STUART YOUNG

DAN MILES

DICK DEFFLEY On State All-Star

Three players from Medford high's state semifinal baseball nine have been named to the State team for the prep all-star game with the Metropolitan team of the Portland area.

The three are Stuart Young, pitcher; Dan Miles, shortstop; and Dick Deffley, second baseman. The State crew also includes Gary Reddick, Grants Pass outfielder.

John Kovenz, Medford high mentor, will be head coach for the State club. His assistant will be Bob Kane, South Eugene high tutor.

South Eugene placed three men and Pendleton two on the State crew.

Eugene—UPB—The State baseball team for the annual prep all-star series here June 15-16 will include four lefthanded pitchers and two righthanders.

Lefty Steve Bunker of Pendleton will be joined by southpaws Stuart Young of Medford, Ross Dappen of Reynolds and Butch O'Brien of Prairie City. Righthanders will be John Conrad of Bandon and Loren Whitaker of North Salem.

Catchers are R. J. Hudson of Oregon City and Rob Cook, Pendleton.

Other squad members include: Jack Willis, South Eugene, and Chris Kirby, Forest Grove, first base; Dick Deffley, Medford, second base; Dave Stanley, Albany, third base; Dan Miles, Medford, and Wayne Smith, South Eugene, shortstops; Randy Dolven, La Grande, utility infielder.

Outfielders: Gary Reddick, Grants Pass; Bob Officer, South Eugene, and Dennis Baldrige, McKenzie.

Spokane's Whammy Hits Denver

United Press International Denver is the latest victim of Spokane's unique second game whammy.

The Indians are a so-so 28-26 in the Pacific Coast league standings, but are 15 for 15 in the second games of all their PCL series.

The Indians, five games behind Tacoma in the northern division chase, got a stiff battle Tuesday night before Dick Nen's single in the bottom of the ninth brought a 4-3 victory.

Denver jumped off to a quick lead, but nice relief work by Joe Moeller and Ken Rowe and Al Ferrara's two-run homer in the fifth helped set the stage for Nen's game winning blow.

Ferrara's blast ran his run batted in total to 51 for the campaign.

The weatherman and a couple of hot pitchers pretty well took care of the rest of the PCL action last night.

Portland was postponed at Seattle and Salt Lake City at Tacoma because of wet weather.

Hawaii mashed Oklahoma City 6-1 behind Dick Sovde and Dallas-Ft. Worth thumped San Diego with dazzling Lee Stage doing the honors.

Sovde allowed six hits, but still only faced 32 batters since he did not walk a man.

Damaging Homer
Ex-Los Angeles Dodgers Jim Golden took the loss although Dick Simpson's three-run homer off reliever Butch Nixon did the heaviest damage.

At Fort Worth, the Rangers' Stange allowed but three hits and fanned 15 Padres in running his record to 5-9. Loser Sammy Ellis gave up only one run before retiring for a pitch hitter in the eighth.

The win moved the Rangers a game and a half ahead of San Diego in their southern division battle. The teams are going steady during the next few weeks with all 11 meetings between the teams scheduled soon. San Diego may have its problems.

Off the field yesterday, Seattle and Tacoma pulled off a big trade that sent first baseman Don Gile to the Giants for outfielder Felix Maldonado.

Gile, presently hitting .260, came to Seattle in 1960. He hit .306, had a shot with the Boston Red Sox, but then was shipped down to the Rainiers.

Maldonado was hitting .257. Signed by the San Francisco Giants out of Ponce, Puerto Rico, he has played with St. Cloud of the northern league, Eugene of the Northwest league and El Paso of the Texas league.

Canadiens Hockey Club Trade Four

By DICK BACON
Montreal—UPB—The once awesome Montreal Canadiens hockey dynasty is only a hollow shell today following the passing of four more Habs from the scene through trades and waivers.

The Canadiens, who built what was once one of the best hockey machines ever to grace a National Hockey League rink, Tuesday traded away Jacques Plante, a 34-year-old goaltender considered by many the best netminder the league has ever seen, and smooth-skating forwards Donnie Marshall, 31, and Phil Goyette, 30, to the New York Rangers.

In exchange, the Canadiens received another 34-year-old goalie, Lorne (Gump) Worsley, and three nondescript forwards, Dave Balon, Leon Rochefort and Len Ronson.

Waived To Bruins
The fourth Canadian to leave was Tom Johnson, a 35-year-old defenseman who was picked up for the $20,000 waiver price by the Boston Bruins.

Johnson, named the best defenseman in the league two years ago and a 14-year veteran in the NHL, was out the last half of the 1962-63 season with an eye injury that still hasn't healed.

The Rangers, who until a few years ago wouldn't get "the right time" from Montreal, now have five men in their lineup who were members of the Canadiens' great Cup teams. In addition to the latest trio, the bluishirts also have defensemen Doug Harvey and Al (Junior) Langlois.

The latest deal left the Canadiens with only four members from their championship heyday of the late 1950s—Bernie (Boom) Geoffrion, Jann Beliveau, Henri Richard and Claude Provost.

Kirsch Chosen Coach of Year
Eugene—UPB—Don Kirsch, University of Oregon baseball coach, has been named "Coach of the Year" by NCAA District 8, it was announced today.

W. P. Ferhring, baseball chairman of the District 8, said all district 8 coaches chose Kirsch in a district-wide vote.

Kirsch, who guided the Ducks to second place in the Northern division, had a 25-7 record for the season.

Twiss Eliminated In British Tourney
St. Andrews, Scotland—UPB—Capt. Richard Twiss of the Dalles, Ore., was eliminated in the second round of the British Amateur Golf championship today. Twiss was beaten on the 20th hole of his match with Alan Hall, Scotland.

DROPS IN RATINGS
Providence, R. I.—UPB—The World Boxing association (WBA) today automatically dropped Harold Johnson of Philadelphia to third among contenders because of his loss of the world light heavyweight championship to Willie Pastrano last Saturday. According to WBA rules he was placed below top-ranked Mauro Mina of Peru and second-rated Eddie Cotton of Seattle.

FIGHTER OF MONTH
New York—UPB—The Ring magazine today named light-heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano "fighter of the month" because of his titling victory over veteran Harold Johnson last Saturday in "the upset of the year."

Only 9 Yanks Left In British Amateur

By HENRY W. THORNBERRY
St. Andrews, Scotland—UPB—U.S. Walker Cup stars Downing Gray and Charley Smith were among five more Americans eliminated in the second round of the British Amateur golf championship today, leaving only nine American survivors.

Dr. Ron Luceti of South San Francisco, Calif., and Paule Dye Jr. of Indianapolis were the only Yanks who won their second-round matches on today's morning schedule. They joined seven Americans who reached the third round Tuesday.

All nine U.S. survivors were scheduled to play third-round matches this afternoon. The elimination of Gray and Smith left only three members of the U.S. Walker Cup team in the running for the British Amateur crown.

They were Richard Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif., the defending champion; Dike Sikes of Springdale, Ark., and Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz.

Gray, who comes from Pensacola, Fla., was eliminated on the 20th hole by Morrison Zuill of Scotland; Smith, from Gastonia, N.C., was trounced by Mike Lee of England, 6 and 5.

Besides Gray and Smith, the Americans who lost in the morning second round today were: William Castleman Jr. of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; John Penrose Jr. of Miami, Fla., and Capt. Richard Twiss of the Dalles, Ore.

Mike Bonalack of England, the leading British favorite for the title, advanced to the third round with a 4 and 3 victory over Gregory Young of Ireland.

Nine Yanks failed to survive their opening tests Monday and 16 were chased to the sidelines Tuesday, including U.S. champion Labron Harris of Stillwater, Okla., and fellow Walker Cupper Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., and Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N.J.

Seven of the U.S. survivors were scheduled to play second round matches today. The lucky ones will join the seven other Yank contenders in third round play this afternoon.

Five U.S. Walker Cuppers avoided elimination during the first two hectic days of firing over St. Andrews' par-73 course. They were defending champion Dick Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif., Charlie Smith of Gastonia, N.C., Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., Dr. Edgar Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., and Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla.

The elimination of Harris and Patton were the principal shockers during Tuesday's action.

Harris fell behind early in his second round match with England's Lionel Smith and never caught up as he bowed, 2 and 1. Patton was carried to the 18th green by Jim Pirie, a 25-year-old dairy farmer from Scotland. Pirie won the opening round match when Patton three-putted, the last time from four feet.

Gardner became the third U.S. Walker Cupper to bite the dust when he dropped a 2 and 1 decision to Scotland's Dick Smith.

Davies advanced into the third round with a 4 and 3 victory; over England's Peter Davidson. Updegraff needed an extra hole before downing Richard Gardner-Hill of England, and Sikes won his second rounder against Scotland's Gordon Cosh, 3 and 2. Smith posted a 4 and 2 opening victory over Scotland's Marshall Douglas.

Mule Deer Compact Suggested
Sacramento—UPB—A member of the Oregon Legislature Tuesday told California lawmakers that the only way to save the interstate mule deer was for the two states to enter into a deer compact.

"The herd is in very bad condition," said Rep. Edward W. Elder, R-Eugene, a member of the Oregon House Fish and Game Committee, "with just a little bit more hunting pressure it could even be wiped out."

Elder spoke to the Assembly fish and game committee.

The committee chairman, Assemblywoman Pauline Davis, D-Portland, noted she had a resolution pending that would provide a study of a possible tri-state deer compact among California, Oregon and Nevada.

Elder said the "problem of this depleted deer herd should be studied in depth." He said it was poor practice for one state to adopt one set of regulations while the other state had still different rules for the same herd.

Southeastern Conference Split By Racial Difference

By DAVID MOFFITT
Atlanta—UPB—The Southeastern Conference, long recognized as one of the powerful athletic groups in the nation, is beset with problems these days that could tear it apart.

While it is too early for a definite conclusion, it appears the biggest of these wedges may be the introduction of Negro athletes into this Deep South conference which has held the color line since its formation three decades ago.

It is no longer a question of if—but when. The University of Kentucky has announced that it will start awarding athletic scholarships to Negroes this coming school year. This means that Kentucky probably will have Negroes on its varsity football team in the fall of 1964—and that's when the parting of the ways may begin.

The conference appears split right down the middle on the racial issue. Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, all of which have Negro students, have indicated they are willing to play racially mixed teams on a home-and-home basis.

But in the three deepest of the Deep South states—Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana—the other half of the Dixie dozen doesn't appear as ready to accept Kentucky's plans.

The six question-bag schools, Alabama, Auburn, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Louisiana State and Tulane have declined to come out flatly one way or the other. They all have taken a wait-and-see stand.

The big question for most of these appears to involve playing against racially mixed teams at home. Most teams have played against teams with Negroes in games away from home.
