

Tornado Ties For 5th In Track Title Meet; Cavemen Place Third; Myrtle Creek Is A-2 Champion

Oregon State University, Corvallis — Jefferson of Portland, paced by sprint man Leon Lincoln, and Myrtle Creek, led by Ross Barkhurst and Ron Salmon, captured the Oregon Class A-1 and A-2 high school track championship here Saturday.

The Jefferson Democrats, with Lincoln winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes and anchoring the relay team to victory, piled up 46 points to outdistance the second place team by five points.

North Eugene was second with 41, Grants Pass took third with 35, Hillsboro fourth with 26, and Medford and Marshfield tied for fifth with 24.

Myrtle Creek, which last week was noted out by one point for the District 6 crown, totaled 36 points to edge out Central Linn for the A-2 honors. The Central Linn Cobras had 34 points, Reedsport was the third place team with 32, Creswell scored 30, Rogue River 29 and St. Mary's 28.

The placings of Myrtle Creek, Rogue River and St. Mary's gave District 6 three teams among the top six.

Individual honors in the meet were taken by Allen Fowler of Creswell, who scored 30 points with three firsts in the A-2 bracket, and Jefferson's Lincoln, Fowler took both hurdle events in his class and the broad jump, setting a new record of 22-6 1/2 in the broad jump.

Lincoln's dash double and relay anchor gave him 22 points in Class A-1.

Records Fall

In the Class A-1 bracket, two records were broken, as Leon Lincoln ran his 220 pre-lim Friday in 21.6 and equaled the time Saturday. Gary Van Koten of Grants Pass and Mark Henningsgaard of Cottage Grove pole vaulted 13 feet, 7 1/4 inches. Van Koten picked up the first place medal on the strength of fewer misses.

In Class A-2, in addition to Fowler's broad jump record, a new mark was set by the Central Linn relay team with a time of 1:32.2. Gene Faircloth of Reedsport, set a record in the half mile in the prelims Friday with 1:57 flat.

Fowler was the meet's only triple winner, however. Faircloth doubled in A-2 by winning the mile in 4:25.3.

In Class A-1, Bud Walsh of Marshfield won both hurdle events, the highs in 14.7 and the lows in 21.6.

Contributing to Medford's fifth place tie were Mike Diebele, who was second in the 100 in 10 flat and third in the 220 in 22.3; Don Driskell, who was fourth in the high hurdles with 14.9; and Steve Toews, who placed fifth in the half mile in 1:58.6.

For Grants Pass, Van Koten turned in the top effort, but Bob Shepard was second in the low hurdles in 19.9, and third in the 100 in 10.2; Marty Bauer was fifth in the shot put and Theron Bone was sixth in the discus. Grants Pass also took a fourth in the relay.

Crater High gained its 12 points on a second place tie in the broad jump by Paul Brantley.

WHEELING

Watch out for these fantastic spark plug claims that seem to be springing up out of the ground these days. If they were all that they're cracked up to be, they'd be in the late model cars because spark plugs have to develop right along with the engines of automobiles. A spark plug from a ten-year-old car wouldn't last long in one of today's models. They're simply not designed to take the beating of the powerful new ignition systems. The toughest grind for your spark plugs is city driving. This low speed cold operation permits deposits to be built up on the points, thus reducing efficiency. A city-driven car should be taken out on the open road or expressway occasionally and opened up to burn off the points.

For efficiency sake let us check your plugs and points with our friendly expert service. Let CARL'S EASTSIDE SHELL be your safety check and service station. Drive in to 700 E. Main or Phone 772-9017 for FREE Pickup and Delivery.

son with 22-2 1/2 and a fourth place by Gary Berentson in the javelin with 194-10.

Walt Smith of Klamath Falls picked up his team's only points by winning the javelin with 195-3 1/2. This event saw the six place winners all within 25 inches of one another. Dan Zielsdorf of Franklin was just three inches back of Smith. The sixth place throw by Phil Lowery of Lebanon was 192-3 1/2.

Helping Myrtle Creek's A-2 triumph were a first place in the 100 by Ross Barkhurst and a second place in the discus and a winning high jump by Ron Salmon.

Rogue River got its fifth place on the strength of a second in the pole vault by Don Salyer, a second in the mile by Jack Salter, a fourth in the high hurdles by Salyer, who also was sixth in the low hurdles, and a second place by Chris Jones in the 200.

Salyer actually tied for first in the pole vault height of 12-11 1/4 with Don Goertzen of Sutherlin but took second on more misses. Salyer had a 15.3 in the high hurdles and in the low no time was recorded.

Jack Salter ran the mile in 4:26.8 and Jones the 220 in 22.7.

St. Mary's

For St. Mary's points, Jim Calhoun took second in the javelin with 189.3; Jim Webb third in the 100 with 10.2 and fifth in the 220 with 23.2; Jim Reverman fourth in the 440 with 52.2, and Tim Sakrada fourth in the broad jump with 21-1 1/2. The St. Mary's relay team was fourth with 1:34.4.

Eagle Point picked up 14 points on the efforts of Sam Charters, who was second in the high hurdles in 15.1 and third in the low hurdles in 20.1.

For Phoenix High's 12 points, Jon Granby was second in the shot put with 52.9 and Rick Richey was fourth in the javelin with 176-4.

Individual scoring in A-1 after Lincoln's 22 included

Walsh of Marshfield with 20 points, Shepard of Grants Pass with 19, and Diebele of Medford, Wendell Cox of Hillsboro and Dave Wilborn of Albany each with 16.

For A-2 individual honors, after Fowler's 30, Faircloth of Reedsport had 20 and Salyer of Rogue River 13.

Willamette Wins NAIA Golf Tourney; SOC Comes In Last

Salem — With a low score of 603, Willamette university captured the district 2 NAIA golf championship Friday. Portland State had 610, Linfield 639, Lewis and Clark 687, and Southern Oregon 694.

Mike McLaughlin of Willamette turned in the low score of the tournament as he shot a 146 for 36 holes on the par 144 course. Paul Vetsch of Portland followed McLaughlin with a 147.

SOC's Ron Getchell was one stroke down on the leaders Vetsch and Bob Woodie in the first round Friday. Getchell had shot a 73 for the morning round, but met trouble in the second and shot an 80 in the afternoon.

After the tournament the district 2 NAIA all star team was announced. The winners included Mike McLaughlin of Willamette, Paul Vetsch of Portland, Bob Woodie of Willamette, Chuck Arnold of Linfield, Mike O'Toole of Portland, and Ron Getchell of Southern Oregon.

June 4-8 the winning team Willamette will travel to Kansas City to compete in the National NAIA tournament there. Last year Lewis and Clark took home the district 2 NAIA crown, but only sent individuals to the national tournament.
