

Pendleton Tips Medford 1-0 In A-1 Baseball Semifinal

Pendleton — Steve Bunker hurled 12 - strikeout, one-hit ball and belted home the only run here last night when the Pendleton high Buckaroos nosed the Medford Black Tornado 1 to 0 to gain the finals in the A-1 baseball championship.

The victory sends the Bucks against Madison in the title game at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Memorial day, at Multnomah stadium.

Last night's lone marker came in the fourth inning after one out. Jack Baird became the first player to reach the base paths. He drew a base on balls off Medford starting tosser Jack Forde. Tim Temple drilled the ball to left field for the game's first hit. Then Bunker singled to right field to send home Baird.

Neathamer Singles

Bunker, who gave up free passes, pitched six innings of hitless ball. Mike Neathamer, only Medfordite to get on base by a batted ball, spoiled the no-hit try by Bunker with a sharp ground single through the middle with one out in the seventh. Neathamer was safe on an error in the fifth frame.

It was three up and three down baseball for both teams during the first three innings. And in the top of the fourth, three Medford batters again were retired in order.

Pendleton, with only two hits off Medford chuekers, threatened only once outside its scoring inning. That was in the fifth panel when Wayne Stone and Jim Rhode were walked by relief pitcher Bill Enyart with none out. Clarence Cowapoo, attempting a sacrifice bunt forced out Stone. Enyart started to pitch to Gary Wilkinson then Coach John Kovenz sent Stu Young to the hill. Wilkinson was fanned and Medford catcher Mike Barnes threw out Rhode, who was trying to go to third base, for a double play.

Tornado Bids
Medford bid in the sixth inning with the aid of bases on balls and in the seventh with the help of Neathamer's hit. In the sixth, Don Anderson drew a walk, went to second base on a balk and was pushed to third by Young's ground-out. Mike Barnes walked and swiped second base. But, Bunker whiffed Dick Deffley for the third out.

In the seventh Neathamer got his hit after Miles had fanned. A wild pitch and a passed ball enabled Neathamer to reach third sack. Bunker then struckout Darryl Stockton and Gary Miller to end the game.

In addition to giving up the hits and the run Forde struck out one batter and walked one. Enyart issued two bases on balls and Young registered three strikeouts.

"Young can't win if you don't get any hits," Coach John Kovenz declared after the game. "Defensively, we played tremendous ball. There was nothing wrong with our pitching."

Kovenz credited outfielder Neathamer, on a fly ball catch, and second baseman Deffley, on a ground ball stop with "major league" fielding efforts and said that shortstop Miles made some nice plays.

The Black Tornado came up with two double plays. First baseman Anderson caught a deep fly in the fourth inning and fired to catcher Barnes to nail a Buck runner trying to come home. In the fifth inning Barnes fired to third baseman Ron Edmonds after a strikeout to catch a runner coming from second.

Pendleton now stands 23-9 for the season and Medford finished 18-5. The Black Tornado was to start for him this morning.

Pendleton and Madison will vie in the finale of an afternoon championship triple-bill. Wasco County and Crow meet at 1:30 p.m. at Multnomah stadium for the Class B title. At 3:30 p.m. Bandoh faces McKenzie for the A-2 mantle.

Wasco best Adrian 10 to 3 yesterday in a B semifinal.

Calhoun of St. Mary's Chosen as Outstanding Catholic Prep Athlete

There is no such thing as a lucky athlete, professional quarterback George Shaw, Portland, brought out last night at the St. Mary's high athletic dinner at Rogue Valley Country club.

It takes ability, preparation and desire to be a good athlete, Shaw declared.

The dinner saw St. Mary's Jim Calhoun recognized as the outstanding Catholic high school athlete in the state of Oregon and as St. Mary's outstanding athlete. Calhoun received the Notre Dame club of Portland's award for the state honor from Ray Martin, Roseburg. The school honor is the John Nuich award.

Calhoun was named outstanding basketball player and Jim Webb outstanding track man. The inspirational award went to Tom Darland.

Certificates went to Calhoun for Wigwam Wiseman All-American football honorable mention and for finalist honors in the KOIN Oregon athlete of the year award.

80 Honored
Some 80 athletes were honored and some 200 persons attended the dinner. Awards were made in baseball, track, tennis, and golf and to the cheerleaders. The letter awards included the girls' tennis team.

Calhoun was honored by the Notre Dame club as quarterback on the unbeaten St. Mary's football team, key role in basketball and his performance as a javelin man on the track squad.

Shaw, ex-University of Oregon, who has been with the Baltimore Colts, New York Giants, Minnesota Vikings and Denver Broncos, told the senior athletes that they were just getting started in sports. He advised those going on to college to get out for athletics and not to be frightened by the big players on college teams.

Shaw, who is a Catholic, said that religion is important in helping an athlete to recognize his ability and to realize that it is God given. He paid tribute to the mothers of athletes and spoke of their trials but pointed to the joy and pride their athletic sons bring them.

The pro gridder stressed that any competition in athletics is hard work. He pointed out to those receiving awards that their friends and teammates made the awards possible.

Kansas City Catcher Shipped To Beavers

Officials Weren't Looking; World Record Uncertified

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer
San Francisco — (UPI) — Everybody agrees that Phil Shinnick of University of Washington broke the world record when he broad jumped 27 feet four inches at the California Relays in Modesto the other night.

But officials are just wasting their time and falsely raising the hopes of the 20-year-old athlete if they think they ever can get the record certified.

For those who came in late, somebody forgot to turn on the wind velocity gauge for the jump—and that eliminated all chances of a world record right there.

"I can't see any way the international federation could recognize the world record," said a sad Harold Berliner, high official in world track and field circles. "We know he jumped the distance, but there's no way to prove how strong the wind was blowing."

The allowable wind velocity is 4.473 miles per hour. And it had been blowing between three and seven miles an hour just before the jump. So there's no way of telling if it was a legal jump.

Berliner says he asked the man who was supposed to gauge the wind, Leon Glover J., about the error.

"He said he didn't look at the gauge, but believed the wind was about four and one-half miles per hour."

Said Berliner: "That would have ruled out the jump right there."

And Charley Hunter, veteran chief referee, said he would not certify the mark.

If it's any solace to the sandy-haired Shinnick, he isn't the first one who has been robbed of a world title because of an error by an official.

Earlier this year Bob Hayes, one of the world's great sprinters, was clocked in 9.1 for the 100-yard dash — and thought he had the world mark all by himself.

Then it was discovered that the official wasn't firing the right caliber pistol and the record was rejected.

Al Oerter, the world discus king, thought he had a new world mark in a meet last spring. But it was discovered there was a minute slant in the field—and the record was denied.

Shinnick's broad jump was a super-human effort on his part—possibly a jump inspired by watching Ralph Boston go out around the 27-foot mark.

BURELSON ACCEPTS
Los Angeles — (UPI) — Former Oregon star Daryl Burelson has accepted a bid to compete against world record holder Peter Snell of New Zealand in the invitational mile run at the Compton Relays track meet June 7.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE — Jim Calhoun, above, St. Mary's high of Medford, was named the outstanding Catholic high school athlete of the year by the Notre Dame club of Portland. The award was presented to Calhoun at the St. Mary's athletic dinner last night.

The Beavers are hurtling with injuries. Frank Marsh, hurdler-sprinter, and shotputter Don Roberts are out. Weight man Lou Fasano has a twisted knee, but will compete.

Oregon defeated the Beavers 80-65 at Corvallis May 4.

FLEXIBILITY!
The Daily Newspaper Is the Flexible Medium for Pinning Down Sales

Newspapers don't tie up the advertiser with rigid time schedules or space limitations that weaken the impact and effectiveness of his message. Newspapers offer creative and physical flexibility. An advertiser can use a two-page spread to tell a detailed story or he can use a smaller space to say what he wants in fewer words, depending on his budget and his strategy. The physical flexibility of newspapers means ads can be scheduled quickly to take care of sudden selling opportunities. The daily newspaper is flexible enough to fit any advertising strategy.
