Two Ministers Officiate At Graham-Davis Rites

Central Point — Two ministers officiated at the ceremony which married Miss Wanda Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Davis, 230 Gibbon road, Central Point, to Edward E. Graham, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham, Cottage Grove. The rites were held May 4 at Medford Friends church.

The Rev. Sheldon Hawes, Portland, minister of Gateway Baptist church, was assisted by the Rev. Kenton Adams, of Forest Acres Community church, at the 3 o'clock afternoon wedding. The double ring rites were attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Clayton Graef, Alameda, Calif., was organist and accompanied Mrs. Stanford Lind, Portland, soloist. The church was decorated with coral pink and white roses and white candles.

Bible Is Gift
The bride wore an ankle length frock of Chantilly lace over net and satin. Her fingertip length veil was held by a rhinestone crown and she carried white carnations on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom. Mr. Davis escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Roy Jenkins, Medford, was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Mrs. Ray Keener, Davis, Calif.; and Mrs. Sue Meyer, Vancouver, British Columbia.

Teri Lynn Jenkins, Medford, was flower girl for her aunt, and Michael Wood, Portland, was ring bearer.

The attendants wore aquamarine satin frocks with white veil hats accented with coral trim. Mrs. Jenkins carried white carnations and the others carried coral carnations on white Bibles. The flower girl was in pink.

Light Candles
Candlelighters were Miss Sharon Terry and Miss Beverly Long, both Portland. Their frocks were of aquamarine satin and their flowers were coral carnations.

Jack H. Wood, Portland, served as best man. Seating the guests were Eric Olson, Richard Hyde, both Portland, and Stephen Davis, Central Point, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed in the reception room at the church, Mrs. Davis chose a gold suit with white accessories and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Graham was unable to attend due to illness.

Mrs. Garland Shinn, Gold Hill, and Mrs. Kenton Adams were in charge of the reception. Mrs. Donald Denman cut and served the wedding cake she had made. She was assisted by Miss Vicki Farrell, Miss Ruby Laws and Mrs. Ada Adams poured coffee and Miss Pat Goltz and Miss Donna Abston, Grants Pass, presided at the punch bowls. Miss Glenda Brown, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., was in charge of the guest book and Miss Josephine Jones was at the gift table.

Group Holds Initiation

Omicron chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa recently held initiation at the Medford hotel. In the ceremony three teachers, Mrs. Mildred Bevis, Mrs. Dawn Gwaltney, and Mrs. Florence Jones were initiated into the honor group. The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Eleanor Briggs, Mrs. Pearl Farnsworth, Mrs. Suzanne Shultz and Mrs. Pat Colley.

Mrs. Virginia Ferguson and Mrs. Jane Snodgrass were co-chairmen for the banquet which proceeded the initiation ceremony. Banquet tables were decorated with yellow and lavender spring flowers.

The three initiates entertained the group with a humorous vaudeville skit.

State convention reports were presented by members attending the meeting in Eugene in April. Mrs. Eleanor Briggs reported on the executive committee meetings. Mrs. Ruth Hockersmith told of budget findings at the state level. The resolutions committee was attended by Mrs. Farnsworth and Mrs. Charlotte Sweet told of membership plans. Mrs. Ella Elle and Mrs. Kathryn Larson reported that the statewide altruistic program for the next year will be aid to the Good Ship Hope.

Recipients of the chapter's grant-in-aid were announced. Three Southern Oregon college seniors, Miss Wendy Johnson, Miss Joan Isham, and Neil Philliber will receive the awards this year. Miss Johnson and Miss Isham both plan to be teachers. Mr. Philliber will graduate in general studies.

The final meeting this spring will be held June 10 at the home of Mrs. Barbara Hanel. It will be an informal planning session.

Ashland-Mrs. Irving Lord and Mrs. Julian Battaille, president and vice president of the Ashland provisional unit, Oregon League of Women Voters, attended the state convention held recently at the Sheraton hotel, Portland.
