

Butte Falls Tackles Wasco Team Friday

Butte Falls - Butte Falls high baseballers play their first night game of the season Friday when they take on Wasco County of Maupin in the state B school quarter-finals.

The game will be at 8 p.m. at Maupin.

The Loggers will enter the field with a 10-4 record and hope to use base running to advantage. Butte Falls has not been a heavy hitting club this spring and Coach Connie McQuerry said that his club will "go for the bases" to make up for the deficiency.

Wasco reportedly has good hitting. The Loggers hope to hold this down with the twirling of Neal Ellis.

Other possible BF starters tomorrow are Mike Stratton, catcher; Dan Edmondson, first base; Ron Sizemore, second base; Jim Lytle, third base; Ron Smith, shortstop; and Joe Boyd, Art Rambo and Mel Bowen, outfielders. Players Bob and Jerry Copeland, John Capello and Steve Stratton and manager John Wood will make the trip.

The squad will head north early Friday.
