Prospect Woman Elected

Mrs. George Hubbard, Prospect, will serve the Oregon Lions auxiliary as first vice-president for the 1963-64 year. Mrs. Hubbard was elected during the recent annual state convention held in Baker, Ore.

The Prospect woman has been director of District E, which takes in southern Oregon.

Mrs. Harry J. Pitts, Eugene, the new president, states that her object for the coming year will be to build and strengthen the clubs through larger, more active and more enthusiastic membership and to promote the organization of new auxiliaries.

Mrs. Pitts has been an auxiliary member for 14 years; she organized and was charter president of the East Albany club, has been state treasurer and vice-president and director of District R.

The new state president, a former elementary school teacher, is a member of American Association of University Women, Altrusa and the Order of Eastern Star.

Other officers of the Oregon Lions auxiliary are Mrs. Lowell Edwards, Springfield, secretary; Mrs. Earl Vossen, Eugene, treasurer; Mrs. De Laire Anderson, Portland, publicity director; Mrs. George Hathaway, Eugene, director of publications; Mrs. Irving Miller, Jefferson, his-

Officers for New District Announced

Yreka - Selection of officers and appointment of committee chairman for the newly formed garden club district in Siskiyou county marked the first official meeting of garden club presidents held recently at the L & B cafe in Yreka. Mrs. Ray Kelly of Yreka was chosen as the district director.

The newly formed district, which is to be affiliated with California Garden Clubs, Inc., will be known as the "Top-O-State" district, and approval for its formation was given at the state convention held at Sacramento early in May.

The new district will include the Shasta Valley Garden club, Montague; Mount Shasta Garden club and Fort Jones club, all of which were a part of the Cascade district, California Garden Clubs, Inc. and the Yreka Garden clubs, evening and afternoon sections, which were affiliated with Oregon. The Weed Garden club will also be a part of the new county district, after official vote of the club itself has been taken. The new district will hold three district meetings a year.

Officers Named

Other district officials named at the Friday afternoon meeting were, Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, assistant district director; Mrs. Edward Clement, current president of the Shasta Valley Garden club, recording secretary; Mrs. James Sullivan, president of Yreka Garden clubs, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert E. Banning, president of the newly formed Fort Jones Garden club, treasurer. Mrs. Terwilliger is a past president of the Shasta Valley club, and a past district treasurer of Cascade district.

Mrs. Clement announced that the Shasta Valley Garden club will hold its June 7 meeting in the club room of the Montague Auditorium, at 2 p.m. instead of in the Garden hall of the old Montague school as previously announced.

ced. She stated that district officers will be in attendance at this meeting.

Scout Leaders Are Honored

Ashland - Adult leaders of Girl Scouts in Ashland, Talent and Phoenix were honored recently at a luncheon given in the Mark Antony hotel.

Spring flower arrangements by Mrs. Harry Hawk decorated the tables and guest favors were tiny umbrellas made by Mrs. E. G. Tischhauser's third grade troop.

Mrs. Hoy Nidever, district chairman, presided over the recognition program presenting a 10-year guard pin to Mrs. Del Bohn, and five-year guards to Mrs. Larry Reed and Mrs. M. D. McGeary. Special recognition was also given to Mrs. Jerry Gastineau for 11 years service; to Mrs. Ken Bartlett and Mrs. Georgia Smith for nine years; to Mrs. C. E. Wood for eight years, and to Mrs. Howard Wiley for six years.

Invested and receiving their Girl Scout pins were new leaders Mrs. Harvey Shipley, Mrs. Leslie Dobson, Mrs. Doris Wiley and Mrs. Orville James.

Jetters Return

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jeter, 473 South Mountain avenue, returned last week from a month's trip which included two weeks in Hawaii with a niece, celebration of their golden anniversary in the islands and witnessing the official reception given Astronaut Gordon Cooper on his arrival. They afterward visited with their sons and daughters in Seattle.
