Applications Being Taken for Summer Band Camp at SOC

Ashland – Applications are now being received for the seventh annual session of the Siskiyou Band Camp which will be held on the Southern Oregon college campus, July 14 through July 26.

Clarence Sawhill, director of bands at the University of California at Los Angeles, will be guest director. Glenn T. Matthews is founder - coordinator of the camp and Dr. Herbert Cecil, is camp secretary. Both are members of the Southern Oregon college music faculty.

The camp is made up of two divisions, one for junior high and one for senior high school students. College and graduate students can enroll for college credit and school band directors find the Camp a good refresher course.

New Feature Noted

A new feature of this year's Camp will be a new music reading workship Thursday and Friday, July 18 and 19. The workshop is being sponsored by Keynote Music Service of Los Angeles, Calif., and band directors of the area are invited to attend the sessions to hear a reading of the new band music from all publishers.

The Camp sponsors a fully-supervised schedule of recreation opportunities, including swimming parties, attendance at Shakespearean Festival rehearsals and performances, a week end pack trip, and other recreational activities.

Enrollment in the Camp last summer reached a total of 170 boys and girls from junior and senior high schools in Oregon and California. Since this number is close to the maximum that the Camp can handle, persons planning to attend should send applications as soon as possible.

Additional information may be obtained by writing Siskiyou Band Camp, Southern Oregon college, Ashland.

Civil Defense Fund Study Under Way

Washington – (UPI) – A House armed services subcommittee today sought to find out exactly what happened to the more than $1 billion appropriated for civil defense since 1951.

Chairman F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) asked Assistant Defense Secretary Steuart L. Pittman to prepare an accounting of the money. He indicated one thing he wanted to examine was the number of civil defense employees in the nation.

The subcommittee is hearing administration proposals for a vast nuclear fallout shelter program. The plan would spend $175 million in the coming fiscal year, and put more than $2 billion in federal aid in shelters over five years.

At the opening session Tuesday, the House group heard four and a half hours of conflicting testimony on shelters, which civil defense officials called lifesavers and critics called death traps.

Pittman claims millions of lives could be saved with proper fallout shelters in areas somewhat removed from prime targets.
