The reception which followed the marriage of Miss Diana Victoria Gardener to Judson McDonald Parsons was held at Hillcrest orchard, country home of the Parsons family. Mr. Parsons and his bride are pictured here as they arrived from St. Mark's Episcopal church where the ceremony took place Saturday, May 25, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Gardener, Eagle Point; the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Howland Parsons, Seattle, Wash.; he is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons of Medford and Seattle. These three students at Medford High school have been outstanding in home-making courses and activities this year. Georgia Mitchell (at left) has served as president of the Future Homemakers of America chapter and won a number of awards; Linda Nelson, (center) won FHA and Betty Crocker scholarships, and Sue Sneed won a FHA scholarship and other awards. Janice Payton (at right) models a pink satin evening gown with tiered skirt, brocade bodice and satin stole which she made in sewing classes at Medford High school. (Knackstedt photo)

Foreign students who have been living in Oregon and attending school under the American Field service program were honored guests at a workshop and party which the chapters of this area held last Sunday. The workshop at Westminster Presbyterian church was followed by a swim party and picnic in the patio of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer on Spring street. Shown during the party are Juan Canada-Anidon, Spain, who is living with Mr. and Mrs. John Summerfield, Central Point, and attending Crater High school; Nik Yahya, Malaya, who has been living with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Reichers, and attending Medford High school, and Marion Van Der Bijl, Johannesburg, South Africa, who has been attending Del Norte High school in Crescent City, Calif., and making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dent in that city.

More than 130 southern Oregon residents interested in the American Field service program which arranges exchanges of students, attended a workshop and party held last Sunday in Medford. Shown at left during the picnic, held at the Otto Frohnmayer home on Spring street, are (left to right) James Rowan, in whose home Jens Hasfeldt of Denmark is living while attending Medford High school; Kenneth Cook, representative of Medford Rotary club, one of the sponsoring groups; and R. E. Mencke, Medford. The Mencke's daughter, Carolyn, spent a summer abroad three years ago as an AFS student. Three AFS students (above) interrupted their swim long enough to be photographed. They are (left to right) Ali Saner, Istanbul, Turkey, who is making his home with Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreisman, Ashland, and attending Ashland High school, and Alicia De Los Santos, Buenos Aires, who is living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brown, Grants Pass, and attending high school there, and young Hasfeldt.
