

Artists, Gardeners Plan Show in Yreka on Sunday

Yreka - Four cash and two merchandise awards will be given in addition to ribbons in the Siskiyou Artists Association's art exhibit to be held jointly with the annual Yreka Garden club flower show. The event will take place Sunday, June 9, in Winema hall at the Siskiyou County fairgrounds.

Tryouts Announced

Tryouts for the Footlights Little theater group's next production, a two-act comedy, "Goodbye Charlie," will be conducted Monday and Tuesday, June 10 and 11 at the group's little theater at the Fairgrounds near the Medford armory. The sessions are scheduled for both evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

Championship Event Slated By Bridge Club

An open pairs club championship event has been announced by Riverside Bridge club members for June 19. All interested duplicate bridge club players are invited to compete.

Show Cancelled By Gardeners

Illinois Valley - The Illinois Valley Garden club has cancelled the annual flower show due to the cool weather slowing the blooming of the flowers. This decision was made at the last meeting held at the home of Mrs. Fritz Krauss, Selma. A roundtable discussion was held on gardening in this area. Individuals present gave tips and tricks that they have used successfully.

Council of Blind To Hold Meeting

Plans for the annual picnic will be made at a meeting of Jackson Council of the Blind to be held Sunday, June 9, at 2 p.m. in the office of the Commission for the Blind, 248 East Stewart avenue. A "new and used" sale will also be discussed.

Set Open House To Honor Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Ellis, Route 2, Box 576, Central Point, will be honored at an open house to be given Sunday, June 9, in the Medford Friends church. The event will be from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Yreka Society Makes Regional Meeting Plans

Yreka - Plans to attend a regional conference in Redding, Calif., June 12 were made recently by members of Gamma Nu chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary teachers' society. The meeting was held in connection with an annual picnic held at Spring flat on Scott river.

Later in June a planning meeting will be scheduled to arrange the program for the local chapter's year of activities. Another item of business was the nomination of names for membership.

Cash prizes include $15 award, given by Crocker-Anglo bank for the picture receiving the largest popular vote; a $15 award by the Bank of America for the best Siskiyou scene; the May O. Stevens award, and the best in show award.

Merchandise awards in the amount of $5 will be given by Janson's stationery and the News-Journal Print shop.

The public is invited to enter the flower show as well as the art exhibit. No charge is made for entries or space in the flower show. Entries may be registered and placed Saturday evening, June 8, between 7 and 9 and on Sunday morning, June 9 between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. The exhibit will include horticulture divisions for both adults and juniors, a non-competitive educational division and an artistic division divided into three sections, the first for juniors, the second for adult novices who have never won a blue ribbon in the artistic division of a flower show, and the third for amateurs and advanced amateurs who have previously won blue ribbons. Novices may enter the amateur division if they desire.

The exhibit will be judged by national accredited judges and ribbon awards will be given.

Schedules listing the flower show rules and divisions and classes may be obtained from Mrs. Howard Mullica, 410 Third street, who is general chairman for the flower show. She may also be contacted by phoning 842-3150.

Girl Scouts

Court F. via A court of awards was held at the Girl Scout center by Troop 4. Presentation of colors was by Valerie Miller, Susan Dixon, Shari Dillon, and Jeanne Williams.

The sixth grade patrol consisting of Margo Finnell, Donna Thigpen, and Lauri Stacy performed a skit based on the song, "Scarlet Ribbons." Mrs. J. L. DeArmond has been working with this patrol and helped them earn their badges. Girls in the fourth grade patrol sang, "Make a New Friends" and helped with the other skits. Debbie Jarvis, Connie Newport, Jannie Grotte, Dianne Arant, Sharon Hall, and Cynthia Schieferstein make up this patrol, all of whom have received their wings earlier in the year.

Members of the fifth grade patrol that received their second class rank were Claudia Buseman, Tonya Keener, Gall Vinson, Susan Dixon, Janet Brown, Arlene Campbell, Barbara Adkins, Valerie Miller, Kathy Mood, Charlene Hall, Jeannine Williams, and Shari Dillon. The girls entertained the parents with three different skits and all girls sang several songs. The girls served refreshments to the parents.

Receiving the cook and homemaking badges were Margo Finnell, Donna Thigpen, and Lauri Stacy. Earning the swimming badge were Janet Brown, Jeanne Williams, Margo Finnell, and Lauri Stacy. Claudia Buseman, Margo Finnell and Lauri Stacy also earned the horsewoman badge.

Leader of the troop is Mrs. Bernard Peils and assistant leaders are Mrs. Earnie Newport and Mrs. Vern Buseman.

Returns Ashland - Mrs. Paul Finnell, 121 Nob Hill street, returned last week from a visit of more than a month with her sister, Mrs. Ida Percival, and other relatives in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

The shift - summer's most newsworthy fashion - goes sight-seeking in high style! This sleeveless version in barn red denim chambray has a shirt collar and white leather tie belt. Easy on the up-keep, it's made from Pepperell drip-dry cotton. Design by College-Town of Boston.

Shift Fast Becoming New Classic

There's a new sportswear "classic" vying for position with America's beloved shirt-waist, the shirt-and-skirt coordinates, and pants. Various called the shift, the shaft, and the natural dress, it's fast becoming all things to all women. Both functional and flattering, it's at quick to pull on as jeans in the morning and its easy fit hides common figure faults.

Because of its simple cut, this new fashion is easy to wash and press. Most often, the shift appears in drip-dry cottons which need no ironing at all. For this reason, it's a welcome addition to vacation wardrobes. . . and you'll find it takes up little room in your suitcase.

The trend away from slacks and hair-roller look at the supermarket may account for the popularity of the shift. Or women and girls may be discovering that this little dress is a great deal more provocative than pants! At any rate, the shift is to be found in the summer collections of practically every junior and misses' sportswear house now.

Various interpretations of the shift show up for summer, the National Cotton Council reports. One version is the country-look shift - a sleeveless version usually seen in cotton denim teamed with a madras belt and low set pockets. Shortest shift of all is the beach type, which ends just above the knee and is cut looser for wearing over a swimsuit.

For shopping or sight-seeing, there's the A-line shift with a dropped waistline, generous pockets, and contrasting shift which sports a shirt collar and the belt.

If current indications are correct, summer won't see an end to the shift's popularity. Already many manufacturers plan to show it again in the fall in slightly heavier cottons.

Mrs. David Jackson was honored at a shower at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Allen, Cascade Village, May 25. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Allen was Mrs. Arthur W. Glocker, Jr. and Mrs. Earl Fichtner.

The guests included Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Arthur W. Glocker, Mrs. Fern Cripeca, Mrs. Earl O'Neal, Mrs. Meda Reynolds, Mrs. Clelland Carson, Mrs. Dale Ault, Miss Bonnie Hard, Mrs. Donna Davis, Mrs. Lucille Jackson, Mrs. Pauline Ward, Mrs. Kay Miller and Mrs. Virginia Spencer.

Farewell Luncheon Is Given

Mrs. James Coon, 203 Genesee street, past president of the Medford Jaycees, was guest of honor at a luncheon given recently by the group in North's Chuck Wagon restaurant. Mrs. Coon, with her husband and children, Larry and Susan Coon, will leave this month for Portland where Mr. Coon is a sales engineer for Maydwell and Hartzell, Inc., Portland branch. The farewell event was in the form of a surprise.

Mrs. Coon was presented a gift as a token of appreciation for her achievements as president, when she accomplished many of her aims, among them, closer unity between the Jaycee and Jaycette clubs in joint projects and an active membership.

During her year in office her community projects included work in the Sabin polio clinics, Red Cross Bloodmobile, United Medford Crusade luncheon, safety seat belt clinic, Christmas wrapping for Jaycee shopping tour for underprivileged children, Mothers' March of Dimes and Miss Rogue Valley contest.

The Coons were active in Jackson school Parent Teacher association where Mrs. Coon was a room mother. Mrs. Coon was leader of a Brownie troop at Jackson school. She was co-chairman of programs for the Roosevelt Parent Teacher association, also donated much time to the Bloodmobile work, and the Red Cross Motor corps.

Cook Honored At Assembly

Mrs. Frank Konopasek was honored recently at the year end awards assembly at West Side school. She is retiring from her job as cook at the school after serving for 12 years.

The students, the Mothers club and the faculty each presented her a gift in appreciation of her work.

The students were represented by their president, Royce Lull, and Mrs. Ellis Chantler, Mothers club retiring president, made the presentation of the club's gift.

ASH IN AVOCADOS A little leftover Sunday roast can be easily turned into another main dish with a brand-new look and taste. Sauté one to two teaspoons curry powder in butter or oil for a minute or two, then add a cup of chopped onion and cook until tender-crisp. Add the roast, cut into cubes, and a can of bouillon or thinned-down leftover gravy. Simmer 20 to 30 minutes to blend flavors and reduce liquid. Spoon into California avocado halves and serve with steamed rice tossed with chopped parsley or chives.

Visitation Made to Bethel; Installation Set Sunday

Mrs. Kenneth Gildner, grand guardian and William Harris, associate grand guardian, of Portland, made their official inspection visitation to Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Tuesday evening. A dinner at the Medford Hotel honoring the visitors preceded the meeting and was attended by the guardian council and Bethel members.

Honored Queen Lynn Langston presided at the initiation which followed in the Medford Masonic Temple with the Misses Debbie Dyer, Joanne Morton and Earlene Pidcock becoming new members. A number of girls and visitors from other Bethels were introduced among them Mrs. Norman Svensen, Bethel 14 guardian, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kelley, associate guardian and guardian of Central Point Bethel. The new members also introduced their parents and members of their family that were present.

Refreshments were served by Sharon Chipman and Sidney Slead assisted by their mothers and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood.

Installation ceremonies for the new term will be held in the Medford Masonic temple, Sunday, June 9, at 1:30 p.m. with Miss Patricia Selby being installed honored queen. Medford chapter, Order of De Moyle will assist with the ceremony and all parents and those with Masonic affiliation are invited to attend.

Tea Marks Season's End

A tea for mothers and friends marked the final event of the sorority season for Gamma Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The event was held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charles Williamson, 2416 Edgemont drive. Goldenrod iris decorated the tea table. Mrs. Harold Sloper assisted the hostess in pouring.

Guests were Mrs. Effie Adams, Miss Fay Carver, Mrs. Ruby Dadds, and Mrs. Bernard Thumler.

A gift and scrapbook of the past year's event was presented to retiring president, Mrs. Darrel Hughes and Mrs. Williamson, for their work during the year.

A highlight of the afternoon was a showing of the recent findings of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson's trip to 17 ghost towns in central Nevada in early May. Mrs. Williamson spoke about the trip. Items displayed were an oxen shoe, a tiny Chinese doll, and bottles of handblown glass found in the ruins of a saloon.

A business meeting followed the talk with the new officers in charge. Committees were appointed by Mrs. William Knips, president, for the following year.

Two summer events planned are a luau and swim party for next month and a camp-out for July.

Mrs. Sloper was hostess for the evening.
