Thunderstorms, Tornadoes Batter Midwest States

By United Press International

Thunderstorms rumbled up the Ohio River Valley today after a night of tornadoes. Hail battered parts of the Midwest and plains while rain soaked much of the nation from the Rockies to the southland.

Nearly 1½ inches of rain fell across northwestern Louisiana, central Alabama and Western Ohio in six hours during the night.

At least two unconfirmed twisters tore across western Ohio, smashing homes and ripping up power lines. No injuries were reported.

Much of rural Darke county in Ohio was without electric power.

Roofs Torn Off

An apparent twister tore a one-mile swath through the countryside about five miles west of Greenville, Ohio. Roofs were torn from three homes, two barns were flattened and other buildings damaged.

The roof was ripped from a farm house near Gettysburg, Ohio, and outbuildings were demolished.

Hail 2½ inches in diameter pumeled an area five miles north of San Antonio, Tex., and 60 mile an hour winds slapped golf ball size hailstones at Stonewall, Tex.

A bolt of lightning cracked from a thunderstorm over Moberly, Mo., and started a major fire raging out of control. Nearby towns sent fire equipment as the flames spread to at least three downtown stores.

Rusk Urged To Seek Fishing Assurance

Washington — (UPI) — A Washington state congressman today urged Secretary of State Dean Rusk to conduct "immediate and close consultations" with Canada to assure that U.S. fishermen would not be excluded by a Canadian 12-mile fishing limit.

Rep. Jack Westlund (R-Wash.) said a Canadian 12-mile limit would threaten American fishermen who currently take their catch from Puget Sound.

Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson told President Kennedy at Hyannis Port earlier this month that Canada intended to declare a 12-mile fisheries limit instead of its current 3-mile limit. But Pearson said his government would respect historic and treaty rights of other nations.

Federal Suit Filed Against Redmond Man

Portland — (UPI) — The government has filed an action in Federal Court here seeking judgment of $7,000 from Walter E. Wing, Redmond livestock dealer.

Assistant U.S. Atty. Victor E. Harr said the government claims Wing operated as a dealer on 14 different days without furnishing a reasonable bond. He said the action was taken under the Packers and Stockyards act of 1921.
