

ROBERTS OUT—Robin Roberts, Baltimore Oriole pitcher, is out trying to steal third base in seventh inning of American league baseball game with Washington at Baltimore. Roberts tried to reach third when

Ken Retzer, Senators catcher, fumbled pitch from Jim Duckworth. Retzer recovered in time to throw to Marv Breeding at third. Umpire is Bob Stewart. Baltimore won 6-0. —(UPI)

Roberts Spoils Washington Managerial Debut of Hodges

United Press International
Robin Roberts always did have Gil Hodges' number. In the glory years for both, circa 1950 through 1955, Roberts won 138 games for the Philadelphia Phillies and Hodges hit 204 home runs for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

edge over Hodges, yielding only six of these 204 homers by Hodges during those seasons. It's a full decade later and Roberts is a 36-year-old pitcher hanging on with guile and savvy while Hodges is embarking on a new career as a major league manager.

Roberts, 1962 comeback of the year player in the majors, started slowly this season but has been a major cog in the Orioles' drive of nine wins in their last 10 games which has carried them into a half-game lead in the American league. He's won three straight complete games, allowing a total of only four runs and 11 hits.

Pittsburgh Reacquires Jerry Lynch

Milwaukee—UPI—Jerry Lynch likes to quip that when he's tapped for pinch-hitting duty "I leave the dugout swinging."

With that in mind, the Pittsburgh Pirates reacquired the 32-year-old outfielder Thursday in a straight swap for veteran Bob Skinner, with whom he broke into the majors in 1934.

The Pirates, with one of their weakest hitting teams in years, plucked Lynch from the Cincinnati Reds where the 32-year-old lefthander developed into one of baseball's most feared pinch-hitters.

Lynch has cracked 13 home runs in the pinch, one short of the major league record held by George Crowe.

Lynch has a season batting average of .250 on eight hits in 32 at bats. He has appeared as a pinch-hitter 13 times, connecting for three hits, two of them homers.

Skinner, a regular with the Pirates for the past eight seasons, was batting .270 this year with no home runs and eight runs batted in. He and Lynch joined Pittsburgh as rookies in 1934 but Lynch was farmed to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League and drafted by the Reds.

The Pirates, who open a three-game series with the Milwaukee Braves here tonight, view Lynch as the answer to their anemic offense.

Dodgers, Giants Clash At Candlestick Tonight

San Francisco—UPI—If only the San Francisco Giants could have saved some of those homers for the red-hot Dodgers of Los Angeles.

Revenge blood will be boiling in the eyes of the Giants when the Dodgers invade Candlestick Park tonight for the opener of a three game week end series. The Giants dropped three in a row at Los Angeles two week ends ago.

Thursday the Giants swatter four home runs in downing their farm team at Tacoma 6-1. Catcher Ed Bailey had two of the four baggers, Matty Alou another and Orlando Cepeda a two-run blast in the first to shoot the Giants into a 2-0 lead.

Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants plans to start Juan

Marichal (5-3) against Sandy Koufax (6-1) who hurled a no-hitter against the Giants at Chavez Ravine two weeks ago.

Each team will have a double incentive to get off to a winning start tonight. The Dodgers want to extend their eight-game win streak and wrest first place from San Francisco which has a one-game lead. The Giants want to hold the lead and gain revenge for the three humiliating defeats suffered at Dodger-ville.

Manager Walt Alton of Los Angeles and Dark both have lined up their "big three" for the series. Billy O'Dell and Jack Sanford are expected to follow Marichal in that order. Johnny Podres and Don Drysdale are expected to oppose them.

Folley Defeats Cleroux in 10

Montreal—UPI—Zora Folley, perennial contender to the heavyweight throne, today looked ahead to an outdoor meeting against former and sometimes retired champion Ingemar Johansson of Sweden following his unanimous decision over Canadian Bob Cleroux.

Folley, weighing six pounds less than his Canadian opponent at 200 pounds, demonstrated a near matchless ring artistry and increased aggressiveness Thursday night en route to his lopsided 10-round victory over his younger opponent from Montreal. The 31-year-old Chandler, Ariz., brawler barely worked up a sweat as he slashed the awkward and inept, but ever willing, Cleroux at will.

The victory, Folley's 84th in 73 professional bouts, was his second lopsided decision over the 25-year-old Canadian swinger. He defeated Cleroux almost as handily April 18, 1962, in San Francisco.

Rinaldi Keeps European Title

Rome—UPI—Erich Schoepner of West Germany announced his retirement from the ring today because of his first professional defeat in an eight-year career and his failure to recapture the European light heavyweight title from Italy's Giulio Rinaldi.

Rinaldi kept Europe's 175-pound crown Thursday night on a 15-round decision over Schoepner before 30,000 wildly cheering fans here in the outdoor Flaminio stadium.

SHOWDOWN

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil—UPI—Defending champion Brazil, after knocking off contender Yugoslavia earlier this week, takes on unbeaten Russia tonight in their showdown battle for the world amateur basketball championship. Both Brazil and Russia are unbeaten through four games, while Yugoslavia has just that one loss to Brazil in four starts of the round-robin final series. The United States defeated Puerto Rico 88-64 Wednesday night but is out of the running for the 1963 title with a 2-2 record.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
by Paul Lea

What was the most exciting single sports event of all-time? . . . A poll of sportswriters once chose the Dempsey-Firpo fight of 1923 . . . That was the fight when Firpo went down nine times in two rounds and Dempsey was down twice including being knocked out of the ring.

Did you know the great race horse Mar O' War ran in 21 races in his career, and finished first 20 times! . . . The only time he failed to win was in the Sanford Stakes at Saratoga in 1919 . . . He finished second in that race . . . And the only horse to ever beat him was named, appropriately, "Upset!"

It seems as though Little League baseball has been around for only a short time . . . Actually, however, did you know that the Little League movement was founded 24 years ago? . . . It was in 1939 that Carl Stotz of Williamsport, Pa., thought of, and started Little League baseball.

I bet you didn't know Paul Lea Motors, Medford's Rambler dealer, has the best crew of service mechanics in all the Rogue River valley to take care of your requirements for any make of car and that you can avail yourself of their service at the lowest price available in the Medford area. Responsibilities of Athletes Outlined at Hedrick Dinner

"You can fool everybody but yourself," Paul Evensen told Hedrick Junior High school students last night. Evensen, head football coach and assistant football and wrestling mentor at Medford High school, was the main speaker at the Hedrick all-sports dinner. His theme was "The Responsibilities of Being an Athlete."

Barney Riggs, head coach at Hedrick, introduced the coaches of the school, Lee V. Ragsdale, Medford school physical education supervisor, introduced Medford Senior High school coaches who were guests. Robert Dames was master of ceremonies.

The responsibility to yourself is the biggest of all," Evensen advised the boys and girls. This responsibility, he said, includes developing one's endowments the greatest amount possible. "Make sure you are physically fit and mentally alert," he remarked, adding that the Boy Scout code is a good one to live by.

Other responsibilities Evensen enumerated were those to ones parents, school, town, coaches and teachers.

The coach spoke of the sacrifices parents make so that their children can take part in athletics and he told the young athletes that their first responsibility is to the home.

"You represent the best of the school," Evensen told the young people. "You have a responsibility to police the halls and to be good leaders." He said that, when the boys go on trips, their town is judged by their actions.

The honored athletes included girls' tennis team members. Attending with the students were their mothers or fathers. The meal was prepared by the mothers under direction of Mrs. Virginia Wicker, cafeteria manager, and served by Future Home-maker girls.

on a pleasure boat—the price tag doesn't always tell the whole story—not by a long shot! All too often, a canny look reveals that many of those attractive features are "optional at extra cost". Nor is it unusual at boat shows to discover that the boat itself is carefully hand-finished for display purposes.

But you'll always find an OMC Boat sailing under its true colors. What you see, you under its true colors. What you see, you get. Complete. Except for gas and oil, there are no extras you have to buy! The careful finish and attention to detail are as much a part of every production model OMC Boat as its exclusive hull design, its uniquely safe and stable ride, its remarkable roominess and comfort.

Your dealer will explain how Outboard Marine planning and production methods enable OMC to offer the "extras" as standard equipment. And the price is much lower than scuttlebutt (or your own eyes) would have you believe. There are five exciting models to choose from. Makes it kind of hard to decide which is for you.
