

St. Peter's Plans 35th Anniversary Of Its Founding

The 35th anniversary of the founding of St. Peter's Lutheran congregation will be celebrated Sunday in both morning services, at 8:15 and 11 a.m.

A church potluck dinner will be held after the second service in Hawthorne park, or, in case of rain, in the basement of St. Peter's church.

Originally St. Peter's was organized as St. Peter's Lutheran Church of Ashland. Since, however, the membership soon was predominantly from the Medford area, a building site was purchased two years after the founding, on Aug. 26, 1930, at East Main st. and Portland ave. A year later a chapel-parsonage was built there. The present church on East Main st. and Vancouver ave. was dedicated in the fall of 1949. Two years later Pastor Young accepted a call to become pastor of Zion Lutheran church, Nampa, Idaho. At present he is associate pastor of Zion Lutheran church (Missouri Synod), Portland.

Opened New Fields

When just out of the seminary, Mr. Young was commissioned in 1924 by the former Oregon and Washington District of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod to "serve Roseburg, Medford, Montague, Calif., and to open new fields along the Southern Pacific Lines." Soon after he arrived with Mrs. Young, living in Roseburg until January 1928. From then until 1931 the Youngs lived in Ashland, from where they moved to the Portland ave. chapel-parsonage. While serving St. Peter's, Mr. Young also organized congregations at Ashland and Grants Pass, which today are known as Grace and St. Paul's, respectively.

The Youngs have three children, Mrs. E. J. Leland, Portland; Mrs. Robert D. Johnson, Griffin Creek area; and the Rev. Virtus Young, pastor at Havre, Mont. Present pastor of St. Peter's is the Rev. John E. Simon.
