

Yankee Luck Flares Again As Baltimore Defeated 4-3

United Press International
Yankee luck!
That's what rival American leaguers call it and sometimes you have to wonder because it seems that even when they lose they win.

Take Wednesday night when they lost the services of three-time most valuable player Mickey Mantle for three weeks to a month. Disaster? Possibly in the future but not right now. Because the Yankees not only beat the Baltimore Orioles 4-3, despite the loss of Mantle, but also regained possession of first place.

What's more, they scored the winning run on a tap back to the pitcher's mound that should have resulted in an inning-ending double play. No wonder American leaguers insist somebody up there loves 'em!

The critical play came with the bases filled and one out in the eighth inning. The score was tied at 3-3 and Yogi Berra was making one of his infrequent appearances as a pinch-hitter. He tapped the ball back to the mound and Stu Miller fired it to catcher Dick Brown for the forecourt at the plate.

So far, so good but in another instant so long, Orioles.

Tresh Jars Brown
Because Tom Tresh, running from third base, jarred the ball out of Brown's hand as he prepared for the relay to first base. The ball squirted loose and in another second or two Roger Maris went chugging over the plate—all the way from second base—with the winning run.

Whitey Ford yielded 13 hits but pitched his way out of numerous jams and wound up with his seventh win against three losses. Jackie Brandt and Brooks Robinson homered for the Orioles but Maris achieved a milestone when he hit No. 200 of his career for the Yankees.

The Los Angeles Angels beat the Chicago White Sox 8-2 after a 3-0 defeat, the Minnesota Twins defeated the Kansas City Athletics 4-0, and the Detroit Tigers topped the Cleveland Indians 5-4 in other AL action. The Boston-Washington game was rained out.

Home Runs by Jim Landis and Dave Nicholson and the nine-hit pitching of Johnny Buzhardt enabled the White Sox to win the first game of their two-nighter with the Angels. But the Angels rallied for seven runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap to split the double bill and give Ken McBride his fifth win. Albie Pearson went 2-for-3 in the first game and 4-for-3 in the second.

Richie Rollins knocked in three runs with a homer and two singles and Bob Allison hit his 15th homer for the Twins, who shut out the Athletics for the second straight game. Jim Roland went seven innings before retiring with an injured elbow and Bill Dailey finished the game.

Norm Cash's ninth-inning homer and Terry Fox's sturdy relief pitching for the last 1½ innings gave Detroit's Jim Bunning his fourth victory. Jim Grant suffered his sixth loss against three wins for the Indians.

Tom DeSylvia Resigns Post
Portland (UPI)—Portland State college football coach Tom DeSylvia resigned Wednesday, blaming lack of support for his program.

He announced no plans for the future.

DeSylvia said he decided to quit after he submitted a 1963 football budget of $2,500 and asked that track coach Ralph Davis be named an assistant coach. The PSC athletic board slashed the budget to $800 and refused to approve Davis.

DeSylvia took the Portland State job a year ago after coaching state championship teams at Jefferson High school in Portland.

Banks Rebounds; Cubs Top Giants In Doubleheader

United Press International
It may be about time to take the Chicago Cubs seriously because it's sure time to make light of stories that Ernie Banks is over the hill.

The Cubs, who haven't won a National league pennant since 1945 and haven't been in the first division since 1946, are tied for second place with the St. Louis Cardinals only one game behind the faltering San Francisco Giants.

They've won four straight and 10 of their last 12 games, including Wednesday's 9-5 and 5-4 victories over the Giants.

It would be a ho-hum matter for rival NL teams except for the fact that the 32-year-old Banks—mired in the worst slump of his career for the first seven weeks of the season—is swinging that whip-like bat again like the man who's averaged 33 homers a season for 10 years.

Ernie couldn't buy a hit for one agonizing spell, going 1-for-28 and 0-for-22 in a slump that benched him and suggested that his career as a star might be over.

Banks Bounces Back
But a short rest on the bench apparently was all the ace needed because he's bounced back with nine hits in 19 tries in his last five games. He went 4-for-8 with two homers Wednesday when the Cubs achieved their first sweep of the season and dealt the Giants their seventh loss in 10 games.

The Philadelphia Phillies joined the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Houston Colt .45's, the Pittsburgh Pirates swept the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 and 4-3, and the Milwaukee Braves downed the New York Mets 11-9, in 10 innings in other NL games.

Banks hit two homers and Ken Hubbs, Lou Brock and Billy Williams hit one each in the Cubs' first game win and Brock had three hits in the nightcap as Dick Ellsworth won his eighth game and Lindy McDaniel his second. Willie Mays, Harvey Kuenn, Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda homered for the Giants during the doubleheader.

Pitches Three-Hitter
Roy Culp pitched a three-hitter for his seventh win behind a Philadelphia attack that included a homer, double and single by Tony Gonzalez. Curt Simmons, former Philadelphia star, suffered his second loss of the year and only his second to the Phillies since 1960.

Sandy Koufax pitched an eight-hitter and struck out eight for his eighth victory at Houston. Dick Tracewski had three hits and Frank Howard two to spark the Dodgers' 10-hit attack. Ken Johnson suffered his eighth defeat for the Colts.

Smoky Burgess' eighth-inning pinch single provided the Pirates with their margin of victory in the first game and Bill Virdon led their 10-hit attack with a two-run homer in the nightcap. Bill Mazeroski and Jim Paganioni homered for the Pirates in the first game and Frank Robinson hit two homers for the Reds in the second game.

The Braves blew an eight-run lead when the Mets scored seven runs in the sixth inning but won out in the 10th when Bubba Morton singled with the bases filled. Lee Maye and Denis Menke hit homers for the Braves while Rod Kamal and Frank Thomas had three hits each for the Mets.
