

Rogue River High Students Honored For Achievements

Rogue River - Graduating seniors of Rogue River High school were honored for achievements at an assembly recently.

Receiving gold cords in recognition of scholastic honors were Becky Irwin, Beverly Allison, Jacquelyn Nixon, Florence Oliver, Bill Cooper and Arlene Webb.

Chris Jones received the outstanding citizenship award and Jack Salter, athletic award along with a lifetime pass for athletic events at Rogue River.

Other awards were received by Becky Irwin and Beverly Allison, Underwood awards in business and shorthand; Beverly Allison, Becky Irwin and Joanne Vancey, Gregg shorthand awards, superior work in shorthand for having sustained rates of more than 90 words per minute; Becky Irwin, Crisco award for best in homemaking.

State Scholarships were given to Beverly Allison, full tuition fee for elementary education; Bill Cooper and Florence Oliver, two-thirds fees for tuition to Southern Oregon college; Elk Lumber company scholarship to Becky Irwin and honors at entrance to Lewis and Clark college.

Bob Raigosa received a certificate of achievement from Veterans of Foreign Wars for his speech given in the Voice of Democracy program.

A freshman, Judy Badley, received a $5 certificate for her black and white poster entered in the Knights of Pythias poster contest.

Classes ended at the Rogue River schools Friday and teachers' work day will be Monday, May 27. Students will receive report cards, turn in books and school property Tuesday, May 28. Bus schedules will be as usual that morning, with the return trip at 10:30 a.m., school officials said.

Warning Issued On Liquidators

Bulletins advertising merchandise from bankruptcies, liquidations and estates, flooding this area through the mails, has drawn a warning from Don McNeil, manager of the Medford Chamber of Commerce.

The warning dealt specifically with "Allied Liquidators, Los Angeles," and "Federal Liquidators, 1520 North Highland ave., Los Angeles," he said.

With a warning from the Portland Better Business Bureau, McNeil pointed out that Allied Liquidators and Federal Liquidators are apparently companion firms with a Larry Stein associated with both.

The form letter reaching Portland claims the company is to liquidate 1,720 six transistor radios. The list price for this item is quoted as $41.50 with a liquidation price of $15. Also offered are some 947 portable tape recorders, listed at $69.50 with a liquidation price of $26.50.

The Los Angeles Better Business Bureau reports that it has been informed by an International Mail Order and Exporting-Import firm that the items are landed in this country duty paid, insurance paid, freight paid for approximately $8.87. Yet in the Allied Liquidators brochure that advertise this $15 price as "below manufacturer's original cost."

Day Camp Activities Are Being Planned

The YMCA Day Camp on the Applegate near Ruch will be the scene of planned activities from June 17 through July 6.

There will be three one-week periods of Day Camping arranged during that time, and the program for first and second grade boys is now well under way, according to the Medford YMCA.

From Monday through Thursday of each week the boys will camp out during the daylight hours. On Friday, night encampments will be added with fathers joining counselors in the activities. All will return to the Medford YMCA Saturday noon.

High school boys are now being selected and trained as counselors for the camp. There will be one counselor for every seven boys.

The program will include building campsites, hiking, fishing, games, crafts and swimming.

All parents of first and second grade boys, interested in including them in the camp program, are asked to call 772-6295 for more information. Fred O. Sapp, Jr., is the day camp director.
