

Muffs Foul Up Cards, Giants; Dodgers Down San Francisco

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Three butter-fingered ballplayers sure messed up the National League race on Sunday.

The culprits were shortstop Jose Pagan of the San Francisco Giants and outfielder Duke Carmel and pitcher Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals, but before climbing all over them or suggesting they sell their gloves, be advised they ordinarily do a fine job on defense.

Not Sunday, though Pagan committed three errors and his last one in the 10th inning enabled the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers to beat the first-place Giants, 4-3, and slice their league lead to two games.

Carmel and Gibson each made errors during the 11th inning of a nightcap against the New York Mets, helping Casey Stengel's crew snap a seven-game losing streak and defeat the third-place Cardinals for the first time this season, 3-2. The Cards won the opener, 7-4.

It was a miserable day all around for Pagan, who went hitless at the plate, set up one Dodger run with a wild throw in the fourth inning and let in the tying run with another bad peg in the seventh.

With Don Larsen pitching in the 10th, Jim Gilliam bounced a routine grounder to Pagan, who then threw wild again, allowing Gilliam to go all the way to second from where he scored the winning run on Tommy Davis' single.

Winner Don Drysdale 6-4 gave up eight hits, including solo homers by Jim Davenport and Felipe Alou.

In the Mets-Cards nightcap, Carmel, who had replaced left-fielder Stan Musiel in the 10th muffed Charley Neal's 11th inning fly for a two-base error, Chico Fernandez then bunted toward the mound and Gibson fired wildly past first base for another two-base error that scored Neal with the winning run.

The defeat cost the Cardinals a chance to move within 3½ games of first place after they beat the Mets in the opener on a three-run homer by pinch hitter Charlie James in the eighth inning. St. Louis bombed four of five Met pitchers for 16 hits, including five by Ken Boyer and four by Bill White.

Phils Win Pair
In other National League games the Philadelphia Phillies swept a twin-bill from the Cincinnati Reds 10-4 and 3-0; the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 5-2, in 11 innings, and the Chicago Cubs downed the Houston Astros, 5-1.

Fans Twelve
Ray Culp, a 21-year-old bonus rookie pitcher who received $100,000 for signing, and 36-year-old veteran Roy Sievers, who was given only a new pair of baseball shoes for signing his first major league contract, were the standouts in the Phillies' sweep of the Reds.

Culp struck out 12 batters and set down the Reds on three hits in recording his fifth victory in the nightcap while Sievers delivered a pinch grand slam homer in the eighth inning to clinch the opener. The grand slam was the 10th of Sievers' career, tying him with Cleveland's Joe Adcock for top spot among the active players.

Joey Jay suffered his eighth loss against one victory in the second game.

Bob Bailey's three-run homer off loser Frank Funk in the 11th inning powered the Pirates to their victory over the Braves after Bill Mazeroski's ninth inning homer had tied the score at 2-all. Al Mc-

Bean, fourth of five Pirate pitchers, was credited with his fifth victory. Bob Clemente also homered for Pittsburgh.

Home runs by Ron Santo and Ken Hubbs paced the Cubs to victory over the Colts. Santo's sixth homer in the fifth inning with one man on sent loser Dick Drott to the showers and Hubbs belted his fourth home in the seventh off Don McMahon. Bob Buhl allowed eight hits in recording his third victory and first since April 28.

Wasco High Victor Over Butte Falls

Maupin - Wasco County High school advanced to the Oregon Class B baseball semifinals last Friday with an 8 to 2 win over Butte Falls here.

Wasco pitcher Poetz held the Loggers to one hit which came in the first inning when Butte Falls got its only runs. The Red sides put over four of their markers in the fourth inning on three errors and singles by Poetz and Snodgrass.

Dan Edmondson singled for the lone BF safety. It was put with two hit batters and an error for the runs. Mellum got three hits for Wasco.

Poetz struck out batters nine times and issued one base on balls. Neal Ellis, Butte Falls chucker, whiffed five and walked two.

PSC Gains NAIA Toga

Salem - UP - Al Raschio scattered nine hits as Portland State edged Linfield 2-1 to gain its second straight NAIA District 2 baseball championship Saturday.

The Vikings topped the Wildcats 81 here Friday in the first game of the best-of-three contest series.

But Portland State, which finished second in the NAIA national tournament last year after winning the district title, won't get to go to the national playoffs this season.

California Western was chosen to represent the Pacific Coast in this year's NAIA national tourney at St. Joseph, Mo.

Man Seriously Hurt In Week End Crash

Clyde Wilder, of 3560 Jerome Prairie rd., Grants Pass, was reported in serious condition at Sacred Heart hospital this morning as a result of injuries received in an accident late Saturday night.

Wilder was hurt in a collision involving the motorcycle he was riding, a motor scooter driven by George Hodges, 816 Taylor st., Ashland, and a station wagon operated by Lewis Maurer, 1440 Clay st., Ashland.

The accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m. at the intersection of Highway 199 and Helms rd., southwest of Grants Pass.

The nature of Wilder's injuries was not disclosed. He was taken first to Josephine General hospital and then to Sacred Heart.

Ashland police reported a collision in their city at 7:10 p.m. Sunday involving cars driven by Patricia Lorraine Lovett, 20, of 437 Morton st., Ashland, and Mary Lee Paschke, 26, of 363 Neil Creek rd., Ashland.

The cars collided at Morton and Iowa st., according to police.

Miss Lovett was treated at Ashland Community hospital for a cut lip.

San Diego Captures Doublebill in PCL

By RON SUPINSKI
United Press International

Call it savy or savior faire, but route - going pitchers are becoming commonplace in the Pacific Coast league while separating the boys from the ballplayers.

No one felt the impact of the "Full - routers" more yesterday than Hawaii and Salt Lake City, both last place teams in the northern and southern division.

Eight pitchers hurled complete games yesterday in the triple - A loop and five of them won their ball games. Scott Breeden and Ted Wills each went the route for San Diego in the Padres' 11-2, and 4-1 twin conquests of Hawaii, making the Cincinnati farm club the winningest team in the league with 26 victories.

Padres Score Early
Hawaii's Fred Newman matched Wills' distance stint in the nightcap which was settled by San Diego's three-run spurge in the first inning and Art Shamsky's insurance four - master two innings later.

In other contests, pitchers Connie Grob (2-5) and Dave Giusti (4-3) of Oklahoma City hurled complete games in Sending Salt Lake to its 10th defeat in a row 5-0, 6-3; Lou Klimchok's 10th - inning homer gave Denver an 11-8 win over Dallas - Ft. Worth but the Texans captured the opener 13-7; Seattle scored all its runs in one inning for a 5-2 victory over Tacoma after the Giants nipped Seattle 3-2 in the opener, and Spokane edged Portland 3-1 after losing 11-3.

Other route - going pitchers were Bob Heffner of Seattle who lost to Tacoma by one run that scored when the Rainiers failed to complete a double play with the bases loaded.

Seattle's Pete Smith came back in the seventh-inning nightcap to beat the Giants with no relief help. The Rainiers tallied all five of their runs in the third on singles by Dalton Jones, Dave Hall, Archie Skeen and Russ Gibson, plus doubles by Bobby Gene Smith and Ji Rivera, and Billy Harrell's triple.

Bob Flynn pitched all seven innings for Portland in its second - game loss to Spokane. Norm Koeh opposed him and became Spokane's winning pitcher (5-2), though needing help from reliever Ken Rowe in the sixth. Dick Green's three-run homer and six doubles by his teammates helped Portland to its easy first-game win.

Two bases - empty home runs by Oklahoma City catcher Hal Smith paved the way for Giusti's five - hit shutout of Salt Lake in the opener. In the other game, Grob swatted eight Bee hits and weathered a three - run fourth inning to get the victory.

San Diego's sweep of the Islanders was the first double-header won by the defending PCL champions this season.

Padre catcher Jim Saul hit a bases - loaded home run in the opener. Shamsky, who hit a home run in each game, poled a two - run blast off ace Hawaii reliever Hugh Pepper in the first game. Shamsky now has eight round-trippers.

Eight home runs were hit in the two slugfests between Dallas - Ft. Worth and Denver. In addition to Klimchok's mighty 420-foot three-run wallop, Tommy Aaron socked his fifth and sixth four baggers, Ray Withrow of Denver and Cesar Tovar of the Rangers each belted two - run homers while Ray Jablonski and George Banks had solo shots for Dallas - Ft. Worth and Jim McKnight a bases-empty poke for the Bears.

Fred Thomas Paces Raiders To Triumph in NAIA Track

McColloch Stadium, Salem-Southern Oregon College trackman Fred Thomas scored handsily to bring the Red Raiders their second NAIA championship in the District 2 meet in Salem, Saturday.

Contending in five events, Thomas scored 25 points, almost one-fourth of SOC's 107 total points.

The second place team was Lewis and Clark with 78 points followed by Portland State with 63. Pacific university ended nil of the running with 41. Willamette with 23 and Oregon College of Education with 11.

Thomas, high point man for the Raiders, set a new triple jump record of 45-5, shattering his old record by 1-4½. Another first was won by Thomas when he stretched 22-8½ in the broad jump.

His other points were gained as he came in second in the 100-yard dash, in third in the 220 and in fifth on the high jump.

Other trackmen topling the nine district records that fell during the meet were also outstanding. Steve Curtis, Portland's weight man, sailed the javelin 217 feet to top the old record of 215½ feet. Don Aaberger, runner from Lewis and Clark, crossed the 880 line in 1:54.0, while Doug Manning from Pacific ran the 220 in 21.6, Pacific won the mile relay, lowering the record from 3:21.8 to 3:20.8. Spike Gordon from SOC tied the existing pole vault record with a 14-foot ½-inch jump.

The closest race of the day came in the 100-yard dash where Thomas, Manning and Branson of the Red Raiders came in almost abreast. All three runners were credited with 0.8 seconds with Manning leading second place Thomas by inches.

Following the meet, Fred Thomas was among 13 other trackmen selected to represent the district in the NAIA national meet in Sioux Falls, S. D.

Joining Thomas on the trip will be Spike Gordon and Mike Hanby, SOC pole vaulters, Ken Patena, PSC weight man, Don McMillan, PSC distance runner, Steve Curtis, PSC javelin thrower, Phil White, PSC high jumper, Don Aaberger, LC half-miler, Wayne Ficken, LS discus thrower, Bill White, SOC hurdler, Autry Joslin, OCE hurdler, and Daug Manning, Pacific sprinter.

Standards' Revision To Be Heard June 24

Salem - Revision of standards for fresh produce will be considered at a hearing set by the Oregon department of agriculture for Monday, June 24.

The hearing will start at 9 a.m. and will be in the conference room at the Department of Agriculture Building, Salem.

The department proposes to revise certain obsolete standards and bring them up to date for use of the inspection service and produce handlers. It also proposes the repealing of separate Oregon standards for containers.

FLEXIBILITY!

The Daily Newspaper Is the Flexible Medium for Pinning Down Sales

Newspapers don't tie up the advertiser with rigid time schedules or space limitations that weaken the impact and effectiveness of his message. Newspapers offer creative and physical flexibility. An advertiser can use a two-page spread to tell a detailed story or he can use a smaller space to say what he wants in fewer words, depending on his budget and his strategy. The physical flexibility of newspapers means ads can be scheduled quickly to take care of sudden selling opportunities. The daily newspaper is flexible enough to fit any advertising strategy.
