last regular session Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The teachers and assistants for this year's Vacation Bible school will meet Wednesday at 10 a.m. The workshop will continue until 3 p.m. Each is to take a sack lunch.

The festival of the Ascension of our Lord will be commemorated with a service Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The choir will meet after the service.

The closing program of St. Peter's kindergarten will take place Friday, May 24, with the teacher, Mrs. Edna Tams, in charge. All interested in kindergarten work are invited. The program will be held in the church's basement auditorium. Refreshments will be served at the close of the performance.

Priest Scheduled To Speak at RLDS

"God Is Active Today" will be the sermon topic of Priest Harry Spintig of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Tenth and Ivy sts., during the Sunday worship hour at 11 a.m. There will be a noted absentee of women in the congregation Sunday, since many will be attending the annual district Women's Institute in Albany this week end.

The theme for this year's Institute, as reported by District Women's Leader Mrs. Harry Ruchaber, of Roseburg, will be "What Doth the Lord Require of Thee?" Guest ministers will be Servant Luther Troyer of Boise district and Rev. Priests Noel J. King and Harry Ruchaber.

The Institute will conclude with a luncheon Sunday noon, hosted by the Albany-Corvallis women, after which the women will return home.

Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., the midweek fellowship and prayer service will be under the direction of Priest Ural Donnelly.

Southern Baptist Sermon Topics Told

At the Sunday morning worship hour the Rev. Gilbert O. Skaas, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will have for his sermon topic "God Working in You."

Song service, led by Dennis Sampels, will begin at 10:45 a.m.

In the evening, beginning at 8 p.m., Mr. Skaas will speak on "Right or Wrong?" The church choir will sing at both services.

This evening 11 members of the Associational Girls Auxiliary in both Phoenix and Medford will be presented awards in a ceremony at the local church, 794 Lozier lane. The awards will be for "forward step" work accomplished the past year. Theme for the service will be centered around the 50th anniversary of Girls Auxiliary. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Don Herbert, associational youth director, is in charge of the program. The Young Women's Auxiliary will sing and Mrs. Skaas will be soloist. Mrs. Eldon Mitchell, Phoenix, and Mrs. Alma King, Medford, are counselors for the groups.

Dedication Set For St. Martin's Episcopal Church

Shady Cove-The Rt. Rev. J. W. Carman will officiate at the dedication ceremony of St. Martin's Episcopal church, Shady Cove, Thursday, May 23. The event will be held at 8 p.m. and is open to all interested persons.

Services have been held in the recently completed church, valued at $35,000, for the past several weeks. Land for the church was purchased in 1958 and after architect plans were drawn up, the services were held in the basement of the proposed church. Through the use of volunteer labor the church was finally completed.

Vicars who have served the church since its construction started have been the Rev. Bruce McHenry, the Rev. John Smith Power, and the Rev. Stanley Welsh, present vicar.

Officiating at the first service held in the church on March 31 were Mr. Welsh and Mr. Power. Mr. Power is now at St. Peter's church in Albany.

The church includes an altar made of white oak with a Celtic cross of local dogwood. The new communion rail was made by a member of St. Martin's.

Rogate Sunday Topic Announced

The sermon by the Rev. H. C. Covert for Rogate Sunday at Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will be "Faith Is Fulfilled in Doing."

The order for installation of officers and committee chairmen of the Lutheran Church women for the coming year will be conducted during the worship service. Music will be provided by the choir. The junior choir will sing "Who Is This Lord?" and the senior choir offertory will be "Sanctus."

The Senior Luther League members will leave from the church Sunday at 1:30 p.m. for an outing and picnic in the Siskiyou. The Intermediate Luther League will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. Sunday for a tin can supper.

Mr. Covert will leave Sunday afternoon for Portland to attend the convention of the Pacific Northwest Synod of the Lutheran church in America which is being held at St. Mark's Lutheran church May 21 to 23.

Leon Evans, the official lay delegate from the local congregation, will also attend the convention.

Conference Retreat Set by Church

The Young Adult Fellowship of the Free Methodist church have planned a conference-wide retreat May 17 and 18 at Canby.

Dr. Donald Demaray, dean of the School of Religion at Seattle Pacific college will be the speaker. He is the author of several books and a graduate of the University of Edinburgh. The theme for the retreat is "The Work of the Holy Spirit."

The local pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, is currently serving as the conference director of the Young Adult Fellowship.

The Sunday school under the direction of LeRoy Calkins will continue the emphasis on the Christian Home during the month of May.

In the morning worship service the youth chorus will sing "More Than Conquerors" accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Stiles at the organ. The pastor will present a message on the subject "Eternal Life."

The service training course "What Makes Our Home Christian?" is being taught by Kenneth Harger during the family hour at 6 p.m. Following the family hour, the monthly singings will be presented by Merrie Marsh, featuring solos, duets and trios and also favorite choruses and gospel songs.

MUSICAL SERVICE
Talent - The Ray Hanson group will conduct an evangelistic service Wednesday, May 22, at the Talent Assembly of God church at 7:30 p.m. The service will include gospel music and singing.

Westminster Notes Speaker; Events Listed at 1st Church

Westminster Presbyterian church will welcome the Rev. Philip Getchell as pulpit guest Sunday. Mr. Getchell has served for the last three years as a missionary with the Protestant Episcopal church in Brazil, working at Sao Paulo and at Toledo in the state of Parana. His message will be entitled "The New Day in Missions."

Mr. Getchell grew up in Medford and attended Stanford university and the Church Divinity school in Berkeley, Calif. During the service several new members will be publicly welcomed and the choir will sing. Children's church and nursery care are available for boys and girls.

"The Church's Reconciling Task" is the discussion theme of the adult study class which meets at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. All other departments of the church school meet at the same hour.

The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Christensen, 183 Black Oak dr. The Senior High Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. and after the discussion will gather for fireside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, 2248 Dellwood ave.

Graduating seniors will be honored at the annual spring banquet of the Senior High Fellowship Wednesday, May 22, at 6:30 p.m. All senior high youths of the church are invited to attend.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves. First Church

"An Alternative to Futility" will be the subject of the sermon by Dr. D. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

The senior high choir will sing a 12th Century Plain-song, "Of the Father's Love Begotten," for the first service and the chancel choir will present "By the Waters of Babylon" for the 11 a.m. service.

A new class in church membership will be started by Dr. West Sunday at 5 p.m. All who plan to unite with the church on June 23 are invited to attend. Nursery care will be provided.

Senior High Fellowship will meet in the sanctuary for installation of officers. Parents of the youth are invited to attend. A reception honoring senior high parents and the new officers for the coming year will be held immediately following the installation services.

Officers for the coming year are Mike Hoover, moderator; Jane Stinson, first vice moderator; John Lampkin, second vice moderator; Sharon Hale, secretary, and Ed Lippert, treasurer.

Aldersgate Theme Set at St. Luke's

St. Luke's Methodist church, 2320 Siskiyou Blvd., will mark the 225th anniversary of John Wesley's Aldersgate experience on Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service.

The service of morning prayer will follow the Wesley liturgy. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, will preach on the Aldersgate theme and the congregation will be singing Wesley hymns.

The altar choir, composed of junior and senior high age boys and girls, will sing "For Man's Quest for God" by Puleen. Mrs. Claude Griffin is director and Mrs. Charles R. McDonald assists at the organ. The senior choir will sing "Day After Day" by Clarke. Ralph Humphrey is organist-director.

Grace Lutheran Adds Early Service

Ashland - An early service is to be added at Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, Sunday. The service will begin at 8:30 a.m. This will be followed by the Sunday school and Bible classes which will meet at 9:45 a.m. There will also continue to be the 11 a.m. service.

The pastor of the congregation, the Rev. Albert Nickodemus, announced that a family night dinner will be held Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The program following the dinner will consist of a puppet show performed by the Junior Walker League under the direction of Mrs. H. M. Schilling. There will also be a presentation on stewardship given by George Carpenter, Grants Pass.

Central Church Sermon Topics Listed

"Christianity-All Work and No Play" will be the theme of the Sunday morning message at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave. Bringing the message will be the minister, John V. Heberling. Mr. Heberling's evening sermon is entitled "The Full Gospel."

Services at Central church begin at 9:45 a.m. with Bible school, followed by morning worship and Junior worship at 11 a.m. Evening activities include youth meetings at 6:30 p.m. and worship at 7:30 p.m.

Senior High Fellowship Invited to Home of Dr. Philip Getchell as Pulpit Guest Sunday

Senior High Fellowship is invited to the home of Dr. Philip Getchell as pulpit guest Sunday. Mr. Getchell has served for the last three years as a missionary with the Protestant Episcopal church in Brazil, working at Sao Paulo and at Toledo in the state of Parana. His message will be entitled "The New Day in Missions."

Mr. Getchell grew up in Medford and attended Stanford university and the Church Divinity school in Berkeley, Calif. During the service several new members will be publicly welcomed and the choir will sing. Children's church and nursery care are available for boys and girls.

"The Church's Reconciling Task" is the discussion theme of the adult study class which meets at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. All other departments of the church school meet at the same hour.

The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Christensen, 183 Black Oak dr. The Senior High Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. and after the discussion will gather for fireside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, 2248 Dellwood ave.

Graduating seniors will be honored at the annual spring banquet of the Senior High Fellowship Wednesday, May 22, at 6:30 p.m. All senior high youths of the church are invited to attend.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves. First Church

"An Alternative to Futility" will be the subject of the sermon by Dr. D. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

The senior high choir will sing a 12th Century Plain-song, "Of the Father's Love Begotten," for the first service and the chancel choir will present "By the Waters of Babylon" for the 11 a.m. service.

A new class in church membership will be started by Dr. West Sunday at 5 p.m. All who plan to unite with the church on June 23 are invited to attend. Nursery care will be provided.

Senior High Fellowship will meet in the sanctuary for installation of officers. Parents of the youth are invited to attend. A reception honoring senior high parents and the new officers for the coming year will be held immediately following the installation services.

Officers for the coming year are Mike Hoover, moderator; Jane Stinson, first vice moderator; John Lampkin, second vice moderator; Sharon Hale, secretary, and Ed Lippert, treasurer.

Grace Lutheran Adds Early Service

Ashland - An early service is to be added at Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, Sunday. The service will begin at 8:30 a.m. This will be followed by the Sunday school and Bible classes which will meet at 9:45 a.m. There will also continue to be the 11 a.m. service.

The pastor of the congregation, the Rev. Albert Nickodemus, announced that a family night dinner will be held Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The program following the dinner will consist of a puppet show performed by the Junior Walker League under the direction of Mrs. H. M. Schilling. There will also be a presentation on stewardship given by George Carpenter, Grants Pass.

UNITARIAN ADDRESS

The Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will hear an address Sunday by Carl George. His topic will be "A Hundred Years Later." The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave., at 11 a.m. A picnic is being planned on June 2 as a close to fellowship activities until fall when meetings will be resumed weekly.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Talent-Gilbert W. Kistler will be the guest speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Talent Friends church. Dr. Milo C. Ross, Newberg, president of George Fox college, will be the speaker at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Adventist Sermon Listed for Saturday

"The Privilege of Prayer" is the subject of the sermon to be given by Sidney Nelson at the 11 a.m. hour in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday. Mr. Nelson will point out that Christ is the Christian's friend, and prayer is the means of communicating with Him.

At 7 p.m. Saturday a musical program will be presented under the direction of Marvin Wilson, who heads the music department at Rogue River academy. The program will feature James Kempster, soloist, and the combined Rogue Valley chorale and the Rogue River academy choir.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the Medford church the George Vandeman film, "Why so Many Denominations?" will be shown. Elder Duane Corwin will speak on "The Power of Positive Thinking."

CHURCH NEWS

School of Religion Graduation Held

"Go forth with love and perseverance into the world which so needs the boon of Christ's love" was the admonition of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund J. Murnane, LL.D., of Eugene, to the graduates of St. Mary's Public High school of Religion Tuesday night.

True peace can never come except through love, especially love for the unlovable, he said, and it is not possible to be real messengers of Christ's love unless there is the learning of religious principles and development of moral virtues in the person along with his secular education.

Pentecost Theme Sermons Start at First Nazarene

With Pentecost Sunday just three weeks away, this theme on the Christian calendar will be before the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., during their intervening Sundays.

The pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, has announced that the Sunday messages at 11 a.m. will be on some phase with regard to the day of Pentecost, June 2.

His subject for Sunday will be "The Spirit of Fire." Music will be furnished by the sanctuary choir singing "Full and Overflowing" and a tenor solo by Jack Delmonte.

"Called to the Caribbean" is the subject to be considered by the pastor in the 7 p.m. service. The pastor begins a series on his recent journeys to some of the foreign mission fields of the Church of the Nazarene, particularly Trinidad and Panama. He will show film Sunday on some phases of the work in Trinidad. The series will continue for the next few Sunday nights.

Perry Christiansen, minister of music for the church, announced that music for the evening service will include a girls trio by Carolyn Cole, Cheryl Stewart and Susan Myers, a duet by Mrs. Rex Vowell and Jack Delmonte, a solo by Mrs. Clifford Shafer, and a violin ensemble.

Children and youth of the Sunday school will present a music recital Sunday at 3 p.m. in the church sanctuary. The music students will play numbers on the piano, organ, and various other instruments. A reception will be held in the activity building following the recital.

Superintendent To Hold Meeting

The Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will preach Sunday at First Methodist church at both morning worship services.

Miss Sharon Smith will sing "My Task." The youth choir will sing "O Light, Whose Beams Illumine All" by Boriniansky at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Consider the Lilies" by McCormick at 11 a.m.

A fellowship potluck dinner will follow the 11 a.m. service for all members and friends of the church. This dinner precedes the fourth quarterly conference and annual members meeting of the church. Mr. Aschenbrenner will preside. All members are to attend as this is the annual business meeting at which the new officers of the official board, commissions and committees are elected.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will hold a fireside at the home of Brad Thompson, 224 Renault ave. from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. A council meeting will follow the fireside.

The Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will have as their guest speaker the Rev. G. N. Lulay, St. Mary's Catholic church. They have been having a series of interfaith discussions. Steve Martin will lead devotions. A fireside will follow at the home of Bob and Dick Minshall, 608 Sterling rd.

Thursday there will be a sub-district vacation church school training session from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with leaders coming from Roseburg and Portland.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring an Italian dinner on Saturday, May 25, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the church dining room. There will be free babysitting in the nursery. This is their money-raising project of the year. The public is invited.

Ashland Methodists Announce Activities

Ashland - Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts., will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. service on "Gray Wood." A coffee hour will follow the service.

Sunday at 5 p.m. the Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship group will be led by Beth Nickell.

At 7:30 p.m. the quarterly conference will be held with the Rev. Edward Aschenbrenner, district superintendent, presiding.

First Presbyterian Church

Worship Services 9:30 - 11:00 a.m.
"Alternative to Futility"
Dr. D. Kirkland West
Church School: 9:20 - 11:00 a.m.

Concord Spiritualist Address Scheduled

Gold Hill-The address at Concord Spiritualist chapel Sunday at 8 p.m. will be given by the pastor, the Rev. Elvina Colburn.

The pastor will be assisted by Mrs. Pansy Jones, healer, Sidney Jones, and Robert Routh.

Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet and a piano solo duet will be presented by Mrs. Bianca Corona and Mrs. Colburn.

Baptists Note Coming Events

"What is the Believer's Relationship to the Flesh?" is the message that will be brought at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at the First Baptist church, by the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews, pastor. This will conclude a series of messages on the natural man. The chapel choir will sing and Mrs. Albert Gandt will be soloist for the service.

Sunday at 7 p.m. Mr. Andrews will give the first of four messages from the book of Romans. It will be, "What Happens to the Man in Eternity Who Never Heard the Gospel?" An informal song service precedes the message. Music will be provided by Jerry Goddard playing the French horn and Mrs. Carol Morris with a vocal solo.

The Men's Fellowship of the church will have a potluck supper and meeting at the pastor's home, 785 Waverly ave., Tuesday at 6 p.m. Gerald Wollam will show travel pictures. Officers of the fellowship are Lawrence Cuffel, president; Miner Boshear, vice president; and Monroe McGonagle, secretary-treasurer. All men are invited.

Other Sunday activities at the church, which is meeting temporarily at the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves., include a full Sunday school program at 9:40 a.m. and a family hour at 6 p.m. which includes youth groups as well as an adult class.

The men of the church are currently engaged in repair and maintenance work at the Union-Rogue Baptist camp near Prospect. They expect to have it ready for the summer camping program which begins late in June.

Roundtable Topic To Be On Missions

This week end the Minister's Roundtable will discuss foreign missions.

It is view-over station KMGD-TV, Channel 10, at 11 a.m. Saturday and at 8:05 a.m. on KMGD radio.

The Rev. Wendell Wagler, associate pastor at First Christian church, will serve as moderator. Joining him on the program will be Dr. Margaret Wallace, the Rev. Harold Sanner, and Dr. George Roseberry.

Dr. Wallace is a retired missionary from India, who now makes her home at Rogue Valley Manor in Medford. Mr. Sanner is the pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene and he has recently returned to Medford following a visit to a mission field of his denomination. Dr. Roseberry is pastor of First Methodist church and formerly was a district superintendent where part of his responsibility was to promote the mission program of the Methodist church.

The program will focus around the following questions: "How have current world conditions affected Christian foreign missions?" "Have concepts of missions changed?" "What are the prospects for the future of the missionary movement?"

The program will be held at the home of Bob and Dick Minshall, 608 Sterling rd.

Thursday there will be a sub-district vacation church school training session from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with leaders coming from Roseburg and Portland.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring an Italian dinner on Saturday, May 25, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the church dining room. There will be free babysitting in the nursery. This is their money-raising project of the year. The public is invited.

Revival Scheduled At Ashland Church

Ashland - Evangelist Allen Rollins will conduct revival and evangelistic meetings at the Hillside church (Christian and Missionary Alliance), 748 Siskiyou Blvd. The services will begin Sunday, May 20, at 7:30 p.m. and each evening throughout the following two weeks.

Mr. Rollins, a former local dairy man, is a graduate of Golden Gate Baptist seminary, San Francisco. After graduation, he and his family went to Brazil as independent Baptist missionaries serving with the "World Missions to Children."

Slides of Rollins' work in Brazil will be shown Sunday.

Unity Sermon, Meetings Listed For Next Week

"The Law of Fulfillment" is the subject of the lesson scheduled Sunday by the Rev. Katharine Bosworth at the 11:15 a.m. church service at the Unity church, Holly and Haven sts. The text is taken from Matthew 5:6. This is the third in a series on "Prosperity Secrets of the Beatitudes." Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. H. H. Breese will sing "My Soul Is Afloat for God," by William Stickle.

The Men of Unity will meet Monday, May 20 at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner, in the Unity church.

Prayer Ministry
The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, May 22, at 11 a.m. at the church. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet. The Wednesday night study class will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Alex Murphy residence, 1001 South Oakdale ave.

This is the fourth of a series of lessons on "Science of Living." The lesson topic for the week will be "How to Contact Your Own Indwelling Lord, Through Prayer and Meditation."

The Grants Pass and Ashland classes will meet as usual.

Unity church is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

2 Churches Note Coming Activities

Central Point-A sermon on "The Ancient Apostles' Creed" will be given by Dr. Earl William Benbow, interim pastor, at the Central Point Presbyterian church Sunday at 11 a.m.

The women of the choir will sing "This Is Our Father's World." Parents may take small children to the church nursery.

Coffee will be served following the worship service.

At 7 p.m., the Youth Fellowship will meet for discussion led by Doug Christie. Miss Cherrise Offutt and Miss Mary Colley will assist. Then Miss Marsha Clark will be hostess for the Fireside at her home, 1115 East Pine st., Central Point.

Jacksonville - During the worship service of the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, Sunday, three Boy Scouts will be honored by receiving their God and Country award. These boys are Bill Hinkle, Chuck Logan and Curt Offenbacher. They will receive the award from the pastor, the Rev. King K. Jones, with whom they have been working for more than a year in order to earn this award.

Dr. Donald Krug will be a guest speaker during the service. He will speak on the topic "Treasurer in Earthen Vessels." The choir