Hope Studio Plans Review
 Students of the Colleen Hope Dance studio will present a musical, "Side Walks of New York" at the Holly theater Friday night May 31. About 200 youngsters from the Medford, Ashland, Central Point and Eagle Point studios will take part.

Through the medium of tap, acrobatic, ballet and jazz dancing, gay songs and brightly colored costumes they will conduct the audience along the streets of New York from early morning when the milkman starts his rounds until late at night when the mobsters take over, Miss Hope reports.

Miss Hope directs the entire production with the assistance of Miss Louise Lull, who teaches the Central Point and Eagle Point students, and Sidney Yarnell, who assists at the Medford and Ashland studios. Mrs. Katherine Scott has assisted with the ballet numbers. Mr. Yarnell is in charge of the scenery. Costumes were designed by Miss Hope, assisted by Mrs. Janith Gleaves.

Doors of the theater will open at 7 p.m. with the dance review starting at 7:30 p.m. The dance program will be followed by a full-length movie "A Thousand and One Arabian Nights."

This review concludes the winter schedule of classes at the Hope studio. Summer classes will start June 10.

Women's Fellowship Elects New Officers
 Hornbrook - Mrs. Wayne Cummins was hostess at her home last Thursday for a meeting of the Christian Women's Community Fellowship of the local Methodist church.

The Rev. Carl Nylund was present and conducted a lesson in the series of studies being made on the book of Romans. A business meeting followed, during which the annual election of officers was held.

The entire corps of officers which served the group last year was re-elected unanimously. They are president, Mrs. E. E. Adams; vice-president, Mrs. Bertha Bradley; secretary, Mrs. Ardon Burns.

Installation of officers will be held at the next meeting, June 13, at the church. Mrs. Mary Taggart will be hostess. A bake sale has been scheduled by the society for Saturday, June 15, at the T. Jones store.

Do you have an interesting, meaningful name for an abstract painting? The abstract oil shown (lower left) is the joint effort of several members of an oil painting class which has been meeting at the Senior Activity center and was on display at the Senior Activity center and was on display at the Senior annual open house held last Sunday. Mrs. Gene Williams, painted a portion of the picture and several colors of varying hues were used. The results are actually interesting, clay sculpture and knitting at the center, took charge of collecting the names which were submitted during the open house.

Fluhrer's Sunbeam Tenderly Curled Soft... Fresh

CURLING MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!

Here's the Tenderly Curled loaf ready for the oven. An extra step in baking gives the familiar fine Sunbeam recipe a final curling flip to squeeze out air pockets.

Ordinary uncurled slice at left lets air pass through to speed staling and drying out. The curled slice has finer, smoother texture, with no holes to let air rob flavor.
