

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

MORRIS FISHBEIN tells of a man who bought his wife a piano for Christmas, but by Valentine's Day had persuaded her to switch to a clarinet. "How come?" asked a friend. "Well," was the explanation, "when she's playing the clarinet, she can't sing."

"I had a young half-back on my team once," recalls Football Coach Jack Curcio, "who was so darn fast he always was drawing undeserved penalties for being illegally in motion. I finally told one official that if he'd concentrate his attention on the boy he'd realize he started so fast he gave the illusion of jumping the gun, but really wasn't at all. On the very next play, the penalty whistle blew again. 'He wasn't in motion,' I screamed from the sidelines. 'Agreed,' called back the official. 'The penalty is on the rest of the team for delaying the game.'"

QUOTABLE QUOTES:
 "A good sermon should not only comfort the afflicted—but afflict the comfortable."—Walter Provost.
 "These days the U.N. Building seems to be a site for sore allies."—Ralph Erman.
 "Know thyself? If I knew myself, I'd run away."—Goethe.
 "Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it."—George Bernard Shaw.

Previously, in this space, it was noted that President Kennedy is planning to visit Ireland next month but won't include the village of Blarney in his tour, and won't kiss the famous Stone.

As explained by Presidential Press Secretary Salinger, the acrobatics involved in kissing the Blarney stone are a bit too vigorous to be risked in view of the President's lame back.

Most of us, I think, will agree with the wisdom of his decision.

BUT—In his upcoming campaign for reelection, President Kennedy isn't eschewing all vigorous stunts—as may be

 One can't help wondering what George Washington would have said if it had been suggested to him that less than two centuries later the President of the United States would have to indulge in stunts like that in order to be re-nominated and re-elected to a second term.

SELASSIE PLANS TRIP
 Washington (EP)—Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia will visit the United States for 10 days beginning Oct. 1.

My dentures were killing me...
 I tried all the pastes and powders and pads. Same old trouble! Racking and slipping made my mouth sore and made me irritable. Then I spoke to my dentist... he told me about CUSHION... the soft-flowing plastic that molds to the gums. Now I eat what I want—enjoy what I eat—and my gums feel so good. CUSHION stays soft... that's its secret... and that was my relief. Mully medicated to heal gum soreness; pleasant minty flavor guards your breath. Ask your dentist for CUSHION. You must be satisfied or get your money back. Long-lasting supply—only $1.49.
