DESTROYER IN CHICAGO—The French heavy destroyer Bouvet is shown with Chicago's skyline in the background as it docked in Chicago Friday. It is the first French warship in history to drop anchor at Chicago's growing inland port. The Bouvet, part of a seven destroyer squadron, was given a 21-gun salute as it entered the port. While in Chicago, the 270 French sailors will be guests at a baseball game, dances, and other social events. (UPI)

VIEW OF TIBET—This view of forbidden Tibet was taken from 29,028-foot Mt. Everest, highest point on earth, by Barry C. Bishop, National Geographic Society staff member and a member of the Society's American Mt. Everest Expedition. Bishop and his climbing partner, Luther G. Jerstad, of Eugene, Ore., reached the summit May 22. Looking northwestward from Everest, the serpentine strip from the middle foreground to right background is the Rongbuk Glacier. REMNANTS OF SECT—Members of a group of 224 "old believers," last remnants of Russian sect that took refuge in Turkey 300 years ago, get off a plane at Idlewild, New York. The group arrived from Ankara aboard two planes chartered by the intergovernmental committee for European migration. Their gaily colored Cossack costumes drew curious attention from modern travelers at the airport. Being of old Russian Orthodox faith, they wished to come to a Christian country instead of returning to "Godless Communism" in Russia or instead of remaining in Turkey, primarily a Moslem country. MEETS ACTORS—India's President, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, shakes hands with actor Paul Newman as he visits the set of "The Prize" being filmed at MGM studios. At left is Edward G. Robinson and at center is German Actress Elke Sommer. The President was in Hollywood on a three-day visit. (UPI)

OUT OF CONTROL—An early morning fire Friday, which raged out of control for nearly two hours, destroyed the central portion of the Hyatt House, a luxury motel in Seattle. The fire started in a deep-fat fryer in the kitchen, and went on to destroy the building housing a kitchen, coffee shop, cocktail lounge and two banquet rooms. About 200 guests were roused from their sleep by the management, but did not have to be evacuated. Damage was estimated at $200,000. (UPI)

OBSERVES BIRTHDAY—Mary M. Kelly is shown (at left) trying a little frosting from her cake as she celebrates her 112th birthday in Long Beach, Calif., General hospital. Mrs. Kelly was born in Southfield, Mich., in 1851. She has almost outlived her entire family. Only a grandson and daughter and two grandsons are living. (UPI)

RECEIVES PLATTER—President Kennedy is shown receiving a silver platter from senior students of John Burroughs High school in Compton, Calif., with inscription "To a real American President." The presentation was made as he visited the grand ballroom where the seniors were holding their prom. A month ago hotel officials asked the seniors to relinquish their reservation to make way for a Presidential Dinner. The President intervened and moved into a smaller room. (UPI)

TRY TO SHAKE HANDS—A group of people lining the streets of China Lake, Calif., a Naval testing station, run out and try to shake hands with President Kennedy during his visit to the Naval Ordnance Testing station Friday. (UPI)

GUARDS TEHRAN STREET—A tank guards a Tehran street during riots last week. Three-day rioting sparked by Moslem mullahs (clergymen) in opposition to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi's program for land reform was ended Friday, the Iranian government claimed. (UPI)

APPEARS AT HEARING—John C. Duncan, executive vice president of W. R. Grace and company and U.S. representative for Peruvian sugar producers, appears before the House Banking and Currency subcommittee which is seeking answers to the sharp rise in sugar prices. Duncan said that "Peru has taken and shall take every step to fulfill its quota commitments to the U.S." (UPI)

WADE IN LAKE—Warm weather encouraged this brave nun to wade in Lake Austin, even though she was being harassed by the other nuns sitting on the dock. Eighty nuns were having an outing at the Davenport Ranch west of Austin, Tex., Friday. The nuns are attending a special session at St. Edward's university, Austin. (UPI)
