Newlyweds Make Home In Redmond

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Floyd Rohrbach are making their home in Redmond, Ore., following their return from a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride is the former Naida Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Smith, formerly of Medford, now of Klamath Falls. She is a graduate of Medford High school, Robertson School of Business, and Linfield college, McMinnville and was employed in Portland prior to her marriage.

Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Barnes, Central Point. Mr. Rohrbach is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rohrbach, Bend. He is a graduate of Baker High school, Central Oregon college at Bend, and the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity. He is employed by Crater Lake Machinery company.

The wedding was held April 20 in Kern Park Christian church, Portland, with the Rev. Kenneth Johnston officiating.

The bride wore a floor length gown of embroidered white nylon organza and carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and yellow roses encircling a white orchid. Her veil was held by a headpiece of pearl flowers. Her handkerchief of lace from Brussels, Belgium, had belonged to her great grandmother.

Mrs. Bernard Heuker, Portland was matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Barbara Barnes, Roseburg, and Mrs. Donnie Dunlap, sister of the bridegroom. Their frocks were yellow embroidered organza and they carried nosegays of yellow and white carnations.

Mr. Dunlap served as best man and Anthony Lum and Nicholas Wiltz Jr., both Portland, seated the guests. A reception, attended by 200 relatives and friends, followed in the church fellowship hall.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a sheath frock of light green lace with matching accessories. Mrs. Rohrbach chose a pink linen sheath dress with white accessories. Their corsages were orchids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hamilton chose a bone white suit with peacock blue accessories. Mrs. Worthington wore an egg shell suit with pale pink accessories. Their corsages were pink rosebuds.

A reception followed the wedding in the reception hall at the church. Mrs. Pat Guino, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Dwight Worthington poured punch. Pouring coffee was Miss Brownlee. Miss Cheryl Potucek was in charge of the guest book and passed the bags of rice. Mrs. Adrian Stansfield and Mrs. Ray Goodson were at the gift table.

For traveling the bride wore a yellow wool suit with white accessories. The newlyweds are making their home at 43 Oak street, Central Point. The bride attended Crater High school and Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom also attended Crater High school and is employed by White City Plywood company.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fish, Roseburg, maternal grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Downs, Anderson, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hamilton, Dorris, Calif.; and Gaylon Fish, Eugene, uncles and aunts of the bride; and Mr. Stanton, Chico, Calif., cousin of the bride.

Rites Held at Friends Church

Miss Carman Sandra Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carthal James Hamilton, 870 Ellen avenue, became the bride of Roy Dean Worthington, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Francis Worthington, 2391 Howard avenue, in a ceremony held Saturday, May 25 at Medford Friends church.

The Rev. Andrew W. Rahn, Central Point, officiated at the double ring rites attended by 150 relatives and friends. The candlelight ceremony was held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Baskets of pale yellow and lavender stock decorated the altar and white satin bows marked the pew ends. Michael Roark was soloist, accompanied by Miss Georgia Powers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of satin brocade fashioned with a full skirt which formed a train. The fitted bodice was sprinkled with pearls and the scooped neckline and long sleeves were edged with pearls. A small pearl crown held her silk illusion veil which was elbow length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow rosebuds. She also carried a Bible, a gift on her 16th birthday, and a lace handkerchief, a gift from a former classmate, Miss Peggy Brownlee, San Francisco.

Three Attend Bride

Miss Lynne Kinney was maid of honor and the other attendants were Miss Glenda Worthington, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Louis Stanton, Chico, Calif., a cousin of the bride. They wore satin frocks fashioned with bell skirts and jackets with matching shoes and veils. Miss Kinney was in yellow and the other attendants wore frocks of pale orchid.

Their bouquets were of carnations, the honor attendant's in yellow and white, and the others in yellow. The bouquets were colonial nosegays with accents of ivy.

Lighting the candles were Miss Kathy Worthington, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Maurie Kinney. They wore lavender taffeta frocks with small pearl crowns holding short veils. Their flowers were white carnations. Flower girl was Miss Glynn Gayle Fish, Roseburg, cousin of the bride. She wore a yellow taffeta frock and carried a miniature bouquet similar to the bride's. Danny Earl Fish, another cousin, served as ring bearer.

Steven Hudson, Grants Pass, served as best man. Seating the guests were Jack D. Downs, Anderson, Calif., cousin of the bride, and Ivan Higinbotham.
