

Man's Probation Revoked in Court; Others Appear

Ellis LeRoy Cornutt, 20, general delivery, Medford, received a probation revocation Friday in Jackson county circuit court and was sentenced to 2 1/2 years in the Oregon State Correctional institution.

The original suspended execution specified a 3 1/2-year sentence, but it was reduced. Cornutt originally pleaded guilty to charges of concealing stolen property. He violated his probation by driving a motor vehicle and without a license and proper insurance, according to court records.

A pre-sentence report was ordered for Crystal Mae Schroeder, 29, of Issaquah, Wash., who pleaded guilty to charges of burglary not in a dwelling.

Imposition of sentence was suspended on Calvin Bruce Lenz, 18, of route 4, box 321, Medford, who pleaded guilty to charges of taking and using a motor vehicle without authority.

Probation revocation hearing was continued Thursday afternoon on Joseph Alexander DeLorme, 16 of route 2, box 868H, Central Point. Original charge was assault with a dangerous weapon.

Trial date will be set for Frank Hofer Bledsoe, 36, of 2017 Suzana st., Medford, who pleaded innocent to charges of obtaining property by false pretenses.

The case of James R. Underhill, 38, Grants Pass, who is charged with non-support, was continued to May 28 to allow him to obtain an attorney.

Bar Association To Entertain Court

The Jackson County Bar association will entertain members of the Oregon Supreme Court and their wives at a cocktail party and dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club June 8.

The gathering, an annual occasion, offers the two groups an opportunity to discuss matters of interest to the legal profession.

Carl Brophy is president of the Jackson County Bar association, and the plans for the joint meeting are being arranged by a committee headed by A. E. Piazza. Assisting him are Richard Cottle of Ashland and Alan Holmes of Medford.
