

Presbyterian Rites Wed Pair

Central Point—Two hundred guests were present when Miss Nancy Ann McKay and Charles Robert Flanagan were married May 11. Dr. D. Kirkland West performed the double ring ceremony in First Presbyterian church at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McKay, 380 North Fifth street, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Flanagan, North Pacific highway.

Mrs. Ernest Nelson, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Smith and Miss Phyllis Woods.

Lighting the candles were Miss Sally McKay, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Flanagan, Corvallis, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Forrest Cook was best man and ushers were John Flanagan, and George Flanagan Jr., brothers of the bridegroom; Loren Leach; and Larry Brown, Klamath Falls.

Mr. McKay escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Gown of Lace

The bride's gown was designed with Chantilly lace bodice embroidered with pearls, and crystalline skirt with chapel train. A butterfly bow trimmed the skirt, and her bouffant elbow length veil was held by crystalline flowers. Her diamond necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of white roses.

The attendants were gowned in French blue crystalline frocks with net insertions and bell skirts, and they wore matching veils. The honor attendant carried pink carnations and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of white carnations.

Baskets of white stock decorated the altar and blue and white ribbons marked the pew ends.

Miss Cheryl Ghelardi sang the wedding songs accompanied by Mrs. Norman Thames.

Aunts Serve

The reception given by the bride's parents was in the Fellowship hall. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Edwin Isler, Stockton, Calif., Mrs. John Summerfield and Mrs. John McQuade, served the coffee and the wedding cake. Mrs. Rome Atkins poured punch and Miss Sharon Thompson had charge of the guest book.

The reception room was decorated in blue and white, and pink carnations centered the bride's table.

The bride had designed her gown and veil and the attendants' dresses and headpieces.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a peacock blue shantung dress with beige accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a rose flowered silk jacket dress with pink accessories. Both had white orchid corsages.

Travel South

The couple is living on Beall lane, Medford, following their wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel-by-the-Sea. The bride's travel attire was an apple green shantung dress with green and beige accessories.

The bride attended Crater High school and has been employed as a beautician at the House of Beauty. The bridegroom, who is employed by Elk Lumber company, attended Medford schools.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. Isler and daughter, Judy, Stockton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stobbs, Enumclaw, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Flanagan, Olympia, Wash., aunts and uncles of the bridegroom; David Flanagan, Olympia, a cousin, and Mrs. Irvin Schultz, Albany, Ore., an aunt of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. George Flanagan were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at their home.

Pre-wedding events for the bride were showers given by Mrs. West in her home on Military road, and a shower for which Miss Wanda Smith was hostess in the home of Mrs. Elmer Greer.

Mrs. Charles Gilbert Dean is the former Jeanne Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Dean-Smith Rites Held In California Church

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert Dean are making their home in Grants Pass following a wedding trip along the California and Oregon coasts.

Their wedding was an event of May 4 at St. David's Catholic church in Richmond, Calif. at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. John O'Halloran officiated at the ceremony and nuptial mass which followed.

Blue and white carnations decorated the altar for the ceremony, attended by 75 relatives and friends.

The bride is the former Jeanne Elizabeth Smith, Richmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith, Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. Dean, is the son of Mrs. A. Z. Dean, 200 Valley View drive, Medford, and the late Mr. Dean. He attended Medford High school and Oregon State university where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Bride Wears Satin

The bride wore an ice blue satin sheath frock with panel train. Her mantilla veil was of light blue silk lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white lilies. O. L. Smith escorted his sister to the altar.

Mrs. Stanley Gabel was matron of honor and the other attendants were Miss Maxine Solich and Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, Medford, sister of the bridegroom. They wore dresses of pastel shades of blue satin with light blue silk lace overblouses. Their headresses were blue satin bands and they carried white carnations.

Stanley Gabel served as best man. Seating the guests were Gordon E. Williams, Medford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Harlan C. Bryant, Grants Pass.

For the ceremony and buffet luncheon which followed, Mrs. Dean chose a gold colored suit with black silk accessories and white hat. Her corsage was of gold colored rosebuds.

Luncheon Given

A wedding luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Smith at the Don hotel in Richmond. The wedding cake was cut with a silver knife originally owned by Mrs. C. E. Gates, Medford, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Harlan C. Bryant, Grants Pass, and Miss Gloria Dyke, Richmond. Mrs. Gordon E. Williams, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a light blue wool suit with gray fox collar and black accessories.

The bride attended Ft. Wayne, Ind., school. Mr. Dean is employed by United Engine Parts in Grants Pass. He formerly was with Traveler's Insurance company.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. George E. Gates, aunt of the bridegroom; Miss Lynn Taylor and Scott Taylor, cousins; Robert C. Taylor, his brother-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. David Shaffer, and Bruce Shaffer, all Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gates, Ashland, cousins, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard White, Phoenix.

Ashland Water Carnival Queen Contest Is Open

Ashland—Entries are open for the Ashland Water Carnival queen and young unmarried women between the ages of 16 and 21 are invited to register as candidates, according to Bill Williams, chairman of the event.

The carnival is set for June 22 and 23.

Candidates must register by May 31 at the Ashland Chamber of Commerce office on the Plaza, the chairman explained. Participants are to have water skiing ability but are not expected to qualify as experts.

A queen and two princesses will be selected. The queen and her court will reign for the week end festivities in Ashland and at the carnival Sunday on Emigrant lake. The queen is to open the program on water skis.

Boating enthusiasts and visitors are expected from many areas in Oregon and northern California. Admission will be without charge and entertainment and refreshments will be varied. Ashland merchants are furnishing prizes for the carnival.

It is hoped to make the event an annual attraction.

Miss Karen Wood and Miss Linda Weber, Ashland High school senior students, are early contestants in the queen contest.
