Couple Back From Hawaii

Montague — Mr. and Mrs. George Flock, who exchanged marriage vows 50 years ago in Yreka, April 25, observed their golden wedding anniversary date while touring the Hawaiian Islands, having recently returned from their trip.

The Flocks were feted on three different occasions during their 12-day tour through the 50th state, which they made in the company of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Finck, Mrs. Hilda Cooley and Mrs. Ruth Rider. The party joined other members of the California Farm Bureau Federation on the trip, which was arranged for by the Cal-Farm Travel service.

The tour included stops at the Princess Kaiulani hotel, Kona Inn on the Island of Hawaii, visits to pineapple fields, farming operations of Farm bureau members, the Nuuanuali area, Diamond and Koko Head, and a flight to Kona, the coffee growing area, including a visit to the City of Refuge, Kealahou Bay, a coffee mill and village churches. They saw the Keel Battlefield and the vast lava flows on the large island of Hawaii.

Drysdale-Knapp Rites Held

Mrs. Harold Frederick Drysdale (Knackstedt photo)

Miss Bonnie Lynn Knapp became the bride of Harold Frederick Drysdale in 8 o'clock evening rites held May 12 in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of about 250 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Knapp, 1006 Sunset avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Shirley Drysdale, 23 North Orange street, and Harold W. Drysdale, Vashiti way.

Mrs. Carol Ellis was maid of honor and Mrs. Clarence Allen, bridesmatron. James Lawrence served as best man.

Seating the guests were John Michael Bauer, Dean Tibbitts and Larry Kemper.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of silk organza designed with lace bodice and billowing skirt with chapel train. The skirt was edged with lace in scalloped design. Her elbow length veil was held by a beaded crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Maid In Lavender

The maid of honor was dressed in a lavender cotton brocade streetlength frock with bell skirt and she wore a matching circlet hat with short veil. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink carnations. The bridesmatron wore a matching frock in pale pink and her colonial bouquet was of lavender carnations.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue silk suit with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a suit of gold and yellow tones with pink trimming. Her accessories were gold. Both wore white purple throated orchids.

Altar decorations were of white stock and pink and white carnations. White satin bows marked the pew ends.

Mrs. John Drysdale sang the wedding songs and Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist.

The reception given in the Parish hall was directed by members of St. Elizabeth's guild. The bride's table was decorated with an arrangement of pink carnations with lavender ribbons and the refreshment table was centered with pink carnations and pink and lavender candles in silver candlesticks, a gift to the bride from the bridegroom.

The couple left for their wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The bride's traveling attire was an oatmeal linen suit which she had made, with brown and orange accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage.

The couple is living at 210 Cottage street.

The bride attended Gold Hill grade school and Medford High school and the bridegroom attended Medford schools. She has been employed as a clerk-cashier for Payless Drug store and the bridegroom is an assistant manager for Standard Oil of California.

Junior Guild Entertained by Staff

In keeping with National Hospital week and to show appreciation for services rendered to Sacred Heart hospital, the Sisters at Sacred Heart hospital entertained the Junior Providence Girls at a luncheon May 17, at the hospital. The nine members who attended are the Misses Annette Burich, Barbara Lewis, Mary Kay Hockstatter and Faye Lewis from St. Mary's High school and the Misses Sharon Mellish, Pamela Green, Lawnedia Prewitt, Sue Root, Janet Paulson and Mary Ross from Medford High school.

Miss Ross was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. Mario Campagna, and Sister Joseph Albert have been traditional to the group the past year. Sister Teresa Louise took over Sister Joseph's advisory to the girls upon Sister Joseph Albert leaving Medford. She will work with Mrs. Robert C. Ross, next year's new advisor to the group.

The Junior Providence Guild has had a busy and active year. They have worked a total of 280 hours working in the admitting office, central supply, filing and typing, running the messengers service, helping the nurses with patients. The members went caroling at Christmas and have made tray favors for the hospital for all the holidays. They have assisted in the development office and during the city-wide campaign for the new Sacred Heart building fund, the girls served coffee and doughnuts to the workers.

The members have their own fund in progress to buy an article for the pediatric ward in the new hospital. They decorated pine cones to be sold at Christmas time and made little St. Patrick hats for St. Patrick's day, to raise the money.

Any girl of Junior High or High school age interested in joining the group is invited to call Sister Teresa Louise at Sacred Heart hospital, at 773-6611.
