

McDaniel, Altman Star as Cubs, Cards Deadlock with SF's Giants

United Press International
 Lindy McDaniel of the Chicago Cubs and George Altman of the St. Louis Cardinals, who figured in a six-player deal nine months ago, figured again today in a threeway tie for the National league lead. The fantastic Cubs, Cardinals and slumping San Francisco Giants are all deadlocked for first place and the two men chiefly responsible for the snarl are McDaniel and Altman.

Compton Track Meet Tonight

Compton, Calif. —(UPI)—The Compton Invitational Track and Field Meet tonight features a number of superlatives on an entry list which includes six seven-foot high-jumpers, five sub-four-minute milers, and six 16-foot pole-vaulters.

The meet has attracted major attention from track and field fans because of the presence of New Zealand's Peter Snell who may be forced to break his world mark of 3:54.4 if he hopes to win. A fast early pace might leave the door open for an upset victory by one of the following: Jim Beatty, holder of the American record at 3:56.3; Jim Grelle, whose best is 3:56.7; Dyrrol Burleson, 3:57.6; and Carl Weisiger, 3:57.3.

McDaniel, an ordinarily weak-hitting relief pitcher who usually gives way to a pinch hitter, won his own game Thursday with a 10th inning homer off Billy Pierce that beat the Giants 3-2 and gave the Cubs their fifth straight victory.

Third Season Win
 The victory was McDaniel's second in as many days, third of the season and the Cubs' 11th in their last 13 contests. It was the fourth straight loss for the Giants and their seventh in 10 games on the road.

TOURNEY STARTS
 Chattanooga, Tenn. —(UPI)—A field of 35 professionals and more than a dozen top flight amateurs was scheduled to begin competing today in quest of $10,000 in prize money in the first annual Rock City Women's Open golf tournament.

McDaniel was as effective on the mound as he was at bat in handing the Giants their fourth straight setback. Taking over for Barney Schultz with the bases full and one out in the top of the 10th, he picked Willie Mays off second base and then struck out Ed Bailey to end the threat.

Like McDaniel, Altman didn't get into the Cardinals-Phillies game until the late innings but when he did get his chance in the eighth he delivered a pinch double that grove in the winning run in a 5-4 victory for St. Louis.

Originally Altman began his major league career with the Cubs but was dealt to the Cardinals last Oct. 17 in the same trade that sent McDaniel from St. Louis to Chicago. Frank Robinson and Gordy Coleman paced the Cincinnati Reds to a 7-5 and 10-5 twin-night sweep over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the only other NL games scheduled.

Robinson belted his 10th and 11th homers in the opener to help Jim Maloney register his eighth victory in the opener and Coleman drove in five runs in the nightcap as Joe Jay posted his third triumph. Joe Gibbon and Don Schwall were the losing pitchers.

Burdette Ticketed For Trade

New York —(UPI)—Lew Burdette and Frank Thomas, two of the National league's brightest stars a few years back, were ticketed for the American league today as part of a general reshuffling before the June 15 trading deadline.

The Milwaukee Braves, leaning more and more toward youth, may also deal 31-year-old Eddie Mathews and 33-year-old Del Crandall before next week's deadline but departure of the 38-year-old Burdette is a virtual certainty.

Possibly to Orioles
 Although club President Johnny McHale and the rest of the Braves' brass are keeping mum about Burdette, it was learned he will be dealt to an AL contender, most probably the suddenly pitching-starved Baltimore Orioles.

Thomas, the 33-year-old outfielder for the New York Mets who has hit 260 homers during his 13 NL seasons, has been sought by the Kansas City A's since last winter and they apparently have closed a deal to get him within the next few days.

One other deal with a good chance of being consummated before June 15 would return slugging Rocky Colavito to Cleveland from Detroit for possibly Tito Francona and Woodie Held.

Wrestling Tour Slate Announced

Corvallis-Ten Oregon high school wrestlers scheduled to compete in Japan this summer will see more of Nippon than most tourists. That much was guaranteed this week when a nine-match schedule involving nearly 2,000 miles of travel within Japan was announced.

The Oregon schoolboys will depart from Portland aboard a Pan-Am jet flight July 9, spend three days in Hawaii and arrive in Japan July 13. They will open their exhibition schedule July 15 in Tokyo and end it there Aug. 3. In between they will visit the cities of Sendai, Aomori, Asahigawa on the northern island of Hokkaido, Akita, Niigata, Gumma and Japan's second city, Osaka.

John Dustin and DeLance Duncan, wrestling coaches at Marshfield (Coos Bay) and Klamath Falls High schools respectively, will accompany the wrestlers and manage the tour. Wrestlers will be selected at a try-out camp June 16-18 on the Oregon State university campus. Competitors who placed in an AAU meet here in March and high school state champions who competed but did not place in the same meet have been invited for the try-outs. The selected 10, who will be obliged to win their berths in free lance wrestling competition, will assemble again early in July in Portland for a training camp immediately before the trip.

Rossetto Bat Champ

Portland —(UPI)—Damien Rossetto, all-conference outfielder for Southern Oregon, won the Oregon Collegiate conference batting title with a .432 average in the 12-game schedule.

He had 19 hits in 44 times at bat. Oregon Tech's Curt Graf finished next in line with a .410 average. Bob Stamos, Portland State catcher, was third with .405.

Stamos led in runs batted in with 12 and Portland State's Bob Jones had four home runs. Gordon Rise of Portland State topped the pitching with a 4-0 mark while John Thomas of PSC and Don Johnson of SOC had 3-0 conference records.

Statistics showed the following batting marks for Southern Oregon college diamonds: Mike McKinben .368, Bill Bailey .324, Harley Dickerson .302, Dave Hughes .302, Paul Blinka .280.

McDANIEL HERO—A hero's welcoming committee awaits Cub's pitcher Lindy McDaniel as he heads toward home plate after hitting a home run in the 10th inning to give the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 win over the Giants at Chicago. The Cubs are now in a first place tie in the National league with San Francisco and St. Louis.—(UPI)

KO'S SPARMATES

London —(UPI)—British and Empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper, riled by Cassius Clay's disparaging remarks, is knocking out his sparmates as he trains for his June 18 London fight with Clay. Although wearing large 16-ounce training gloves, Cooper Thursday knocked out Bob Clarke of Pittsburgh, Pa., in the first round with rights to the jaw. Clarke was on the canvas twice.

484 Will Vie For Golf Spots

New York —(UPI)—A field of 484 golfers will vie for 129 berths in the 1963 U.S. National Open golf championship when second round qualifying events are held at 13 sites next Monday and Tuesday. The survivors then join 21 exempt players in championship play at the Country Club, Brookline, Mass., June 20-22. Six 36-hole qualifying rounds will be held Monday at Chicago, Kansas City, Cincinnati, Denver, Washington and Portland, Ore. The other seven elimination competitions will be held Tuesday at Pittsburgh, Fort Worth, New York, Atlanta, Bakersfield, Calif., Winchester, Mass., and Detroit. The largest qualifying tournament will be at New York, where 114 players compete for 45 National Open berths.
