New Trophy Announced For Coming Rose Show

The Peterson and Dering company's permanent possession rose trophy will be one of the sought after prizes to be won at the Medford Rose society rose show June 8 in the Jackson county courthouse auditorium.

The trophy is being offered in various cities in Washington and Montana and in Oregon, not only in Medford but also Corvallis, Eugene, Grants Pass, Portland, Roseburg and Salem.

An exhibitor need not be a member of the rose society to be eligible to compete in the contest for this trophy but entries must be confined to competition between varieties originated by the company.

Often it is an amateur of little experience who wins such valuable trophies and honors at shows, officers explain.

Roses which are eligible for the trophy at the show this spring are Helene Schoen, Morocco, Polonaise, Honey Favorite, Legendary, Memoriam, Pink Spice, Amarillo, Ebb Tide, Pastel High Esteem, White Prince, among hybrid tea roses, Gov. Mark Hatfield, Jantzen Girl, Paul Bunyan and Trojan are variety names in the grandiflora class.

Bambi, Golden Lace, Indian Gold, Aca pulco, Autumn Hues, Golden Slippers, Arpeggio and Ivory Triumph, are those in the floribunda class.

The rose show will offer this trophy in the class for the best vase of 12 roses, no more than two roses of the same variety.

In a second class for floribunda roses only an award of $15 will be awarded for the best vase of six roses in one vase, with no more than two roses of one variety.

Printed rose show schedules became available May 25 and can be obtained in Medford at the courthouse information desk, Lawrence's Jewelry store, and at Elton's Farm and Garden store.

Members of the Rose society may obtain their Monday evening May 27 at 7:45 p.m. at their meeting in the courthouse auditorium. All interested rose lovers are invited.

A small rose show planned for the meeting may not be possible because of the shortage of roses in bloom by the date, Mrs. Gaston Floux, program chairman, has announced. However, she has asked members who have roses in bloom to take them so they can be discussed with the various points of grooming and states of development.

Mrs. Philip B. Lowry (at left) was a past president of the club. The tea table centerpiece arranged by Mrs. R. A. Miksche of white allium, or Neapolitan onion, in a crystal container proved to be a conversation piece during the party. Mrs. Miksche also arranged the buffet decoration of large white iris. Foreign and American Students, Zonta Guests Scholarship students, together with foreign and American Field Service Exchange students, were guests of Medford Zonta club at their dinner meeting held at The Town House May 23.

Each year the Medford Zonta club sponsors a full tuition scholarship to Southern Oregon college and a one-half scholarship to Junior Engineer Scientist Summer Institute (JESSI), at Wilamette university.

Miss Joe Kirtley introduced the girls. Recipients of the scholarships are Leslie Van Gordon to Southern Oregon college and Bonnie Brindley to JESSI. Each girl thanked the club for her scholarship and outlined her plans for the future.

Miss Nik Yahya, American Field Service student from Malaya, told about the procedure for getting her scholarship to the United States and compared the school methods in Malaya to the Medford school. She stated she had thoroughly enjoyed her school year and valued it as an experience of a lifetime. She plans to return to her home, finish her education and hopes to become either a teacher or lawyer.

Miss Mieko Hayashi, a high school graduate from Japan, was brought here by the Dr. J. P. Bray family to study for one year. She also compared the methods of the two schools highlighting with some of her experiences here.

Mrs. Florence Bolton had as her guests Grace Cornelius and Christel Niereleisch. Christel graduated from Berlin High school this spring and her trip to America was a graduation present from the Corneliuses. She told about her school and compared the free and easy feeling one has in America to the tenseness one has in Berlin. She felt she had been very fortunate in having been allowed to attend the school for the children of American servicemen in Berlin.

A question and answer period was held after the talks.

Mrs. June L. Hundley, of the Hundley Journal Print shop, is a new member.

Mrs. Bolton closed the meeting by reading the prayer that was taped by Astronaut Gordon Cooper.

Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, (right) was hostess for the annual spring tea of the Jackson County unit, Oregon Federation of Women's Republican clubs, at the Carpenter home, Toppides, last Monday afternoon.
