

Dodgers Playing Like Club Everyone Thought Could Be Pro Tennis World Series Comes To Medford Tonight

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

All those crepe-hangers who were so sure Walt Alston was about to lose his job can march to the blackboard and write 100 times: "How wrong can anyone be?"

Alston's job as manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers was regarded so precarious two weeks ago that owner Walter O'Malley broke a long silence by giving him a vote of confidence.

Ordinarily, such verbal pats on the back too often turn out to be the kiss of death but at the spectacular clip Alston has the Dodgers going now he's even in a position to throw a few votes O'Malley's way.

At long last, the Dodgers look like the club everyone felt they could be but never really were since 1959 when they won their last National League pennant.

Close In on Giants

They have won 6 in a row of their last 10 and have zipped from seventh place to within one game of the first-place San Francisco Giants. They also were the only major league club to sweep a doubleheader Sunday when they beat the New York Mets 1-0 and 4-2 in 13 innings.

EL Florists Win From Dairy Maids

Portland — The Erv Lind Florists opened the Northwest Women's Major Softball league here over the week end with a sweep over the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids.

Florist pitcher Piper pitched a no-hit, no-run win on Sunday night as Lind won 13 to 0. On Saturday the score favored the Portlanders 2 to 1 in eight innings.

Piper fanned four and issued one base on balls. She was backed by errorless fielding. Dot Doby hit a grand slam homer in the six-run sixth inning.

Barron Triples

On Saturday the Maids gained their lone marker in the sixth inning on an error and a Pat Barron triple. Lind tallied in the fourth inning on hits by Bettina and Seaman and a sacrifice by Jackie Rice. Seaman, who had driven in the fourth frame run, broke up the ball game in the eighth with a hit with one out. An error and walk had put Florists on base.

Rice fanned six and Barron two. Each pitcher walked one. Janet Pfaff picked up the other of two Maids safeties.

The Maids play Eugene at White City next Saturday and Sunday.

Corbett Still Champ

Bend — (UPI) — Corbett will hold the Oregon high school Class B track championship for at least another year.

The high-powered Cardinals, paced by Robin Hager, rolled up 59 points to successfully defend their small school title here Saturday.

Hager captured the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.0 to tie the meet record and the 180-yard high hurdles in 20.5. He finished third in the broad jump.

Camas Valley took second place with 37 points and Bonanza was third with 36 1/2.

Rounding out the top 10 schools were McEwen with 30, Cascade Locks 24, Monro 22, Oakland 22, Colton and Powers 20 each and Triangle Lake and Elkton 16 apiece.

OSU Holds Slim Lead

Moscow, Idaho — (UPI) — Defending champion Oregon State held onto its slim lead in the Northern Division baseball race by walloping Idaho 22-6 Saturday.

The win left the Beavers with a 7-2 record in the division. Oregon, which was idle, is in second place with an 8-3 mark.

World Series of Professional Tennis comes to Medford this evening bringing with it four of the world's greatest players.

They are Ken Rosewall and Rod Laver, from Australia, Andres Gimeno, from Spain, and Earl Buchholz, of the United States.

The series matches, currently in the playoff stage, will be seen at Hedrick Junior High school gym starting at 7:30 p.m. There will be three matches, two in singles and one in doubles.

Headline match will be that between Rosewall and Laver in the battle for first place. It will be the second one of the program and will be two-of-three regular sets. Opening the evening will be the pro-set skirmish between Buchholz and Gimeno. They are fighting for third place.

The players will pair for doubles competition in the concluding action. It likely will be a pro-type set but could be regular sets if it appears time will permit. There is no place at stake in doubles.

American League Has 5-Team Jam

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

To get the feel of the American league race today, try squeezing five into a telephone booth.

That's exactly the same situation presently existing in Joe Cronin's circuit where a mere half-game separates the first five clubs and where the standings look this way:

W	L	Pct.	GB
Boston	19	13	594
Chicago	21	15	583
Baltimore	21	15	583
N. Y.	18	13	581 1/2
K. C.	20	15	571 1/2

The log-jam wasn't helped any Sunday when four doubleheaders ended in splits and none of the leaders could make the least bit of headway against any of the others.

The Red Sox had an opportunity to widen their slender percentage-points lead after clobbering the A's 7-3, in the first game of a doubleheader but lost the nightcap, 9-7.

Baltimore won the opener from Chicago, 4-3 then lost a 10-inning nightcap by the same score; the Los Angeles Angels beat the Yankees, 6-2, but dropped the second game, 10-4; Cleveland defeated Minnesota, 6-4, and lost the finale, 7-6, and the Detroit Tigers winged the Washington Senators, 5-1, in a single game.

Frank Malzone drove in five runs in the Red Sox-Athletics opener with two homers and a single that paved the way for Bill Monbouquette's fourth victory. KC reliever Bill Fischer scored his sixth straight victory without a defeat in the nightcap as George Aluskis and Ed Charles each hit two-run homers.

Strikeout Milestone

Robin Roberts struck out the 2,000th batter of his major league career in the Orioles' opening game victory over the White Sox. His victim was Juan Pizarro, who suffered his first loss following three straight victories. Roberts allowed five hits in bringing his record to 2-4.

Ray Herbert's string of scoreless innings ended at 38 when Oriole catcher John Orsino hit the first of his two homers in the third inning of the second game. Orsino also singled home the tying run in the ninth but Pete Ward's triple won the game for the White Sox in the 10th. Tom Broman, recently acquired from the Reds, was credited with his first AL triumph.

Albie Pearson's three-run homer and another two-run blast by rookie Bob Perry eased the way for Ken McBride's first game victory.
