Dryfoos Funeral Held in New York

New York - (AP) - Funeral services were held today for Orville E. Dryfoos, president and publisher of the New York Times. He died Saturday of a heart ailment.

Dryfoos, 50, became president of the Times in 1957 and was named publisher in 1961 when his father-in-law, Arthur Hayes Sulzberger, retired. Dryfoos was one of American journalism's "most distinguished figures," President Kennedy said on learning of his death. "Mr. Dryfoos will be sorely missed by those who knew and admired his integrity, courage and his devotion to journalistic truth," the chief executive said.
