St. Mary's High

Mary Ann Carnegie, Editor; Mary Carol Leavens, Reporter

The 37 members of the senior class spent the day on the bench at Brookings recently. The trip was made by chartered bus after a special Mass at 6 a.m. The Rev. Gilbert Lulay accompanied the students on the bus. Mrs. David Lowry, Mrs. Harold Evans, Mrs. Floyd Harland, and Mrs. Jack Van Dyck also were chaperons.

Mike Soran defeated Jeff Randolph in the race for Student Body presidency recently. John Batzer was his campaign manager. Mike Latendresse won the office of student body vice president by defeating Ron Roberts. His campaign manager was Annette Burich.

Pat Fellers clinched the position of student body secretary by defeating foes Tara Hill and Marlene Nougier. Campaigning for her was Mary Ann Carnegie.

Fresh John Renshaw took over the office of student body treasurer by overcoming opponents Ted Scott and Steve Clark. Joseph Marlin acted as his campaign manager.

Attaining the office of Sodality prefect was this year's sophomore class president, Martha Fitzpatrick. Her opponents were Kristine Laubacher and Pat Naumes, and her campaign manager was Mary Walsh. Also included on the election ballot were candidates for next year's yell queen. Mary Walsh defeated Kathy Zapell for this title.

The voting, which took place in the art room, was preceded by campaign speeches by the candidates and their campaign managers. The tallying of votes was open to the entire student body.

The Right Rev. Monsignor E. J. Murnane was guest speaker at a program presented by the Marian Choir for the graduating students of the public high school religion classes. Awards were presented by the Rev. John Mai to the graduates and to those receiving special honors. Afterward there was a party in the Knights of Columbus hall for the guests, choir, and parents who wished to attend.

Students from American Problems and World History classes attended a closed television program concerning "Financial Problems of the UN."

Elections for the presidents and vice presidents of various classes and clubs were held the week of May 20. Juniors elected Jeff Randolph as next year's senior class president, and Mike Hutchinson as vice president. Sophomores John Batzer and Steve Nelson are next year's junior president and vice president, respectively. Freshmen elected Bill Reverman as sophomore president for next year, and Jim Reverman as vice president.

Heading clubs will be Annette Burich, National Honor Society; Judy Dunlevy, Pep club; and Doug Vakoc, Lettermen.
