

Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter will open the Carpenter's home, Topsides, Old Stage road, tomorrow afternoon for the annual silver tea of Jackson County unit, Oregon Federation of Women's Republican clubs. Mrs. Carpenter is shown here in the garden. The large gardens and grounds are especially pretty at this time of the year and lend themselves well to outdoor parties.

Newlyweds Now Home

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Weiant, 2201 Siskiyou boulevard, have arrived home from Mexico where they spent the winter months at Guadalajara.

The couple left Medford in late December following their marriage at Eastwood Baptist church. Mrs. Weiant is the former Elna M. Trumbly of Medford and Mr. Weiant is formerly of Portland.

The Rev. Clifford Young performed the ceremony and the bride was attended by her daughter, Miss Penelope Ann Trumbly.

Erwin Trumbly Jr., the bride's son, was best man.

Enroute south the couple visited friends in Palm Springs, Calif., and during their stay in Mexico they traveled to Guzman and Mazatlan. On their return they stopped in Phoenix, Ariz., and Las Vegas and Reno, Nev.

Miss Trumbly, a business college student in Portland, spent Mothers' day week end with the Weiant.

Mrs. Arthur Aas is the former Frances Thrun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thrun, 121 Kenwood avenue, Medford. The Aas-Thrun marriage ceremony and nuptial mass took place May 11 in Sacred Heart Catholic church here. (Brainard photo)

Couple Wed In Nevada

Phoenix - Miss Patricia E. Elkins, Phoenix, became the bride of Robert A. Clarke, Jacksonville, in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Walden Ward at the Park Wedding chapel, Reno, Nev. Saturday, May 11, at 12:30 in the afternoon. The bride wore a beige sheath dress with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tycer, Ashland, attended the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Elkins, 4374 South Pacific highway, Phoenix. She graduated from Campbell High school in California in 1957 and attended Zweigman's Medical Secretary school in San Francisco. She is employed as a medical secretary for Dr. Aubrey M. Hill, Ashland.

Mr. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Clarke, 900 South Third street, Jacksonville, was a 1957 graduate of Jacksonville High school and served in the United States Navy from 1957-1960. He is employed as parts manager for Howard-Cooper corporation.

They are now living at 330 North Holly street, Medford, following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

Marriage Set Friday, May 31

Gold Hill - News of interest in southern Oregon is the approaching marriage of Miss Kaaren Elaine Hilly, Costa Mesa, Calif., to a former resident of the Rogue valley, Marine Cpl. Charles Lester Black, now on duty with the Marine air-wing at El Toro Marine base at Santa Ana, Calif.

The wedding will be an event of Friday, May 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Newport Harbor Lutheran church at Newport Beach, Calif.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nelson, Costa Mesa, and Mr. Black is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Black, Gold Hill. The Blacks plan to attend the rites.

Prior to enlisting in the Marine corps Mr. Black was graduated from Crater High school at Central Point in 1958 and attended Southern Oregon college at Ashland. He is a member of a well-known Sams Valley area family.

Honored

Prospect - The Rev. Stanley Welsh, vicar of Church of the Good Shepherd Episcopal, Prospect, was honored by St. Martha's guild recently at a potluck dinner at the Community hall. Some 50 persons attended the birthday party.

'Mr. Telephone' To Speak For Siskiyou Knife-Fork

Ashland - Charles E. Seavey, who has earned the name of "Mr. Telephone" because he has logged more than 1,700,000 miles traveling the state of Oregon, will address the May 28 dinner meeting of the Siskiyou Knife and Fork club. Tickets for the final meeting of the season may be purchased from the secretary, Mrs. Ella Hendrixson, 380 Morton street, no later than May 25.

When Charles Seavey, better known in telephone circles as Chuck, appears before members and guests at the 7:30 o'clock dinner program in the Mark Antony hotel, he will translate into lay language some of the complicated developments in electronics of the fast-moving space age as related to future scientific research.

The speaker began working for the Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone company in Eugene in 1924 and in the 39 years has experienced every type of problem including winter storm repairs. His boyhood interest in radio was continued through college in physics and mathematics.

Rites Planned In Colorado

Of interest in the valley is news of the approaching marriage of Miss Melinda J. Wineland and Dale Wayne Peterson, which was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Wineland of Golden, Colo. Miss Wineland is a dental technician in Denver.

Mr. Peterson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Peterson, 11306 Dennis road, Central Point and now is a junior at Colorado School of Mines.

Miss Wineland is a 1961 graduate of Auburn, Ind., High school and the bridegroom was graduated the same year from Medford High school.

The wedding is planned for June 29 at Faith Lutheran church in Golden.

Nuptial Mass Weds Couple

Miss Frances L. Thrun and Arthur Aas were married in a ceremony followed by a nuptial mass celebrated May 11 by the Very Rev. Carl Heart Catholic church. A number of out-of-town relatives and friends were in Medford to attend the 11 o'clock morning rites. Guests numbered about 175.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thrun, 121 Kenwood avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Trygve Aas, Everett, Wash., who could not be here for the ceremony.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Munneke, Carmichael, Calif., the former Miss Simonne Petard of Jacksonville and Medford. Mrs. Gerald D. Plueard, Portland, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmatron, and Miss Loretta Mary Zeleznik, Central Point, was bridesmaid.

Leonard Thrun, a brother of the bride, served as best man.

August Petard, Donald Zeleznik and Paul Willingham were ushers.

Wears Lace

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over net and laffeta with Sabrina neckline and fingertip sleeves. The skirt was designed with a cascade effect at the back. A silk organza rose accented with pearls held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis with ivy.

The matron of honor wore a pink embroidered crystalline gown with beque bodice and full softly pleated skirt. The bridesmatron and bridesmaid wore matching gowns of pink crystalline and all wore pink rose headresses with float veils. They carried bouquets of pink rosebuds and carnations with stephanotis.

The altars were decorated with white stock and pink chrysanthemum. Bruno Pellegrini furnished the organ music and John Cooney, and Mrs. William Reed of Lodi, Calif., sang during the mass.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the Knight of Columbus hall, Members of Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America, were in charge.

Mrs. Reed Sings

Mrs. Reed sang during the reception, accompanied by Miss Ingrid Bergstrom, pianist. Mrs. William Wilder, Roseburg, and Mrs. Kenneth Bristol, Phoenix, cousins of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Leo Webster and Mrs. Donald Bohlman poured coffee, and Mrs. Oscar Jefferys and Mrs. Kenneth Owen poured punch. Attending the guest book was Miss Phyllis Steele, another cousin of the bride.

The bride's attendants assisted with gifts.

For the wedding and reception.

tion Mrs. Thrun wore a blue nylon lace dress with white accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds and variegated pink carnations. About 125 guests were at the reception.

Special guests were Mrs. Mary Plueard, Medford, the bride's grandmother, and a great aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Paquette, who came from Oregon City.

Many Guests

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. Plueard and children, Bonnie, Denise and Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Bishop, Miss Vera Betterton, Miss Catherine Marshall, Brock and Lori Bohlman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chapman and son, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cooper and children, Trina and Kerry, and William Plueard, all Cottage Grove; Mrs. Lawrence Tuill and children, Myrtle Creek, and Mr. Munneke and children, Ted, Mike, Timothy and Leo, all Carmichael, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove High school and has been employed as a lumber invoice clerk. A soprano vocalist, the bride in recent years has been featured soloist with the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon and has sung often for other programs.

The bridegroom attended schools in Great Falls, Mont., and Everett, Wash. He is employed by Fir Fly company, White City, as a shipping foreman.

The couple left for their wedding trip to Southern California and Mexico for an indefinite period. For traveling the bride wore a beige linen dress with beige accessories and an orange chrysanthemum corsage.

Christiansons At Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Y. S. Christianson, of Oakland, Calif., and Medford, are spending several weeks at their home here at 37 Valley View drive.

Last week they traveled to Tumalo, near Bend, where Mrs. Glen Smith, former Medford resident, was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Christianson.

During the coming week the Christiansons will have as their houseguests, Gen. William Gillmore, and Mrs. Gillmore of Carmel, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Christianson plan to leave for Oakland the end of the week.

Benefit Tea

Christian Women's fellowship members and guests are invited to attend a silver tea Tuesday, May 21 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Ernest Gleason, 2684 Crater Lake highway. The event will benefit the United Christian Missionary society and on display will be china and glassware from Mrs. Gleason's collection.
