up is the exciting direction

It's part of our tradition. Up means growth, success, progress. Up means wider perspectives, more potential. Up is exciting.

The strong and the healthy grow—upwards. Like the daily newspaper. Because it is so necessary in the world we live in . . . fills a vital function . . . is the most useful, effective medium of communication . . . for all these reasons the daily newspaper moves up in circulation and in advertising revenue.

Since 1940, daily newspaper circulation has risen from 41 million to more than 60 million, a growth rate almost double that of the adult population in the same years. Newspaper advertising revenue grew from $2 billion in 1949 to more than $3.6 billion in 1961.

Newspapers will keep moving up, staying on top as the advertiser's most effective medium.
