

33 Cars Ready To Go Like Bombs In 500-Mile Memorial Day Race

By ED SAINSBURY
Indianapolis—(UPI)—In racing parlance, 33 cars were ready today to go like bombs in the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race.

The fastest field in history qualified for the event, averaging 149.028 miles per hour, and the pole-winner and probably pace setter, Parnelli Jones, set records for both one lap at 151.847 and 151.153 for the 10-mile distance.

Even the slowest driver in the field, Dempsey Wilson, qualified at 147.832, well ahead of Roger Ward's 500-mile record of 140.293 last year.

Every pilot in the field was expecting a hell-bent dash from the starting gun at noon, (EDT) Thursday.

"The way to run this race will be to go just as fast as you can for just as long as you can," Johnny Boyd declared.

Predicts New Mark
Boyd predicted the winner would average 146 m.p.h., barring accidents which would bring out the yellow flag, slowing the field and forcing each driver to hold his position in relation to every other car.

Troy Ruttman, one of four former winners in the field, anticipated a speed of 147 m.p.h. might be necessary to win, if given a constant green light for all-out charging.

General speculation was that Jones, who set a scorching pace from his pole position last year until his brakes failed and slowed him to a seventh-place finish, again would set the tenor of the chase.

It was believed he would settle to a pace around 149 or 150 m.p.h., unless the chargers behind him force an even faster speed. Bobby Marshall said he had run more than 20 laps, after he qualified, at speeds between 149 and 150, indicating he expected to hit that pace and perhaps faster if necessary to stay in contention.

Such speeds, Marshall admitted, would put a terrific strain on the motors and chassis of the race cars and could turn the race into an endurance run to prove the ability of pit crews and mechanics in preparing and keeping a car running.

Another speculative entry was the pair of Lotus-Fords built by England's Colin Chapman and driven by Scotsman Jimmy Clark and Dan Gurney. Running on regular gasoline and capable of much better fuel mileage than the alcohol-powered breeds, the Lotus-Ford crew publicly announced they expected to finish the 500 miles on one pit stop.

Normal performance for the conventional roadster is three pit stops, requiring about a minute or more in this heated competition. Forty seconds of running time could be more than enough to win the race.

There was sentiment too for the three Novis owned by Andy Granatelli and driven by Jim Hurtubise, Bobby Unser and Art Malone. But the Novis probably will have to make at least three pit stops, and Jones' strategy appeared to be to try run enough faster than the Lotus cars so that he could make a fast pit stop and still stay in front.

Southpaw Leads In Golf Trials
By STEVE SNIDER
UPI Sports Writer
New York—(UPI)—Can a left-hander win the U.S. Open golf championship?

He can if his name is Bob Charles and he plays the way he did Tuesday at Memphis when his 65-67-132 set the pace for the nation in two days of preliminary qualifying trials for this year's National Open. Charles became the first southpaw ever to win a major tournament when he bagged the Houston Classic last month.

The lanky Charles, a 27-year-old New Zealander, poured it on for a two-shot lead in the tough Memphis local district where most of the touring pros were shooting to stay "alive" in the U.S. Open eliminations.

Dave Marr of New Rochelle, N.Y., was second with 65-69-134 and Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Ga., who lost a sudden death playoff to Tony Lema for the Memphis Open crown on Monday, tied for third with 65-68-136.

TRACK DRYER—This unusual vehicle is the latest in race track drying. Called the TraVair, it is used to dry the Indianapolis track after intermittent showers which have plagued the '500' drivers. The machine is powered by the downdraft from an aircraft engine that dries the area behind it as it is pushed along. (UPI)

Sandy Koufax Pays Installment In LA Bid for 1963 Flag

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax, who made such a big difference last year, is making it again this year, and that difference could amount to $200,000 for the elated Los Angeles Dodgers.

The San Francisco Giants picked up approximately that sum for appearing in the 1962 World Series, and the Dodgers can count on at least that much and maybe even more if they win the National League pennant this year.

Baseball men generally agree the chief reason the Dodgers didn't win last season was because Koufax was forced to the sidelines with a finger ailment in July. Sandy's record was 14-4 at the time and he never won another game.

The hard-throwing 27-year-old southpaw has a funny notion about his injury of last year. He figures he owes the Dodgers a pennant.

Koufax paid another installment Tuesday night when he blanked the Milwaukee Braves, 7-0, on six hits to boost the Dodgers within one game of first place.

Sandy lowered his earned run average to 1.51 in posting his fourth shutout and seventh victory against two losses. That puts him even slightly ahead of last year when he didn't score his seventh victory until May 30. He also had lost two games by then.

Never in any real trouble Tuesday night, Koufax struck out eight and walked two but was locked in a scoreless duel

Tentative Regulations Drawn Up
Portland—Final 1963 Oregon hunting regulations will be set after a second public hearing by the State Game Commission here, June 7.

A tentative general deer season of Sept. 28 through Oct. 20 was announced Saturday. In effect, there would be 28 per cent fewer either-sex deer permits issued this year under tentative 1963 big game hunting regulations adopted by the Oregon game commission after an all day meeting in its Portland headquarters.

In addition, the commission tentatively shortened by seven days the either-sex season on game management units. Under the 1963 proposal, a deer of either sex would be allowed in management unit hunts from Oct. 12 to Oct. 20. The first week of the season would be open for bucks only.

Either-sex permits issued by the commission are to be reduced from 135,100 to 97,250. The reductions, by regions, were from 33,100 to 27,300 in the Northeast, from 57,000 to 51,000 in the Northwest, from 14,500 to 9,500 in the Southeast, from 17,700 to 8,200 in the Southwest, and from 12,800 to 5,700 in the Central regions.

DRAW RECORD FIELD
New York—(UPI)—The field for the seventh annual National Wheelchair Games in England July 24-27 was increased to a record total of 250 men and women athletes Tuesday with the addition of teams from Brazil, Canada, Philadelphia, Sioux Falls, S.D., and Washington, D.C.

Roberts Registers Fourth Win in Row For Baltimore Club

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

There's still a lot of the whiz kid left in Robin Roberts.

It's a long 13 years since the veteran right-hander led a young Philadelphia team to the National League pennant, and some of the old speed is gone now. But the comeback pitcher of 1962 seems determined to make the Baltimore Orioles the come back team of 1963.

The Orioles, who finished a disappointing seventh last year after being tabbed as a prime contender for the American League pennant, are taking care to make no mistakes this time around. And Roberts is one of the big reasons they won a bulging 3 1/2-game lead over the second-place New York Yankees yesterday.

Roberts, now 36 years old and relying more on craft than speed, registered his fourth straight victory Tuesday night as Baltimore turned back the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2. It was the Orioles' ninth straight win and their 14th in their last 15 games since Roberts touched off the streak May 14.

Baltimore scored all its runs in the fifth inning when John Orsino singled, moved to second on Roberts' sacrifice

Garibaldi Could Go Back To SF
United Press International Tacoma fans must have mixed emotions as they watch the brilliant bonus baby Bob Garibaldi continue to rack up impressive pitching wins.

The trouble is that he is looking so sensational that his days in the Pacific Coast league may be numbered. The parent San Francisco Giants are fishing around for one more solid starter and Garibaldi looks as though he fits the bill.

Tuesday night, the former University of Santa Clara flash scattered six hits and fanned 10 as Tacoma slugged Portland 4-1 to grab a hefty four and a half game lead in the northern division. Garibaldi, for whom San Francisco shelled out a reported $150,000, now has a 6-1 record.

Shuffle
The southern division standings meanwhile underwent a double-shuffle worthy of a court shark as Dallas-Ft. Worth sneaked percentage points past San Diego into first place, and Denver did the same thing to Oklahoma City in third place. Only last place Salt Lake, seven games off the pace, adds a note of stability to the scene.

Dallas edged Oklahoma City 7-5 and Denver downed San Diego 6-4. It was Spokane 5 and Seattle 4 in 12 innings, while Hawaii and Salt Lake were rained out at Salt Lake while trying to make up a game rained out at Honolulu.

So. Cal Team To Clash With OSU
Corvallis—(UPI)—Southern California's baseball team was scheduled to arrive here tonight for this week end's western NCAA playoff with Oregon State.

Southern California has piled up a 30-14 record over a long schedule. The two teams meet in a best two-of-three series Friday and Saturday with the winner qualifying for the College World Series at Omaha.

Sports Editors Choose McGraw As Top Manager

Boston—(UPI)—John (Muggsy) McGraw, who guided the New York Giants to 10 National League pennants and three world championships, has been hailed as the top major league baseball manager of all time by the Academy of Sports Editors.

McGraw, a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, was named on 83 per cent of the ballots cast by the academy, which is made up of 100 of the nation's leading sports editors.

Joe McCarthy, who managed the Chicago Cubs to their first pennant and the New York Yankees to eight—thus becoming the only man to win pennants in both major leagues, was second in the voting with 64 per cent. Connie Mack, whose Philadelphia A's won nine pennants, was third, also with 64 per cent but just missing second place.

Casey Stengel, present manager of the New York Mets who piloted the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world championships, was fourth with 61 per cent. Miller Huggins, whose Yankees won six pennants, was fifth with 49 per cent.

Collect 15 Hits
The Red Sox slugged five New York pitchers for 15 hits, including two-run homers by Gary Geiger and Lou Clinton. Geiger also collected two singles as he boosted his batting average to .390. Bill Monbouquette gave up home runs to Clete Boyer and Tony Kubek but gained credit for his sixth victory in 10 decisions with ninth-inning help from Dick Radatz.

A two-out three-run homer in the ninth inning by Bob Allison gave the Twins their win after the Senators had tied the score in their half of the ninth with three runs, including a two-run homer by Dan Lock. Jim Kaat went the distance for Minnesota and struck out 11 batters to even his record at 4-4.

Ted Abernathy, making his first appearance for the Indians, got Nellie Fox to line into a game-ending double play in the ninth inning to save the victory for starter Jack Kralick and enable Cleveland to snap a five-game losing streak. Max Alvis' double in the sixth inning drove in the winning run.

Mickey Lolich went all the way for Detroit, giving up eight hits and walking only one batter, to register his first major league triumph. The lone Angel run was unearned. Big blow for the Tigers was a two-run homer by Dick McAuliffe in the sixth inning.

Relko Easy Victor in Epsom Run

Epsom, England—(UPI)—Relko, the 3 to 1 favorite, scored an easy six-length victory today in the English Derby with Merchant Venturer second and Regusa third.

Relko, bred in France and owned by Francois Dupe, overcame the dreaded number one post position to record one of the easiest victories in the long history of the mile and one-half race.

Ridden by crack French jockey Yves St. Martin, Relko easily beat Sir Frank Robinson's Merchant Venturer, with Greville Starkey in the saddle.

Three lengths farther away was Regusa, the entry of John Mullion, with Australian jockey Garnet Bourge in the saddle.
